The Aims and Purposes of Lindenwood College

Lindenwood College was founded over one hundred years ago as a school for young women which would have for its aim to "enlighten, ennoble, and elevate our daughters." That is still the purpose of the College, and it endeavors to direct each student to that end, whether she remains two years to take her Junior College certificate or remains four years to obtain her bachelor's degree. The College looks upon each student as an individual who should be encouraged to develop herself to the highest and best of which she is capable, in every respect concerned with education. With this in mind, Lindenwood College receives as students only those young women whom it believes to be capable of a high standard of college work and of upholding the reputation of the institution as a school "Christian in influence, discipline, and instruction." It then endeavors to give each girl an opportunity to develop herself in a spiritual and a cultural way; to receive a liberal education and to gain through it both social and intellectual poise, and to develop any love of knowledge for its own sake which she may have; with this end in view, the College so limits its number that each student will have an opportunity for advice and aid from instructors of training and experience; finally, it recognizes the right of a girl to choose a vocation and receive training for it, in addition to her education along more liberal lines.

The Curriculum

Healthful existence in society as it is organized today with all of its complications demands that the individual should be trained to practical ends and to social adjustments. No modern college curriculum can properly ignore this, and it is with this knowledge in mind that Lindenwood College has revised its curriculum. The objectives of its course of study are these:

It offers, as before, training in major fields and in vocations, since every girl should, in this day, be prepared to become a breadwinner even though at the present time it may not seem probable that she will have to earn her own living.

The curriculum has, however, in addition, as a definite objective the training of women for the use of their leisure time. In the business world for many years, in all probability, the hours of work are going to be short. In the home, because of mechanical inventions, there will be more leisure. How are these hours of recreation to be spent? This College endeavors to help solve the problem by offering courses along distinctly cultural lines such as the History and Appreciation of Music, Art, Drama, Literature, and will stress subjects, in general, dealing with the cultural life. The taste and ability to judge between the fine, the mediocre, and the bad in the world of fine arts is very important for the educated woman if our standard of amusements in this country is to be raised.

The opportunity is given also to afford graduates of Lindenwood College much better training in the relations of the family. This implies taking such courses as The Family, The Psychology of Human Relations, Child Development, Nutrition and Dietetics, Home Architecture and Furnishing, and other subjects in which college women should be informed if they are to be intelligent members of the unit of the family life.

Lindenwood College feels that college women should be trained to become intelligent leaders in the community to which they return. To this end they should be trained in problems of civic responsibility, and in recreation for the men and women and children of the community.

They should, in addition, by taking such courses as American State and National Government, and other work along this line, be better trained than they previously have been in the political obligations of citizenship. Women voters should be interested in having as their representatives in state and national government individuals who have some sense of social obligation and integrity. With training, educated women should be able to do a great deal in improving the political standards of the country.

New courses are also offered in the literature and languages of other peoples. Through a study of international relations, the aim is to give graduates of Lindenwood College such a sympathetic understanding of the difficulties of other peoples of the world that they will be able to do their share in solving peaceably some of the terrible problems that are facing the world—to be solved peaceably—if the horrors of another great war are to be averted.

Through such a curriculum, Lindenwood College aims to send a girl out to take her place in the world as the highest type of citizen, in addition to giving her the subjects of specialization and the training in a vocation which she would, as a matter of course, expect to be able to choose from a modern liberal arts college curriculum.

Lindenwood College offers the Junior College certificate as well as the Senior College degree, and whether a girl remains only for her Junior College course or spends the entire four years at this College, it endeavors to fit her as adequately as possible for the career which she may choose. The College feels, however, very definitely that there are great advantages for the student who takes her degree at the college in which she began her work, particularly in the case of a small college. The faculty become thoroughly acquainted with her aptitudes and can aid her after she leaves college in a way they cannot do if she has had only one or two years at the institution; she makes a real college home for herself; she discovers her possibilities in extra-curricular activities in a way she often cannot do in a larger institution; and as an upper class student she can be a real influence and power on the campus as regards the younger students. Lindenwood College believes very strongly in the virtues attached to the four-year small college.

HISTORY OF LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

For more than one hundred years Lindenwood College has served the community, the State, the Nation. It was a pioneer of woman's education in the Southwest. Its history is contemporaneous with that of the Commonwealth of Missouri, the College being founded in 1827, six years after Missouri was admitted to statehood. From the earliest records obtainable, the site was selected and obtained, as far back as 1814, for the woman's college which was at that time in the minds of its founders.

Major George C. Sibley and his wife, Mary Easton Sibley, were impressed with the need in the sparsely-settled Southwest of a school for the higher education of young women. Mrs. Sibley, in a writing of early date, expressed the desire that some provision be made for the education of young women that should fit them for life's duties, as men were fitted for their life's work. The result was the founding of a college for young women, on a beautiful site overlooking the Missouri River in a forest of linden trees, after which the College was named—LINDENWOOD.

The school was conducted under the direction of Mrs. Sibley for many years. From Major Sibley's diary it is learned that young women came by stage and on horseback from all parts of the State and surrounding country. Many of the first families of the newly-formed commonwealth were its patrons, and the school grew in numbers and prestige.

Major and Mrs. Sibley, being members of the Presbyterian Church, in 1831, petitioned the Presbytery of St. Louis to appoint a Board of Directors to manage the school, and placed it under the direction of the church of their faith, the school to be maintained in the interest of all who sought its privileges, regardless of church affiliation. It was to be non-sectarian. One provision, however, was insisted upon as a permanent part of the curriculum—the teaching of the Word of God on a parity with other studies of the college.

The College was chartered by a special act of the Legislature in 1853. In 1870 the charter was amended, vesting the appointment of Directors in the Presbyterian Synod of Missouri, U. S. A., instead of in the Presbytery of St. Louis.

Friends have from time to time made substantial gifts to insure the growth and scholarship of the College. In days past the names of Watson and Ridgely have been prominent in the endowment of the College. In more recent years the fortunes of Colonel James Gay Butler of St. Louis and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Leggat Butler, have been given to the College. This institution today has no indebtedness on its two million dollar plant, and, in addition, has a productive endowment of over two million dollars, making a total valuation of over four million dollars for buildings, grounds, and endowment. This makes it possible to provide the very best in laboratories, library, and other facilities necessary for carrying on a high standard of education.

Accrediting

Lindenwood College is a standard four-year college, recognized by the highest educational accrediting associations. It is a member of the Missouri College Union, composed of the universities and Class A colleges of the State. Membership is also maintained in the North Central Association of higher institutions of learning, the Association of American Colleges, the American Council on Education, and the American Association of University Women. Lindenwood College is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools as a degree-granting institution.

Location

Lindenwood College is located in the city of St. Charles, Missouri, on the bluffs of the Missouri River, twenty miles west of the city of St. Louis. St. Charles, a city of twelve thousand people, is located on U. S. Highways 40, 61, and 94. The Wabash and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroads have through trunk lines. St. Charles has also coast to coast bus line service. The Lambert-St. Louis Airport is close and easily accessible to those traveling by air lines. St. Charles is in the very heart of transportation facilities for all parts of the United States. Bus service is maintained every thirty minutes between St. Charles and St. Louis.

The advantage of suburban and the privileges of city life are afforded the students. The best concerts, lectures, and operas are within easy reach and at a small expense. Students are permitted to attend them when they do not interfere with their college work. Art museums and centers of culture and music are always open to the students.

Buildings and Grounds

The College grounds cover an area of 140 acres on one of the highest elevations in the extreme western part of the city of St. Charles. The campus is within the city limits, having all the advantages of light, water, and public fire protection, and yet so separated by its extent as to afford the greatest freedom to the students in their daily exercises and the routine of college life.

A golf course is a part of the College grounds and is so conveniently located as to be accessible for brief or extended exercise in playing. The course is open for all students free of charge.

A modern athletic field affords opportunity for the playing of hockey, tennis, baseball, and other outdoor sports.

Adjoining the campus is a well-conducted farm, under the direction of an experienced superintendent.

Dormitories—The College is equipped with the following five well-planned dormitories:

Sibley Hall is the historic building of the campus, named in honor of the founders of the College, Major and Mrs. George C. Sibley. It is a three-story brick dormitory. A large Colonial porch with eight columns twenty-six feet tall give it a commanding appearance on the campus. The interior has been modernized, the greater number of the suites and single rooms being provided with private baths. One of the interesting features is the spacious parlors, fitted out with antique furniture of the period of the Sibleys.

Ayres Hall was named in honor of Dr. George Frederic Ayres under whose direction it was built during his administration as President of the College. It was known as Jubilee Hall until October 21, 1927. Having been remodeled and refurnished, the Board of Directors thought the practically new building should bear the name of Dr. Ayres, who had given ten years of his life to the College as President. It is a three-story brick building used as a dormitory. Suites with baths, double and single rooms with running water, are provided. Attached to this building is the central dining room and kitchen.

Butler Hall is named after the donor, Colonel James Gay Butler. On the ground floor are located the college gymnasium and swimming pool and on the first floor is the "Students' Living Room," where the girls assemble and enjoy social fellowship. Every bedroom has hot and cold running water.

Niccolls Hall was built in memory of the late Samuel Jack Niccolls, D. D., who for a generation was identified with Lindenwood College as president of the board of directors. The building was erected by his friend, Colonel James Gay Butler. In the basement are rooms for piano and voice practice. Two reception rooms are located on the first floor. Niccolls Hall is the largest dormitory on the campus. Every bedroom has hot and cold running water.

Irwin Hall is named in honor of Dr. Robert Irwin, who was president from 1880 to 1893. The hall is a three-story-and-basement brick, fireproof building, 51 by 148 feet in dimensions, costing over two hundred thousand dollars. It accommodates eighty students. It faces north and is just opposite The Gables, the home of the president. Every room is an outside room, as in all the other dormitories. Connecting rooms with bath accommodate four students, two in each room. Fudge rooms, pressing and curling rooms, recreation room and parlor, make it a most complete dormitory for students.

Roemer Hall—Roemer Hall, so named in honor of the president of the College, is the administration building. The ground floor contains classrooms, in addition to the Public Speaking studios and the laboratories and practice suite of the Home Economics department. The college postoffice and book store and a room for day students are also located on this floor. On the campus side of the first floor are the bank, the accounting department, and the offices and reception rooms of the president, the secretary, the dean of the college, and dean of students. The corridors, wide and well lighted, with a stairway at either end, give access to the auditorium in the east wing and the classrooms in the west wing. The auditorium extends through two stories and is designed with a balcony. The total seating capacity is eight hundred. A modern stage has been provided with dressing rooms, organ loft, and a separate entrance from the outside. The lighting facilities are of the latest design for modern stage performances. On the second floor of Roemer Hall are classrooms, lecture rooms with raised floors, and offices for instructors. The third floor contains classrooms, lecture rooms with raised floors, and an art room with an entrance foyer for exhibition purposes. The remainder of this floor is given over to various laboratories thoroughly equipped for the study of biology, chemistry, physics, physiology, and zoology. The building and equipment cost $500,000.

The Margaret Leggat Butler Library was erected five years ago in memory of Mrs. Margaret Leggat Butler. It is an unusually attractive building designed in Tudor Gothic style, and is T-shaped in plan. The library is conveniently located in relation to class rooms and dormitories, and is open on school days from 8-12, 1-5:30, and 7-10 o'clock. Saturday hours are from 9-12 and 1-4.

Two large reading rooms with vaulted ceilings extend across the front of the building. Reference books and periodicals are shelved there in low wall cases, and one hundred and fifty girls can be accommodated. Study tables and chairs are also provided in the stacks. A new mezzanine floor of stacks has recently been added, doubling the book capacity and allowing room for expansion. Students have access to the stacks and are encouraged to take advantage of this privilege.

The library houses a working collection of 18,575 books, and receives about 150 periodicals and 15 newspapers regularly. Our proximity to St. Louis makes it possible for students to use the library facilities offered by University, public, and historical libraries of that city for special research problems.

This building was erected in memory of Mrs. Margaret Leggat Butler who, with her husband, Colonel James Gay Butler, gave the greater part of their wealth to place Lindenwood College on a firm financial basis.

Faculty Room—A room for faculty use and relaxation has been attractively furnished on the second floor, and has direct access to the stacks.

Club Room and Museum—In the Library building will be found a Club Room appropriately furnished for the meetings of sororities, clubs, and other organizations of the College. Here will be found every convenience for the serving of luncheons, a modernly equipped kitchen and dishes for serving food. On the same floor near the club room is a museum containing the early manuscripts and library of Major and Mrs. George C. Sibley, pictures of the Presidents of Lindenwood College, pictures of Colonel and Mrs. James Gay Butler, and college trophies, also many class pictures of students of past years. An interesting feature of the museum is a reed organ purchased by the Sibleys in 1816, one of the first to be introduced in this part of the country.

The Gables is a frame-and-stone building situated on Butler Way at the entrance to the quadrangle of College buildings and is used as a residence by the President of the College.

The Music Hall is a three-story brick building situated on Butler Way near the center of the campus. Private lessons and classroom instruction are given in this building. The studios are large and well-lighted; the decorations and furnishings are of distinctive beauty; the equipment is the best that can be had. In addition to studios, classrooms and reception room, the Music Hall provides a splendidly appointed room for Phi Theta chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon.

Eastlick Hall is a two-story brick building situated on Watson Street at approach to College grounds on Houston Driveway. It is named after Mrs. Nellie Leggat Eastlick of Los Angeles, California, a niece of Colonel and Mrs. James Gay Butler. Now used as a faculty residence.

The Tea Room, of interest to all students on the campus, is open during every day and every evening. It is conducted by the College, and any profit arising from its operation is devoted to the Students' Loan Fund.

The Lodge is a two-story brick building situated on the State Highway and used as a residence by the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds.

The Watson is a two-story frame building situated near the Athletic Field and occupied by the College electrician.

Equipment

Heating Plant—The dormitories are steam heated. The central heating plant is located at some distance from the buildings and is twenty feet beneath the surface of the ground. Large 150-horse-power tubular boilers of the Brownell type are installed in the plant and are more than adequate to meet the requirements. Four large water heaters supply the buildings with hot water. The building is of stone and cement structure. Efficiency and safety are always considered.

Swimming Pool—The swimming pool is constructed of concrete. It ranges in depth from three to nine feet and contains, when filled, 35,000 gallons of water. A water temperature of 78 to 80 degrees is maintained, and the pool is used the entire college year. The water is filtered as it is run into the pool, and a refiltration appliance constantly purifies it.

Fire Protection—Every precaution is taken for the safety of the students in case of fire. Modern fire escapes and fire extinguishers are provided in each building. The installation of a college pumping station gives the highest pressure for the fire hose in the dormitories. Fire hydrants are conveniently located on the campus. Under the supervision of the board of underwriters, the electric lighting system is carefully safeguarded.

Water and Sanitation—The college authorities have installed an excellent filtration and purifying station. The water from St. Charles city basins is clarified before it is pumped to the college. The college takes it from the city mains and passes it through another filtration system before pumping it into the mains supplying the dormitories. Tests are made frequently throughout the year and filed by the medical department.

Careful attention is given to every detail in sanitary regulation. Modern plumbing in every dormitory insures perfect sanitary conditions. The sanitation is regularly inspected by the college physician.

The Filtration Plant is a brick and frame building which is used for a filtration and pumping station of the water used in the College buildings.

Boarding Department—The boarding department is excellently equipped. The kitchen is furnished with a modern bake shop, electric ovens, bread mixers, warming devices, and refrigeration equipment. Two huge ranges, large and small steamers for vegetables, meat cutters, warming tables, and an electric dishwasher occupy other parts. Large aisles to and from the dining room insure efficient service. A basement under the kitchen is divided into storerooms for supplies, potato peelers, and vegetable cutters.

The dining room, situated in Ayres Hall, is well ventilated and lighted and accommodates over 600 people.

This department is presided over by a trained dietitian who makes out the menus especially adapted to the needs of the students. Under her supervision, an assistant directs the work of the chef and helpers. The dining room is supervised by one especially trained for directing the movements of the waitresses and seeing that the best service possible is given the students. Breakfast is served at 7:30 A. M. and is optional in attendance. Lunch is served at 12:20 P. M. and dinner at 6:00 P. M.

Health—The first requisite of an education is good health. The location of the college, the sanitary regulations, the mild climate, the large campus, make the conditions of the college most inviting to parents interested in the health of their daughters.

Every student is at all times under the medical direction of the College. A college infirmary is provided for the care of the sick at no expense to the student. In all cases of illness she must report to the infirmary for observation. There is no fee attached to the services of the physician and nurse in ordinary cases of illness. Office consultation during the physician's office hours is free.

Should any preference for medical treatment other than that provided by the College be expressed, such preference will be respected. The expense in this case must be borne by the student.

In case of serious illness requiring a private nurse or special attention of a physician or special hospitalization the student must bear the expense.

College Bank—"The Lindenwood College Deposit," called the "College Bank" by the students, is located on the first floor of Roemer Hall and is equipped like a modern banking institution. It was established for the convenience of the students who could place their spending money there and avoid the danger of carrying it about until needed. A cashier is in charge and at stated hours she receives deposits and cashes checks. Checks drawn on The Lindenwood College Deposit are payable only to the student in person. They are not honored by any bank or business house, the Deposit being for campus convenience of the students only. The College is responsible only for money placed in its care. The College Deposit has been of great usefulness in the training of young women in banking procedure. Written permission of parents or guardians must be filed with the cashier of the Deposit, permitting the student to check against the parent's or guardian's account in the home bank.

Furniture—Each student's room is supplied with a single bed, a mattress, a pillow, a study table, chair, a dresser and a closet or wardrobe. The windows are furnished with shades; students may furnish curtains, if they desire. Each student is responsible for the care of her room, and any injury done to furniture, room or building will be charged to the occupant of the room.

Student Life and Organizations

Government and Discipline—Students entering Lindenwood College are placed upon their honor for loyalty and promotion of high standards of personal conduct. No rules are arbitrarily formulated; only such rules of guidance that protect the interests of the students and college alike. A handbook is printed, giving rules and information concerning discipline and government. Upon entrance each student becomes a member of the Student Government Association. Every Tuesday morning the Association meets for the discussion of student problems and the report of the Student Council. Individual and community responsibility rests upon the students.

Since it is the purpose to keep the atmosphere of the college wholesome and helpful, the President may dismiss at any time any student who may be exerting a harmful influence or who may be found to be entirely out of sympathy with the tone and standard of the college, even though she has not committed any special act of insubordination.

Home Life—The College takes the place of the home while the student is in residence, and great care is taken to further the spirit of the home. The greatest freedom consistent with the best interests is given. Individual responsibility is encouraged, and the spirit of cooperation and family fellowship is taught.

Each student is required to care for her own room. A prize is awarded at the end of the year for the best kept double and the best kept single room in each dormitory.

No regulations as to dress are adopted, but students are required to exercise care in their personal appearance and to be attentive to correct posture.

Religious Culture—Although the college is non-sectarian in matters of religion it insists on the knowledge of the Word of God and Christian training. Every student is required to take at least four hours Bible study during her college course.

Addresses are given during the year by ministers, missionaries, and laymen upon topics that will give the students a large vision of Christian work. Chapel services are held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings and vespers on Sunday evenings. The Y. W. C. A. is an effective organization in the development of the religious life. Pastors of the city are given the names of those who express denominational preference. Each student is expected to attend the church of her preference.

Entertainments—Public recitals, concerts, and lectures by the faculty and students and world-wide artists furnish an abundance of wholesome entertainment. Within recent years such outstanding writers as Hugh Walpole, Thornton Wilder, V. Sackville-West, Dr. Rollo Walter Brown, and Sheila Kaye-Smith have lectured at the College.

Guests—Patrons, friends, and former students are always welcome. The St. Charles Hotel gives special attention to all patrons and friends visiting the College. It is desirable that visits to the students be arranged for week-ends, to avoid interruption of the regular work. Under no circumstances will students be excused from their college duties to be with friends or relatives in the city.

Vacations—The college is closed during the Christmas and the summer vacation periods. During the spring vacation the college cares for all who desire to remain. The usual rates of board are charged.

Allowances—Students should be placed upon an allowance from home to meet their incidental expenses. The experience of the College in this respect has clearly demonstrated that a student keeping within the home allowance has found the practice in after life to have been a very important part of her educational equipment. Students presenting a budget to the Bursar for incidental expenses at the beginning of the school year, and keeping within it, are offered a substantial prize by business friends of the College. The Bursar will check quarterly the accounts of the students.

Sororities—The Sororities at Lindenwood College are open to all students who meet the educational qualifications prescribed by the National organizations. The Sororities as classified by the college departments they represent are as follows:

- Kappa Chapter of Kappa Pi—Art
- Psi Cast of Alpha Psi Omega—Speech and Dramatics
- Theta Xi Chapter of Beta Pi Theta—French
- Kappa Beta Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta—English
- Pi Gamma Mu—Social Science
- Alpha Mu Mu—Music
- Phi Theta Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon—Music
- Pi Alpha Delta—Latin
- El Circulo Espanol—Spanish

Delta Phi Delta—Public School Music

Tau Sigma—Physical Education

The Home Economics department is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association

The Poetry Society is open to students in all departments

In addition to the above are the following departmental societies:

Athletic Association—Physical Education

Commercial Club—Business

International Relations Club } History and Government

League of Women Voters }

Triangle Club—Science and Mathematics

Honor Societies—Alpha Sigma Tau is an honor society admitting the highest ranking students in the College of Liberal Arts.

Mu Phi Epsilon admits the highest ranking music students in the Junior and Senior years.

All ranking music students are eligible for election to the Alpha Mu Mu Sorority.

Student Supplies

For the convenience of new students, the college suggests the following articles which should be provided at the time of entrance:

Bible, preferably the American Revised Version; dictionary; two pairs of three-quarters sheets; four pillow cases, eighteen inches by twenty-six inches; sufficient extra bed-clothing; two bedspreads; towels; four table napkins.

A gymnasium uniform and a swimming suit may be purchased at the College book store.

Every article must be distinctly marked with the owner's full name.

Admission

Application for Admission

In applying for admission, the student subscribes to the terms and conditions, financial and otherwise, specified in the Catalog of Lindenwood College for 1936-1937.

Application for admission should be made as early as possible in order to insure the prompt completion of all preliminary arrangements.

All communications regarding reservations should be addressed to the Secretary, Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri, and each applicant must fill out and return a registration blank, which will be furnished upon request.

Every application must be accompanied by a deposit of ten dollars ($10), room reservation fee, which will be credited on account upon matriculation. No refund will be made if the student fails to matriculate.

Students desiring to enter in the fall of 1936 are urged to make early application, as the rooms in the dormitories are assigned in the order of receipt of application.

An application is not fully accepted until a statement of honorable dismissal and a certificate of scholarship from the last school attended have been passed upon by the Registrar.

All communications regarding high school and entrance credits should be addressed to the Registrar, Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri.

Sources of Acceptable Credits

Credit—A statement of credits must be certified by the proper official of the school in which they are made. The Registrar of the College will furnish blank forms for high school credits which must be filled in by the Principal or the Superintendent of the high school concerned. These blanks should be returned directly to the Registrar as soon as possible after graduation.

A diploma will not be accepted as a credential.

Accredited schools are:

1. Those accredited by the various state universities.
2. Those accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.
3. Those accredited by other similar associations.

Examinations accepted for entrance are:

1. Those conducted by Lindenwood College.
2. Those conducted by the College Entrance Examination Board.

A fee of $5.00 each will be charged all students who take entrance examinations, and $2.00 for each special examination.

Admission from Other Colleges and Universities—An applicant for admission who offers credits from another college or university must present a certificate of honorable dismissal. She must also submit an official statement showing the subjects upon which she was admitted and the transcript of her record in such college or university. These certificates should be sent in advance to the Registrar of the College.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Students applying for admission must be graduates of fully accredited high schools, or must present fifteen acceptable units for admission from a four-year accredited high school or twelve acceptable units for admission from an accredited Senior high school. Students who are graduates of unaccredited secondary schools are admitted only upon the basis of examination.

An entrance "unit" means a subject that is pursued for five forty-five minute periods for at least thirty-six weeks.

Candidates for admission must present high school units which are selected from the following list of subjects:

Registration

The fall term opens Tuesday, September 15. Students are advised to register the first day.

A student who enters after the regular registration period is required to pay a fee of $5 for late registration.

Students expecting to attend Symphony Concerts must not elect courses which meet on Friday afternoons. No student will be excused from classes in order to attend the concerts.

Students should plan their courses for both semesters.

Standard Intelligence Tests are given to every freshman during the first week of school.

Every freshman and sophomore must take one hour of Physical Education each semester unless excused by the College Physician.

Every freshman must take American Contemporary Civilization.

Every student must take two hours of Bible her freshman year and must complete four hours of Bible before receiving any degree.

Regulations, Grades, and Degrees

General Regulations

Explanation of Symbols and Abbreviations—The Roman numeral at the left of the number of a course indicates the grade of the course. Courses of Grade I are primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores; courses of Grade II primarily for Sophomores and Juniors; and courses of Grade III primarily for Juniors and Seniors. Unless permission is secured from the Dean of the College and the head of the department concerned, a Freshman may not elect a course of Grade II, a Sophomore a course of Grade III, or a Junior or Senior a course of Grade I. When a Junior or a Senior elects a course of Grade I, only three hours' credit is obtained for a five-hour course, two-hours' credit for a three-hour course, and one hour's credit for a two-hour course.

The letter following the number of a course indicates the semester in which it is offered; for example, Course "1a" is offered during the first semester, "1b" during the second semester. Where the course number is not followed by a letter, a year course is indicated; for example, Course 2 is continued throughout the year.

Prerequisite Courses—The description of each course is preceded by a specification of the prerequisite courses. No student may enter a course unless she has had the prerequisite courses. An exception to this rule may be made only by special action of the Dean of the College and the head of the department concerned.

Withdrawal of Courses—A course may be withdrawn unless it is elected by a sufficient number of students. In general, a course will not be given for fewer than five students.

Number of Hours—No student is permitted to carry courses aggregating fewer than twelve credit hours unless the minimum is reduced, in view of exceptional conditions. No student is, as a rule, permitted to carry more than the maximum number of hours allowed for her college class. In general, the maximum for the students in the various classes is as follows:

Freshmen: Fifteen hours, exclusive of required hour of Physical Education.

Sophomores: Sixteen hours, exclusive of required hour of Physical Education.

Juniors and Seniors: Seventeen hours.

Withdrawal from Courses—No student may withdraw from any course that she has entered unless the circumstances are exceptional. In such a case permission must be obtained from the Dean of the College and a card of dismissal obtained from her and presented to the instructor of the course which is to be discontinued. In general, credit is not allowed for a course which is incomplete.

Students dropping courses six weeks after the beginning of the semester with an unsatisfactory grade will receive a grade of F for that semester. Students dropping courses after the first six weeks, with a good excuse, will be given the mark of Incomplete if their record up to that time has been satisfactory.

Absence from Examinations—In the case of enforced absence from regular examinations, the work may be made up by special examinations or otherwise, at the discretion of the Dean. If the work is made up by special examination this must be done at a time that does not interfere with regular class work.

Reports to Parents—Complete reports are sent to parents twice each year, as soon as possible after the close of each semester.

Elimination of Students—The college will eliminate students who cannot or will not measure up to the standard of scholarship maintained by the college. A student is eliminated if she does not pass in a certain proportion of her work in any semester.

Grades—The grades of E, S, M, I, and F are given. The grade of E means that the student is one of the few excellent students. The grade of S gives the student rank among those who are superior. The grade of M means that the student ranks among those satisfactory, approximating half of a class. Below M, the grade I means that the student is somewhat below medium. The grade of F places the student among those ranking lowest, and is not a passing mark.

Residence—A candidate for any degree, diploma, or certificate must be a student at Lindenwood College for at least one year. For a Bachelor's degree the last year's work of the student should be done in residence at Lindenwood College.

Degrees, Diplomas, and Certificates

The following degrees, diplomas, and certificates are granted by Lindenwood College upon the completion of the courses prescribed:

College of Arts and Science

The degree of A. B. (Bachelor of Arts).

The Junior College certificate of Associate in Arts (two years).

A certificate in Art (two years).

A certificate in Speech and Dramatics (two years).

School of Vocations

9. Physical Education: Four hours.

A total of 60 semester hours, exclusive of Physical Education, is required for this Certificate.

The requirements for the Senior College Degree of Bachelor of Arts are those given above in Numbers 1-9, and the following:

10. A total of 124 semester hours, exclusive of Physical Education.
11. A total of 512 points. Each hour of credit has the following value in points: E, 10 points; S, 7 points; M, 4 points; I, 1 point; F, —2 points.
12. During the last two years of college, a major and a minor subject, as follows:
 - (a) A major subject of at least twenty-four hours chosen from courses of Grades II and III, of which at least twelve hours must be of Grade III.

*Required of all freshmen.

A student showing unusual proficiency in any one language upon entering college may, by special permission, be excused from her language requirement.

- (b) A minor subject of at least twelve hours, of which at least six hours must be of Grade III. The work in the major and minor subjects must ordinarily be pursued in the Junior and Senior years, but courses which have been satisfactorily completed in the Sophomore year may be counted toward the major at the discretion of the head of the department concerned. In case a Junior or a Senior selects an elective course of Grade I, only three hours' credit will be allowed for a five-hour course, two hours' credit for a three-hour course, and one hour's credit for a two-hour course.
13. She must pass an examination in proficiency in English, during her Junior year. No student will be recommended for graduation until she has satisfactorily passed this test.
 14. She must complete four hours of Bible before any degree is granted.
 15. Two Bachelor degrees will not be granted to a student until she has completed a minimum of twenty-four hours' work in addition to the requirements for one of the degrees.

Students planning to teach should complete a minor of eighteen hours, of which at least nine hours are of Grade III work.

Courses of Instruction in the College of Arts and Science

ART

(See page 117)

BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND HISTORY

The Bible department was established by Mrs. Margaret Leggat Butler who endowed the Chair.

Four hours of Bible study are required for all degrees. Two hours of Bible must be taken during the freshman year. The courses in Bible, Grades III, 8-11a, are offered to students majoring in Bible and Philosophy. They will not be given unless elected by five or more students.

The purpose of the department is to advance the interest of students in the field of religious education. For the general student, the work is designed to equip the individual with general adaptability for and understanding of volunteer religious leadership.

Additional specialized courses in religious education are available in the Lindenwood College Community Leadership Training School for workers in religious education (evening courses fall and spring semesters). These courses receive college credit, to be adjusted according to the work done.

For students interested in preparing for positions as church secretaries or as teachers or directors of religious education, the course of study is outlined on page 67.

I 12a, b. An Introduction to the History of the Hebrews

The course is designed to introduce students to the systematic study of the Bible in a survey of the life of the Hebrew people, using outlines, readings from the Bible, lectures, and discussions. The course will trace particularly the social, religious, and ethical developments that take place and the appearance of the books of the Bible in their chronological order. The implications of these facts for modern life will receive constant consideration.

Credit: Two hours.

II 3a. Hebrew Prophetic Literature

A study of the Hebrew prophets, involving the origin and purpose of the prophet, and the times, personality, problems, and messages of the writing prophets.

Credit: Two hours.

II 13b. The Life and Teachings of Jesus

A study of the life and teachings of Jesus, as recorded in the Gospels, with special emphasis on the application of His teachings to the problems of the present time.

Credit: Two hours.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

II 6a. Hebrew Poetry and Wisdom Literature

An introduction to Hebrew poetry and wisdom literature, with a special study of the five so-called poetical books of the Old Testament.

Credit: Two hours.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

II 5b. Historical Records of the Apostolic Church

A study of the Christian Church of the first century, with emphasis on the development of the beliefs and organization of the Church, and on the writing, purposes, and message of the books that ultimately make up the New Testament.

Credit: Two hours.

III 8b. Problems of Religion

A seminar designed to deal with some of the problems arising in the field of personal religion as the intellectual horizon of the individual enlarges and expands. Difficulties involving the Bible, religion and science, religious experience in the light of psychology, sociology, and the like—as suggested by the needs of the class—will be considered. Discussions, assigned readings, class investigations.

Permission of instructor required for entrance to course.

Credit: One or two hours.

III 9a. History of Religions

A study of religion as a fact in the history of man, involving an examination of the religion of primitive peoples and a comparative study of the great religions of the world.

Credit: Three hours.

III 10b. History of Christian Missions

A survey of the missionary enterprise of the church, especially the modern missionary movement and its accomplishments.

Credit: Two hours.

III 11a. Principles of Religious Education

Prerequisite: At least four hours of Bible.

An introductory study of the aims of religious education, the principles of education in their moral and religious significance, the choice of materials and of methods and their practical adaptation to varying situations.

Requirement for Major—Ten hours in Bible; fourteen hours in Philosophy.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCEI 1a. Hygiene

A course presenting the principles of personal hygiene and public health as applied to the daily living of college students and members of families.

Credit: Three hours.

I 2b. Preventive Medicine

A course dealing with the causative agents, methods of transfer and prevention of infectious diseases.

Credit: Two hours.

I 3a, 3b. General Botany

A course which aims to give the student a knowledge of the fundamental facts of plant life and an appreciation of the world of living things. Students are trained to recognize our common trees and shrubs in the field.

Time: Two lectures and three laboratory periods a week.

Credit: Five hours.

I 4a, 4b. General Zoology

An introductory course which deals with the principles of animal biology as illustrated by the study of representative members of the animal kingdom.

Time: Two lectures, three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

I 5b. Invertebrate Zoology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 4a or 4b.

A course which continues the work begun in the introductory course and gives a knowledge of the local forms in their structure, behavior and habitat.

Time: Two lectures, three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

I 21b. Cultivated Plants

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b.

A study of garden plants including their identification, cultural requirements, methods of propagation and means of protecting them against pests and diseases.

Time: Two lectures, three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

I 29. Nature Study

A course which aims to cultivate in the student an appreciation of nature and to make her acquainted with the plants and animals with which she may come in contact.

Time: Two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

(Open to all students.)

II 6a. Elementary Physiology

A course dealing with the anatomy and physiology of animal life, with special reference to the human, consisting of lectures supplemented by laboratory work in which are studied the structure and physiology of some of the lower forms of animal life.

Time: Three lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

(Not open to freshmen.)

II 7a. Bacteriology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b, or 4a or 4b, or 6a or 6b.

An introductory study of bacteria, with emphasis upon the bacteriology of the home.

Time: One lecture and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Three hours.

II 8a. Comparative Anatomy

Prerequisite: Biological Science 4a or 4b.

A course dealing with the comparative anatomy of the vertebrates with special emphasis upon mammalian structures and their development.

Time: Two lectures and three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 14a. Heredity and Eugenics

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b, or 4a or 4b, or 6a or 6b.

(Open without prerequisite to junior and senior majors of other departments.)

A course dealing with the laws of heredity and their biological foundation.

The problems of human heredity and eugenics are considered.

Time: Three lectures a week.

Credit: Three hours.

II 17a. Heredity Laboratory

Prerequisite: Same as 14a.

Laboratory experiments in crossing different types of parents to study the effects of heredity and environment on the offspring.

Time: Two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Two hours.

II 22b. Elementary Ecology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b, or 4a or 4b.

A course dealing with the response which plants and animals make to their environment.

Time: Two lectures, two laboratory periods of three hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 9b. Field Botany

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b.

A course dealing with the classification of plants and the characteristics of the different families, studying in detail an example of each family.

Time: Two lectures and two laboratory or field trips of three hours a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 24b. Anatomy

Prerequisite: Biological Science 4a or 4b, or 6a or 6b.

A course dealing with the structure of the human body.

Time: Three lectures a week.

Credit: Three hours.

III 11b. Plant Anatomy and Physiology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b.

A course dealing with the structure and functions of the higher plants.

Time: Two lectures, two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Four hours.

III 15b. Advanced Bacteriology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 7a.

A course dealing with pathogenic bacteria and food microbiology.

Time: One lecture and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Three hours.

III 13a. Microtechnique

Prerequisite: Biological Science 3a or 3b, or 4a or 4b.

A course dealing with the methods of making microscope slides of both plant and animal material.

Time: One lecture and three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Four hours.

III 10b. Vertebrate Embryology

Prerequisites: Biological Science 4a or 4b, and 8a.

A course dealing with the development of the vertebrates with special reference to the chick and mammal.

Time: Two lectures and three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

III 12b. Biological Problems

Prerequisites: Biological Science 3a or 3b, or 4a or 4b, or 6a, and one other Grade II course.

A course in which are considered some of the fundamental problems which are of interest to the biologist.

Time: Three lectures a week.

Credit: Three hours.

III 20b. Advanced Physiology

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1a or 1b, Biological Science 4a or 4b, and 8a or 6a.

A study of human physiology with special emphasis on metabolism, circulation and respiration, internal secretion and the nervous system.

Time: Two lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Four hours.

III 19a or b. Biological Research

Prerequisite: Fifteen hours of major work in Biological Science.

Advanced work on selected topics will be arranged with individual students who are prepared to undertake semi-independent work.

Time: Two or three laboratory periods a week.

Credit: Two to four hours.

(By special permission, students may carry this course throughout the year.)

III 23a. Morphology of Plants

A general survey of plants considering their origin, development and structure.

Time: Two lectures and three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

III 27b. Entomology

This course deals with the anatomy and biology of insects, with emphasis on their economic importance.

Time: One lecture and two laboratory periods of three hours each, a week.

Credit: Four hours.

III 28b. Parasitology

Prerequisite: Biological Science 4a or 4b.

A consideration of the origin and biological significance of parasitism, and of the structure, life, and economic relations of representative parasites.

Time: Two lectures a week.

Credit: Two hours.

III 30. The Family

A study of the American contemporary family life from the following approaches: the biological and psychological aspects of family adjustment; the home and its equipment; foods and diets; social and economic conditions that affect the family.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

III 31. Child Development

A study of the physical and mental development of the child from the prenatal period to adolescence, with emphasis on infant and child care, formation of habits, and the treatment of the handicapped child and the exceptional child.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

(Marine Biology: Students may take courses in Marine Biology at the Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, Massachusetts, or at the Puget Sound Biological Station, Friday Harbor, Washington. Summer Session is six weeks, or nine if you prefer. Work taken at other marine or fresh-water stations of accredited institutions will be accepted for major credit.)

CLASSICAL LANGUAGES AND LITERATUREGreek*I 1. Elementary Greek

A beginning course with emphasis placed upon the reading of simple Greek prose, including a study of the essential forms, syntax, and English derivatives.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

I 2a, 2b. Greek Mythology

Library ScienceI 3a, b. Library Science

A one-semester course to familiarize the student with the library, its resources, and methods of research. It includes a study of book classification, the card catalog, discussion of book selection aids and magazines, survey of fundamental reference books in the various fields of knowledge, and compilation of bibliographies. The course is conducted by lectures, discussions, and practice problems which illustrate types of information to be found in dictionaries, encyclopedias, indexes, and other general reference works.

Credit: Two hours.

MathematicsI 1a. College Algebra

Prerequisites: One entrance unit in Algebra and one in Geometry.

A review of the topics included in first courses in algebra; quadratics, graphs, binomial theorem, progressions, permutations and combinations, determinants, and an introduction to the theory of equations.

Credit: Three hours.

I 2b. Trigonometry

Prerequisites: One entrance unit in Algebra and one in Geometry.

A course in plane trigonometry with attention given to graphic work and practical applications.

Credit: Three hours.

I 14b. Mathematics of Finance

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1a or 13a.

A study of the principles of investment and the elements of actuarial science.

Credit: Three hours.

II 3a or 3b. Analytic Geometry

Prerequisite: Mathematics 2b.

The usual topics in the analysis of plane figures.

Credit: Four hours.

II 4b. Mechanical Drawing

Free-hand lettering; use of instruments; drawing to scale; sections; use of simple geometrical curves.

Credit: Two hours.

II 12a. Teaching of Arithmetic

A study of the various topics of Arithmetic, their historical development and the methods of teaching. This course is given for those who are planning to teach in elementary schools and is not to be offered to fulfill a mathematics requirement.

Credit: Two hours.

III 4a. Solid Analytic Geometry

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3b.

Coordinate systems in space, the straight line, the plane, quadric surfaces.

Credit: Two hours.

III 5a. Differential Calculus

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3b.

A first course in differential calculus, including its simpler applications.

Credit: Three hours.

III 6a. Integral Calculus

Prerequisite: Mathematics 5a.

Integral calculus and its simpler applications; a review of differential calculus.

Credit: Three hours

III 7b. Theory of Equations

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3b.

A brief course in the study of fundamental properties of equations, roots and solutions of equations.

Credit: Two hours.

III 8b. Mechanics

Prerequisites: Mathematics 6b and Physics 2b.

Statics of rigid bodies; dynamics of a particle and of rigid bodies.

Credit: Three hours.

III 9a. Differential Equations

Prerequisite: Mathematics 6b.

A brief course in ordinary and partial differential equations.

Credit: Three hours.

III 10b. Methods of Teaching Mathematics

A study of modern methods in the teaching of secondary mathematics.

Credit: Two hours.

III 11b. Higher Algebra

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1a or 1b.

Credit: Two hours.

Requirements for Major—Nineteen hours in Mathematics and Logic; five hours in Physics.

MODERN LANGUAGESI 12b. Contemporary European Civilization

A survey in English of the general social and political backgrounds of modern Spain, France, and Germany. Lectures with assigned collateral readings.

Credit: Three hours.

(Open to all students.)

III 21. World Literature

(For description, see English, page 46.)

Credit: Three hours each semester.

FrenchI 1. Elementary French

A careful drill in French pronunciation and the essentials of French grammar, including regular and common irregular verbs; the reading of easy texts; conversation. Both semesters must be taken for credit toward a degree.

Credit: Five hours each semester.

I 2. Intermediate French

Prerequisite: French 1, or two entrance units in French.

Further drill in French pronunciation and a more intensive study of grammar; dictation and selected readings from works of modern masters of French fiction and drama. The course is conducted largely in French.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

II 3. General Survey of French Literature

Prerequisite: French 2, or three entrance units in French.

Lectures, themes, and readings from authors representing the chief periods of French literature.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

II 4a. French Composition and Conversation

Prerequisite: French 2, or three entrance units in French.

Regular text with outside reading in current periodicals as basis for conversation.

Credit: Three hours.

II 5b. French Composition and Conversation

Prerequisite: French 2, or three entrance units in French.

Careful grammar review with practice in written composition and dictation.

Credit: Three hours.

II 6b. Practical French Phonetics

Prerequisite: French 2, or three entrance units in French.

A study of French pronunciation, stress grouping, intonation of the spoken phrase; memorizing of anecdotes and poems; use of phonograph in preparation.

Credit: Two hours.

(Required of all students majoring in French.)

III 7. French Literature of the Seventeenth Century

Prerequisite: French 3.

A study of the classic period with representative works of Corneille, Racine, and Moliere; outside reading with reports; themes in French.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

III 8b. Advanced French Prose Composition and Conversation

Prerequisites: French 4a and 5b.

A continuation of French 4a and 5b.

Credit: Three hours.

III 9. French Literature of the Eighteenth Century

Prerequisite: French 3 or 7.

A study of authors and the "ideas" of the eighteenth century; collateral readings and reports; themes in French.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

III 10. French Literature of the Nineteenth Century

Prerequisite: French 3 or 7.

A study of the development of the romantic, realistic, and contemporary movements as illustrated by the works of the various authors; outside reading with reports; themes in French.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

III 11b. Methods of Teaching Modern Languages

Comparison of texts; study of modern teaching methods; practice in presentation of main subjects; collateral reading dealing with French institutions and conditions.

Credit: Two hours.

GermanI 1. Elementary German

Careful drill in the essentials of German grammar and pronunciation; reading of easy texts; conversation. Both semesters must be taken for credit towards a degree.

Credit: Five hours each semester.

I 2. Intermediate German

Prerequisite: German 1, or two entrance units in German.

More intensive study of German grammar; dictation; conversation, and selected readings from the works of representative German writers.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

III 9b. Contemporary Spanish Literature.

Prerequisite: Spanish 6.

Course offered only on request.

Credit: Three hours.

Requirement for Major in Modern Languages—Sixteen hours in one language; eight hours in the same or another language.

PhilosophyII 1a. Ethics

A course designed to awaken a vital conviction of the genuine reality of moral problems and the value of reflective thought dealings with them.

Credit: Two hours.

II 2b. Elementary Logic

A study of the formal principles involved in deductive and inductive mental processes as a foundation for exactness in thinking and precision in the use of terms and propositions.

Credit: Three hours.

II 5a. History of Philosophy

An outline of European thought from the early Ionian thinkers to modern times. The important philosophers and schools are studied in the light of the civilization and culture of their times, and the intimate relation between the development of philosophy and the progress of mankind socially, intellectually, and religiously is emphasized.

Credit: Three hours.

II 4b. Introduction to Philosophy

A study of the great problems of philosophy and the ways in which thinkers have attempted to solve them. The main object of the course is to familiarize the student with the philosophical point of view and with the terminology of philosophy.

Credit: Three hours.

III 8a. Recent Philosophy

Prerequisite: Philosophy 4b or 5a.

A study especially of English and American philosophers and tendencies in philosophy during the nineteenth century and later. The aim of the course is to introduce the student to the present-day thinkers and thinking on philosophical and religious subjects.

Credit: Two hours.

III 9b. The Psychology of Religion

Prerequisites: Psychology 1a or 1b, Philosophy 4b or 5a.

A psychological study of the religious consciousness and of religious experience.

Credit: Two or three hours.

III 10a or b. The Philosophy of Religion

Prerequisite: Philosophy 4b or 5a.

A study of the metaphysical basis of religion and ethics, the aim of the course being to show the philosophical explanation or justification of the fundamental assumptions of faith and of religious truths. Lectures, library readings, and thesis will be required.

Credit: Two hours.

Requirement for Major—Fourteen hours in Philosophy; ten hours in Bible.

The Courses in Philosophy, Grade III, 8-10, are offered to students majoring in Philosophy and Bible. They will not be given unless elected by five or more students.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

Chemistry

I 1a, 1b. General Inorganic Chemistry

A general introductory course, covering in the first few weeks a general survey of all the common elements, and then a detailed study of the most important non-metals and their compounds.

Time: Three lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 2b. Qualitative Analysis

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1a or 1b.

Lectures and personal instruction in solution, precipitation, colloidal condition, equilibrium, ionization, oxidation, reduction and the chemical and physical properties of sulphides, hydroxides, carbonates of metals. Laboratory work in systematic qualitative analysis and experiments illustrating underlying principles of the chemistry of the metals.

Time: Two lectures and three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 3a. Organic Chemistry

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1a or 1b.

A course covering the aliphatic or chain series of carbon compounds, carbohydrates, fats and simple amino-acids are emphasized.

Time: Two lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Four hours.

II 3b. Organic Chemistry

Prerequisite: Chemistry 3a.

A continuation of organic chemistry through the aromatic series, dyes and special topics.

Time: One or two lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Three or four hours.

III 4. Quantitative Analysis

Prerequisite: Chemistry 2b.

A course covering the general principles and methods of procedure in both gravimetric and volumetric analysis. Conference and laboratory work.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

III 5b. Biochemistry

Prerequisites: Chemistry 3, Physiology 6a or 6b.

A course dealing with the chemical processes involved in the lives of plants and animals.

Credit: Three hours.

III 5b. Physical Chemistry

Prerequisites: Physics 1a, Chemistry 3a, 3b, and 4.

Lectures and assigned readings in general physico-chemical principles.

Laboratory work in measurements and instrumental analysis.

Credit: Three hours.

III 7a. Food Analysis

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1a or 1b, and 3a; 2b or 4, advised.

A laboratory course.

Time: Three laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Three hours.

III 8b. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry

Prerequisites: Chemistry 2b and 4.

Emphasis will be placed on modern theories of chemistry with some time devoted to the history of chemistry.

Time: Two lectures, and one laboratory period of two hours, a week.

Credit: Three hours.

III 9a. Advanced Organic Chemistry

Prerequisite: Chemistry 3.

Credit: To be arranged.

PhysicsI 1a. General Physics

Prerequisites: One entrance unit in Algebra and one in Geometry.

A course dealing with the fundamental principles of physics and including the study of mechanics and heat.

Time: Three lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.

Credit: Five hours.

II 2b. General Physics

Prerequisite: Physics 1a.

A continuation of Physics 1a, including the study of electricity, sound and light.

Time: Three lectures and two laboratory periods of two hours each a week.

Credit: Five hours.

I 6b. Physics of Sound

A study of wave motion; phenomena of sound; properties of musical tones; types of sounding bodies; musical instruments; introductory acoustics.

This course is designed for students of music.

Credit: Two hours.

II 3a. Heat

Prerequisite: Physics 2b.

A descriptive course in the principles of heat.

Credit: Three hours.

II 4b. Light

Prerequisite: Physics 2b.
The theory of light phenomena.
Credit: Three hours.

II 5b. Light Measurements

Prerequisite: Physics 2b. To be taken with Physics 4b.
A laboratory course.
Time: Two laboratory periods of two hours each, a week.
Credit: Two hours.

III 8b. Mechanics

(For description, see Mathematics 8b.)
Credit: Three hours.

Requirement for Major—The student is advised to consult the head of the department.

PSYCHOLOGYII 1a, 1b. Introduction to Psychology

In this course the student is introduced to the various interpretations of human behavior and methods used in arriving at scientific conclusions. Principles and laws will be demonstrated in laboratory and applied to the solution of individual problems.

Credit: Five hours.

II 2b. Educational Psychology

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

A course designed to present the main facts and principles that have a bearing on educational problems. Emphasis is on the learning process.

Credit: Three hours.

III 4b. Adolescent Psychology

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

A study of the behavior of boys and girls from the ages of twelve to twenty-four. The chief problem of this course is the conflicts and adjustments of youth.

Credit: Three hours.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

III 5a. Mental Hygiene

A study of the causes of the abnormal mind and the underlying principles of keeping the mind normal. Special attention is given to the problems of integration and adjustment of college students.

Credit: Three hours.

III 7b. Clinical Psychology

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b.

A study of the causes and treatment of behavior disorders with reference to clinical cases.

Credit: Two hours.

III 8a. Psychology of Human Relations

Prerequisite: Psychology 1a or 1b, or Sociology 2a or 2b.

A study of collective behavior and personality integration with emphasis on suggestion, imitation, leadership in the home, church, school, state, and industry.

Credit: Three hours.
(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

III 30. The Family

A study of the American contemporary family life from the following approaches: the biological and psychological aspects of family adjustment; the home and its equipment; foods and diets; social and economic conditions that affect the family.

Credit: Three hours each semester.
(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

Related Courses in Other DepartmentsII 14a. Heredity and Eugenics

(For description, see Biology, page 39.)
Credit: Three hours; five hours with laboratory.

II 7b. Statistical Methods

(For description, see Economics, page 62.)
Credit: Two hours.

III 7b. Educational Measurement

(For description, see Education, page 80.)
Credit: Three hours.

III 9b. The Psychology of Religion

(For description, see Philosophy, page 55.)
Credit: Two or three hours.

III 9a. Business Organization and Personnel Management

(For description, see Economics, page 63.)
Credit: Three hours.

Requirement for Major—Sixteen hours in Psychology, eight hours in Sociology, Biology, Education. Students who plan to teach Psychology or to pursue graduate study in the field are advised to consult with the department head. Students who are interested in social work are referred to page 71.

SOCIOLOGY AND ECONOMICSSociology*I 1a. American Contemporary Civilization

A survey of the economic, political, and general social background of American Contemporary Civilization. An analysis is made of the most significant current problems in American life.

Credit: Two hours.

Credit: Five hours.

II 15. Community Life

An analysis of the American contemporary community in relation to rural and urban cultural patterns. The problems of community health, recreation, delinquency, standards of living, leadership, and local government are presented to students.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

III 6a. Educational Sociology

An analysis of the social agencies and social processes through which the individual gains his experiences and a survey of the experimental literature on objective methodology in the field.

Credit: Three hours.

III 7b. History of Social Thought

Prerequisite: Sociology 2a or 2b.

The development of social thought from primitive people to the present state of culture with a survey of the contemporary scientific trends in sociology.

Credit: Three hours.

(Not offered in 1936-1937.)

III 8b. Methods of Case Study and Field Work

Prerequisite: Sociology 2a or 2b.

A diagnosis of various types of cases with remedial and preventive treatment. A study of the technique of social case work. Field work supplements class work.

Credit: Two hours.

III 9b. Anthropology and Ethnology

Prerequisite: Sociology 2a or 2b, or the equivalent.

An introductory study of prehistoric man, of the development of races, and of the social origins of culture.

Credit: Three hours.

III 14b. Methods of Teaching History and the Social Sciences

Lindenwood College provides the undergraduate preparation that is required for family case workers, visiting teachers, medical social workers, home relief agencies, and departments of public welfare. One year of graduate study is recommended for students who plan to enter the field of specialized social work. The above curriculum provides for a major in Sociology, Psychology, or Economics. By proper use of the elective hours a minor may be chosen from any department in the College.

School of Vocations

The courses in this school, Education, Home Economics, Physical Education, and Business, lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science. In general, vocational courses may not be acceptable in other institutions for a bachelor's degree. Students should, therefore, choose their courses of study carefully in the first two years.

Education

The courses in the Department of Education are planned, first, to meet the needs of students who intend to teach, especially those who intend to teach in the high school; second, to meet the interests of those who do not intend to teach but who wish to select courses in Education because of the fundamental importance of education in life.

In order to secure the degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in Education the candidate must meet the following requirements:

(1) She must complete the freshman-sophomore requirements for the A. B. degree, including five hours in Introduction to Psychology and two hours in Hygiene.

(2) She must complete a major of 24 hours in Education, which include Educational Psychology, Methods of Teaching in High Schools, or Methods of Teaching in Elementary Schools, Principles of Secondary Education, or School Organization and Management, and Technique and Practice Teaching.

(3) She must complete a minor of 12 hours in a subject of specialization for teaching in the high school. Courses in Education may not be included in the minor. It is recommended that the student elect more than the minimum number of hours in the subject of specialization.

(4) She must complete a total of 128 hours of college work. The number of hours required in addition to the freshman-sophomore requirements for the A. B. degree and the requirements in Education may be elected from any department of the college, subject to two limitations:

(a) Courses of Grade I may be elected in the Junior and Senior years by special permission only, and then with the limited credit specified under the general rules of the college.

(b) The electives must be chosen with a view to continuity in some department or departments, and the list of the courses elected must be approved by the head of the Department of Education and the Dean of the College.

State Certificates*

A student who intends to teach at the close of her college course may secure a State Certificate, valid in Missouri, if the required hours in Education are included in the college course.

Every student who expects to teach must secure from the department of education of the state in which she desires to teach a certificate valid for that state. No college degree, certificate, or diploma may serve as a certificate to teach.

Physical Education

Aims—The aim of the Physical Education Department is best expressed by Dr. Jesse F. Williams of Columbia University: "Physical Education should aim to provide skilled leadership and adequate facilities that will afford an opportunity for the individual or group to act in situations that are physically wholesome, mentally stimulating and satisfying, and socially sound." The ideal is to develop wholesome, intelligent, resourceful, attractive, well-balanced young women. While physical development is a purpose of the Department, it is not the only one. The objectives of physical education coincide with those of education in general. It is hoped that each student will acquire such skill, interest, and joy in one or more of the activities offered that she will carry them over into her recreational life after she leaves college.

Equipment—The gymnasium is modern and equipped with all types of sport equipment.

The physical education equipment includes a swimming pool with modern filtration plant and heating system; an athletic field for field sports; a six-hole golf course; and twelve well-built tennis courts.

Physical and Medical Examination—A complete physical examination is given every student upon entering any department of the College. A detailed record is kept of a student's general health and inherited tendencies. This gives the College Physician, the Graduate Nurse, and the Director of Physical Education knowledge how best to care for each student.

Required Work—All freshmen and sophomores are required to take at least two hours a week of Physical Education, for which they will receive one hour semester of college credit. They may select their work from any of the following courses:

Swimming	Dancing—
Hockey	Modern Dancing
Badminton	Natural Dancing
Tennis and Battleboard Tennis	Tap and Musical Comedy
Golf	Ballet
Archery	Toe
Basket Ball	Social Dancing
Baseball	Spanish
Volley Ball	East Indian
Track and Field	Oriental
Self-Testing Activities	Russian, etc.
Tumbling, Stunts, and Pyramids

Electives—A student may take one or two courses in Physical Education as electives in addition to her required two hours. These courses are open to all upper classmen as well as freshmen and sophomores.

Athletic Association—It is the aim of the Athletic Association to stimulate and foster interest in athletics. Membership is based upon the point system advocated by the Athletic Council of American College Women. Points are given for accomplishment in posture, hiking, dancing, swimming, track and field, archery, tennis, baseball, golf, basket ball, hockey, and riding.

Description of Practical Work

Body Mechanics—No class work is given in body mechanics. Those girls who wish remedial work are given individual exercises for the correction of their specific defects. The execution of these exercises is carefully supervised. Students with slight postural defects are encouraged to take dancing, sports, or swimming, which will tend to improve their physical condition more effectively than exercises with isolated muscle groups.

Swimming—Students are organized into Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced and Life-Saving classes, according to degree of skill. The various strokes and dives are analyzed and mastered so that the student knows the joy of acquiring swimming skill and of taking care of herself and others in the water. Swimming honors are awarded to individual students, and a competitive swimming meet is held in the spring.

Ballet, Toe, Natural, and Character Dancing—Work is organized to meet definite social and rhythmic objectives. Students have an opportunity to acquire relaxation, poise, buoyancy, and aliveness, with an artistic appreciation of beauty expressed through the medium of music, line, color, and movement.

Tap and Musical Comedy—Classes are designed to provide a wholesome form of exercise that will result in lightness with a well-poised, relaxed body. The character element of the dances provides an opportunity for dramatic expression, and development of the individual's personality. The work affords real joy as well as worthwhile educational contributions to the Physical Education program.

Modern Dancing—Modern dancing teaches originality of conception, as well as dexterity. In this new type of dancing the dance is the thing—not the costumes, decorations, music, or drama. Music is for tone color, rhythm, and for stimulation to the dancer. The keynote of modern dancing is the subordination of externals and intensification of the dance.

Riding—Horses from the stables of Oliver L. Dapron of St. Charles may be used by the students. Those registering for riding receive instruction and are given credit in Physical Education. A fee is charged for this activity. Proficiency in the sport is encouraged by a riding club.

Archery—This is one of the best individual sports and individual honors are given for skill in it. Selection and care of equipment is taught; also technique, practice of target-shooting, explanation of tournaments, rounds, and scoring.

Tennis—This sport is open to all students in the spring and fall. Training is given in the technique of tennis, and honors are awarded to those who know the rules of the game and master certain strokes. A tennis tournament is held in the spring and the fall. The carry-over value of tennis is a strong point in its favor.

Hockey—When the frosty, chilly days of fall arrive, hockey offers all that is thrilling and exhilarating. At the end of the season a tournament is conducted among teams chosen from the players. Individual honors are awarded to the members of the teams.

Volley Ball—Volley ball is offered in connection with basketball classes.

Basket Ball—One of the most popular sports in the winter season is basket ball. Classes are held in which practical and technical instruction is given. Teams are chosen from those enrolled in the classes and a series of games is played throughout the season. Individual honors are awarded to the members of the teams.

Baseball—Baseball is an elective spring sport. Preliminary instruction is followed by practical training in playing the game of baseball. Teams are chosen and a series of games is held at end of the season. Individual honors are awarded to the members of the teams.

Track and Field—This is a popular sport in the spring season. The track events include dashes, low hurdles, the standing broad jump, the high jump, and the hop, skip and jump. The field events are javelin-throwing, the basket ball throw, and the baseball throw. At the end of the season a track and field meet is held between the various class teams. Individual honors are awarded to the members of the teams.

Golf—The College maintains a six-hole golf course. Instruction is offered in the general procedure and technique of the sport. This game is always popular because of its carry-over value into after-school life.

Life Saving—Senior Red Cross Life-Saving instructions and tests are offered to swimmers of advanced ability. Those students wishing to qualify as Red Cross Life-Saving Examiners may work toward that end and in the spring take instructions and tests under the guidance of the Red Cross Field Representative from the regional branch office. Passing the Examiner's test fits a student for a summer camp position as life guard, swimming instructor, or camp waterfront director.

I 1a. Playground and Games

This course includes playground methods and organization and practical demonstration in games, folk dances, and many other activities suitable for use on public playgrounds.

Students planning to teach on playgrounds should choose some of the following electives: Story-Telling, Play Production, Handcraft, Botany, Sports, Swimming, and Dancing.

Credit: Two hours.

I. 8b. First Aid

This is a course designed to train the individual in the prevention of accidents and in measures to be used in case of accidents. The student is impressed with the need of clear thinking at such a time and the knowledge that prompt aid in emergency will prove of the utmost value often in preventing serious or fatal results until a physician can be obtained.

Credit: One hour.

I. 9a. Community Recreation

A course offered by the Department of Physical Education, of which the main objective is to give a brief survey of or orientation in all phases of physical education and related subjects. The aim is to afford students at least a slight acquaintance with a department in which they have no time to major while in college, and a knowledge of sports, dancing, recreation, playgrounds, pageants, and amateur productions which will aid them to become recreational leaders in their communities.

Credit: Two hours.

(Open to all students.)

II 3a. Methods in Physical Education

A brief history of physical education, the relation of physical education to education in general, methods, and practice teaching are given in this course.

Credit: Two hours.

II 4. Technique of Athletics

Prerequisite: Playground and Games.

Instruction is given in practice and coaching of games, such as hockey, basket ball, baseball, field and track athletics, soccer, tennis, archery, etc.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

II 5b. Pageantry and Theatrical Costuming

This is a practical course in the organization and production of pageants, dance revues, and all types of theatrical productions. Special attention will be given to the creation and execution of theatrical costumes, stage settings, and properties used in productions put on during the year by the Department of Physical Education. Masks, marionettes, and shadow plays will also be studied.

Credit: Two hours.

II 6b. Body Mechanics

The appreciation of correct body mechanics and alignment, the recognition of certain physical abnormalities and postural defects, and the ability to deal with them intelligently by using preventive measures and remedial exercises are the aims of this course.

Credit: Two hours.

Note.—Courses starred may be counted as non-vocational hours toward the A. B. degree.

Physical Education

The courses offered in this department may be counted toward the degree of Bachelor of Science when the work for the certificate in this course has been completed.

For those students who expect to attend college only two years a certificate in Physical Education will be granted upon completion of the following two-year course:

Prerequisite: Business 2.

A course designed to give the student a thorough preparation for the various aspects of the work of a secretary in a business or professional office.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

II 5. Advanced Bookkeeping and Accounting

Prerequisite: Business 3.

A course designed to prepare the student to deal with the practical problems that face the bookkeeper of a business establishment. Emphasis is laid upon commercial law and business methods.

Credit: Three hours each semester.

II 5b. Business Law

(For description, see Economics, page 62.)

Credit: Two hours.

(Open to all students.)

School of Music

Courses in the School of Music are open to all students enrolled in the College of Arts and Science, or in the School of Vocations. A maximum of twelve hours will be accredited from this school toward the degree of A. B., provided that all the candidate's other courses are in the College of Arts and Science.

The twelve hours which may be accredited toward the A. B. degree may be selected from courses in the School of Music, which are not listed in the College of Arts and Science.

The requirements for admission to this department are the same as those listed for admission on pages 28, 29, and 30 of this bulletin.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Degree of Bachelor of Music

In order to receive the degree of Bachelor of Music, the candidate must meet the following requirements:*

1. She must complete the outlined four-year course in Piano, Organ, Voice, Violin, or Public School Music.
2. She must attend all student recitals, and take part in at least two each year.
3. She must pass semi-annual examinations in her major study before the faculty of the Department of Music. All students are required to pass a Piano examination.
4. She must give a recital demonstrating her fitness to receive a degree. (Public School Music students are exempt from this requirement.)
5. She must complete a total of 124 hours, exclusive of physical education.
6. She must complete a total of 512 points.

DIPLOMA IN MUSIC

A diploma will be granted a student who completes satisfactorily the outlined two-year course in Piano, Organ, Voice, or Violin, and gives a recital demonstrating her fitness to receive a diploma, provided that she passes faculty examinations in her major study and attends all student recitals. All students are required to pass a Piano examination.

*It is understood that the preparatory training of a student in the major subject she selects is sufficient to permit her to take up the studies outlined on pages 103-106.

ENTRANCE CREDITS

Students who plan to specialize in music at Lindenwood College may offer three units of entrance credit in applied and theoretical music. The credits in applied music will be accepted after the student has passed an examination offered by the faculty of the department of music at Lindenwood College. In addition to these three units, there will be required twelve additional units of acceptable high school work.

Music

Advanced Standing—Claims for advanced standing must be made to the Director of Music within one semester after entrance. Credit for advanced standing is granted only to those who are able to pass a satisfactory examination before the faculty of the Department of Music.

Practice—All practice is done under the supervision of a mistress, who is competent to answer all questions in the course of practice. The College possesses practice pianos which are placed in separate practice rooms and assigned to the students at fixed times. This insures the students regularity in their work and the advantage of uninterrupted practice for the full time.

Orchestra—An orchestra is organized each year for the purpose of training in ensemble playing. All students of orchestral instruments are required to join the orchestra, which meets twice a week throughout the year. The orchestra gives concerts during the year. A number of brass, wood-wind, and stringed instruments are owned by the College. Free use of these instruments is allowed to students who qualify for membership in the orchestra.

Choir—The choir meets twice a week throughout the year and takes part in the Sunday evening vesper services. All students in the course in Public School Music and students specializing in Voice or Organ are required to join the choir.

Recitals—Both faculty and student recitals are given during the year. These are of value in cultivating musical taste and the ability to appear in public.

Concerts and Operas—The concerts and operas given in St. Louis during the winter offer students at Lindenwood the opportunity to hear and appreciate the best music. Many of the students are regular subscribers to the St. Louis Symphony Concerts.

Mu Phi Epsilon—This national sorority for recognition of outstanding ability in music is represented by its local (Phi Theta) chapter. To this chapter are elected annually those members of the upper classes whose excellence in performance and scholarship warrants this recognition.

Alpha Mu Mu—The honorary organization of the music department for underclassmen is the Alpha Mu Mu society. It was founded at Lindenwood in May, 1918. Election to membership is a recognition of exceptional musical talent, and is based upon other requirements as well. It is the highest honor conferred by the department on music students in the freshman and sophomore years. The members are elected by the faculty at the close of each semester.

National Association of Schools of Music—At the annual business meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Friday, December 28, 1934, Lindenwood was admitted to provisional membership. This is the usual procedure in accepting new members, and we are very much pleased with this recognition.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

I 6. Choir

Training in the singing of religious and secular music, accompanied and a cappella.

Credit: One hour each semester.

(Not more than four hours allowed toward a degree.)

I 7. Orchestra

Training in ensemble playing on orchestral instruments.

Credit: One hour each semester.

(Not more than four hours allowed toward a degree.)

I 1. Sight Singing I

Drill in scale and interval singing, time subdivision and two part singing. Singing songs (while beating time) with syllables, words and numbers. Songs in major and minor modes, introducing chromatic tones. Simple modulations.

Credit: One hour each semester.

I 8. Ear Training I

Melodic dictation within the key, major and minor modes, with the introduction of chromatic problems. Soprano and bass clefs. Elementary rhythmic patterns. Recognition of simple triads. Simple two part dictation. Song analysis.

Credit: One hour each semester.

I 14 Public School Music, Dictation and Ear Training.

This course is arranged to meet the requirements in music for a sixty-hour Elementary Certificate granted by the State of Missouri.

An elementary knowledge of the fundamentals of music is a necessary prerequisite of this course. Rudiments of Music taken without credit during the first year in college or a high school course in which dictation and sight reading are taught will satisfy this prerequisite.

The course follows the outline published by the Department of Education, State of Missouri.

Credit: Three hours for the year.

II 3, 4. Music Methods I and II

Music in the Primary Grades.

A study of the child voice, treatment of monotonies, rote singing, first steps in music reading, methods of presentation and materials used in developing an appreciation of music.

Credit: Two hours, first semester.

Music in the Intermediate Grades.

A study of principles, methods and materials adapted to music reading in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Unison, two and three part singing. Methods of appreciation.

Credit: One hour, second semester.

Observation and Practice Teaching in the primary grades.

Credit: One hour, second semester.

II 2. Sight Singing II

Two, three, and four part song singing. Major and minor modes. Modulation.

Credit: One hour each semester.

II 9. Ear Training II

More advanced melodic dictation and chromatic problems. Dictation in two and four part writing. Simple modulation. Recognition of triads in all forms, dominant seventh and diminished chords. Analysis of song forms.

Credit: One hour each semester.

III 5. Music Methods III

Prerequisite: Music 3.

Music in the Junior High School.

A study of materials and methods through grades seven, eight, and nine, including voice testing, chord singing, and problems of organization. Essentials of conducting, methods of appreciation, and practice teaching.

Music in the Senior High School.

A study of suitable materials and methods of developing glee clubs, choruses, instrumental music, and organization of courses in Music History, Theory, Harmony, and Appreciation of Music.

Credit: One hour each semester.

Observation and Practice Teaching in the intermediate grades.

Credit: One hour each semester.

III 12. Class Instruction in the Playing of Wind Instruments of the Orchestra

Practical experience in learning the tuning, fingering, and playing of scales and simple music. The College owns instruments which are available for practice without charge.

Credit: One hour each semester.

III 10. Music Methods IV

Prerequisite: Music 5.

Music Education: Research and organization of course to meet problems in supervision of public school and community music. Comparative study of prominent school music systems. Operetta production, including material, organization, costuming, make-up, and staging. Methods of teaching instrumental and vocal music classes.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

Observation and Practice Teaching in the Junior High School the first semester and in the Senior High School the second semester.

Credit: One hour each semester.

III 13. Class Instruction in the Playing of Stringed Instruments of the Orchestra

Practical experience in learning the tuning, fingering, and playing of scales and simple music. The College owns instruments which are available for practice without charge.

Credit: One hour each semester.

For courses in History and Appreciation of Music, Harmony, etc., see Theory of Music in the College of Arts and Science.

Ensemble Courses

Choral Conducting

Principles of beating time, the technique of the baton, interpretation, rehearsal methods, and program building. Experience in choral conducting.

Credit: One hour each semester.

Orchestral Conducting

Practical experience in orchestral conducting. Instruction in interpretation, time beating, and the principles of the baton. Class to meet twice weekly.

Credit: One hour each semester.

Piano and String Ensemble

String duets, trios, and quartets. Piano and violin ensemble; voice and violin; organ, piano, and violin. Excellent training in sight reading, develops rhythmic sense and increases general musicianship.

Credit: One hour each semester.

Organ Ensemble

Training in the art of playing the organ in combination with other instruments. Composers in the past few years have added a great number of compositions in this field, and ensemble playing has become a real part of the professional organist's training. Ensemble of organ and piano; organ, piano, and violin; organ, piano, violin, and voice, etc., will be studied.

Credit: One hour each semester.

Art

The Art Department of Lindenwood College offers many opportunities both to students specializing in Art and to those enrolled in other departments. The College library contains books on Art that are used for reference reading in connection with the various courses offered. An excellent lantern and numerous slides are used in illustrated lectures. Moreover, students have the advantages afforded by visits to the St. Louis Museum of Fine Arts and other art galleries in St. Louis, where the works of both American and foreign artists are exhibited. All students in the Art Department are required to visit the Museum of Fine Arts and other Art exhibitions in St. Louis.

All work done in the Art Department must remain in the studio until the close of the college year, unless special permission for its removal is granted by the head of the department.

The courses in the Department of Art may be used toward the degree of Bachelor of Arts when the work for the certificate in this course has been completed. If desired, a minor in Art may be obtained.

Kappa Pi—Honorary Art Fraternity.

Requirements for Certificate

Certificate in Art—A certificate will be granted to a regularly enrolled student who completes a two-year course including the courses in History of Art, and Methods of Teaching Art, and two years' study of Design and Free-Hand Drawing.

Certificate in Public School Art, two-year course.

Private Lessons

Students in any department of the college may take lessons in any of the branches of Art described below. One hour of college credit a semester is conferred for private lessons in Art.

Free-Hand Drawing—Lessons in drawing from geometrical forms, simple objects, plant life, casts, and fragments from antique figures, in pencil, crayons and water colors.

Free-Hand Drawing and Painting—Lessons in drawing and painting from the antique, still life, figure (from the draped model) and landscapes, in charcoal, water colors, oils and pastel.

Design—Lessons in the underlying principles of design and their application to elementary problems of original design; lettering, stenciling, wood-block printing—gesso and color, cement.

Advanced Design—Lessons in the application of the principles of design to problems of industry and everyday life; gesso, posters, and experimentation in materials with dyes and dye-resist, leather and other materials.

Poster and Advertising Design—Lessons affording practical training for work in commercial art; lettering and designs for labels, cartoons, magazine advertisements and posters.

Ceramic Decoration—The decoration of china, including a study of the principles of design and their application to original compositions suitable for the decoration of china and satsuma ware in gold, colors and enamels.

Batik Decoration—Lessons in the application of the principles of design to original compositions suitable for decorative purposes in connection with clothing and interiors; application of decorations to a variety of fabrics by dye and dye-resist processes.

Out-of-Doors Sketching—Lessons in landscape drawing in pencil, wash and charcoal.

Advanced Out-of-Doors Sketching—Lessons in landscape drawing in charcoal, crayons, water colors, and oils.

Modeling—Lessons in modeling in clay, gesso and other soft substances, to create form in relief and in the round.

Costume Design and Illustration—Lessons in the principles of design, balance, harmony, and rhythm in their application to costume; a study of the psychology of clothes.

Interior Decoration—Study of art principles and their application to interior decoration.

Sketch Club—Students in the Art Department eligible. Two hours per week. No credit.

Memory Drawing—A course in drawing from memory. Training to retain the mental image and to grasp significant action and proportion; recording these in rapid sketches.

Speech and Dramatics

The work offered in the Department of Speech and Dramatics is both practical and broadly cultural. A thorough foundation is given to those who desire to specialize in speech, and varied opportunities are afforded to students enrolled in other departments. Students specializing in English have the opportunity to correlate the study of English with the study of the technique of oral expression. The courses taken in this department may be counted toward the degree of Bachelor of Arts when the work for the certificate in this course has been completed.

Recitals—Frequent class recitals are given that the students may receive practice in platform work. Public recitals are also given, so that the students gain self-confidence and enjoy the experience of actually entertaining large audiences.

Requirements for Certificate in Speech and Dramatics—A certificate will be granted to a student who completes satisfactorily two years' study in this department and the course prescribed in the following schedule. She must make at least two creditable public appearances—one as a prominent player in a cast and one in a student recital.

The honorary organization of the Speech and Dramatics department is a chapter of the national dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega. The purpose of this organization is to create and maintain interest in the drama, to centralize and make more efficient all dramatic activity on the college campus. Some of the more recent plays sponsored by this club have been "Belinda," "Icebound," "The Ivory Door," "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," "The Devil in the Cheese," "The Rivals," "The Truth About Blayds," "The Church Mouse," "The Admirable Crichton," "Once In A Palace," and "Mary Rose."

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

11. Voice and Diction

A course covering the rudiments of voice placement, enunciation, smoothness, flexibility and power, good conversation, platform deportment, and elementary training in public speech.

Credit: Two hours each semester.

I 4. Interpretation

An elementary course in the principles of oral interpretation.
Credit: Two hours each semester.

I 3b. Public Speaking

Preparation and delivery of short talks; study of principles governing effective speaking. The object of this course is to enable the student to present her ideas clearly and forcibly. Attention is paid to the platform presentation.

Scholarships and Awards

It is the purpose of the College to foster educational standards and to assist worthy students in securing an education. To this end, scholarships have been created by friends of the College and through special funds set aside by the Board of Directors. Students receiving scholarships are expected to give service in any academic department when required.

Fellowships—A fellowship of $300 will be granted a student completing four years of undergraduate work at Lindenwood College with distinction for scholarship, general ability, and loyalty to the standards of the College, and whose purpose it is to continue her education for an advanced degree in a graduate school of standing. Application for this fellowship must be made to the President of the College not later than April 1 of the year of the grant. The Faculty will announce the grant of the fellowship at Commencement.

Honor Scholarships—To students completing the year's work with distinguished honor for scholarship, general ability, and loyalty to the standards of the College, scholarships are provided. These scholarships are to be applied on tuition at Lindenwood College the following year, one-half the amount each semester.

It is understood that if a student receiving a scholarship does not remain for the entire year the amount of the scholarship must be refunded to the College. It is also understood that should a student fail to continue the required educational standard or fail to continue her work for a degree the College may cancel the scholarship.

High School Scholarships—First honor student of any four-year accredited high school matriculating as candidate for a degree will be granted a scholarship for the Freshman year, subject to the conditions governing Honor Scholarships of the College.

Army and Navy Scholarships—The College having been founded and later munificently endowed by families identified with the United States Army, a limited number of scholarships have been provided for daughters of officers of the Army and Navy who matriculate as candidates for degrees.

Teachers' Scholarships—Daughters of teachers, principals, and superintendents of Public Schools, daughters of College and University professors, who meet the requirements, are awarded scholarships upon application.

Sorority Scholarships—The Zeta Chapter of Eta Upsilon Gamma and the Theta Chapter of the Sigma Iota Chi have each established scholarships of $200 to be awarded on the conditions set forth in the requirements for Educational Scholarships by the College. Announcement of the awards is made at each annual Commencement.

Ministerial Scholarships—The Watson Fund provides a scholarship of one hundred dollars for every daughter of a Presbyterian minister. When the revenue of the endowment is not all used for this purpose, the remainder may be applied to the education of the daughter of any Evangelical minister.

Sibley Scholarships—The Alumnae, in honor of the founder of the College, Mrs. Mary Easton Sibley, established in 1927 a Centennial Scholarship Fund, the annual revenue to be awarded needy students who are qualified to meet the entrance requirements.

Applications for aid under this fund should be made to the President of the College, accompanied by a statement of need and recommendation from two persons of the applicant's home town, one from the principal of the school from which she comes, the other from her pastor.

Under this fund several cities have especially provided a sufficient sum for scholarships to be awarded in their name—St. Charles, Missouri; St. Louis, Missouri; Kansas City, Missouri; Chicago, Illinois.

Laura J. Heron Scholarship—In memory of her mother, Mrs. Charlia Ayres, wife of President George F. Ayres (1903-1913), created by will a scholarship to assist a worthy student to obtain an education at Lindenwood College. The first award from this fund will be made in 1935.

Dorothy Holtcamp Badgett Award—Judge C. W. Holtcamp of St. Louis, in memory of his daughter, Dorothy Holtcamp, a graduate of Lindenwood College, 1911, established a Bible Award of $2,000, the revenue from the gift to be awarded members of the Freshman class who excel in Bible memory verses. Three awards are made each year at Lindenwood.

Sigma Tau Delta Medals—This sorority award is limited to three members of the Freshman class who have, during the year, made outstanding literary contributions. A gold, silver, and bronze medal indicate first, second, and third place.

Progress in Music Award—To the students making the most progress during the year in the Music department prizes are awarded by the department for progress in piano, organ, violin, and voice.

Art Awards—The St. Louis Lindenwood College Club has provided an award to be given the student who excels in the study of Introduction to Art. A poster prize is also given by the department for the best poster presented by the contestants.

Good Citizenship Award—The Alumnae Association has made a gift to the College to be awarded to the student who is selected by the faculty as representing the best type of campus citizenship.

English Bible Award—The President of the College annually offers an award to students presenting a written theme on some topic of biblical literature assigned by the English and Bible departments. This is open only to the upper classes.

Good Housekeeping Awards—To encourage good house-keeping, awards have been provided for students in each dormitory having the best record for the care of their rooms.

Provision has been made for two awards in each dormitory—one to the occupant of a single room and the other to those in a double room.

Nelly Don Prizes—Annually the awards presented by the Donnelly Garment Company are given for the three best costume designs, and three for the best made dresses. The competition for these valued prizes is quite spirited. The entries are judged by experts of the company making the awards.

The head of the Donnelly Garment Company is a graduate of Lindenwood College.

Expenses for the Year

Lindenwood College is not conducted for profit, and a large part of the budget is met annually from proceeds of the Endowment Fund.

It is the desire of the college to explain very carefully to the patron the entire cost for his daughter for the college year. The expenses itemized below include every fee charged by the college. The only additional expenses are personal, such as books, laundry, etc.

EXPENSES

Board, room, heat, light, water service, tuition, lessons in Music, Art and Expression	$775.00
--	----------

Note—An additional charge of $50.00 is made for each occupant of a double room with bath attached, and $60.00 for single room with bath attached. The charge for single room without bath attached is $40.00 additional. One-half of this charge is due in September and the remainder January 1.

Terms of Payment

All bills for tuition and board are due at the beginning of the school year. For the convenience of our patrons payments may be made as indicated below:

ON ENTRANCE IN SEPTEMBER

On account of tuition	$225.00
Board and room	250.00
	$475.00
Less room reservation fee	10.00
	$465.00
Total due September 15, 1936		$465.00
Balance on account is due January 1, 1937.

INCIDENTAL FEES

Diploma or certificate fee	$10.00
----------------------------------	---------

The student may send her laundry home or arrange through the college to have it done at the Steam Laundry. The college does not do any of the student's laundry.

The $10.00 room reservation fee is not an extra charge, but is applied on the first payment.

Students are liable for any breakage.

All remittances should be mailed direct to Lindenwood College by certified check.

Payments must be made before the student can take her place in the classroom. No exception will be made to this rule without written permission from the Bursar.

If bills are not settled when due, it is understood that sight draft will be honored. Interest at 6 per cent will be charged on all unpaid bills.

Diplomas will not be issued or grades given until all bills are properly settled.

When students have been accepted for admission, parents and guardians accept all the conditions of payment and regulations of the college.

The college is very glad to help students with their transportation and baggage, but in doing so simply acts as an agent and is not responsible for loss or inconvenience a student may suffer.

Charges for board and tuition in the various departments for the school year are as low as is consistent with the INSTRUCTION, SERVICE, and ACCOMMODATION given.

The college will not be responsible for the loss of any personal property of any student or teacher.

WITHDRAWAL

Each student is entered for the college year, and is accepted with the understanding that she will remain for the final examinations at the end of the college year.

All engagements with instructors and other provisions for education are made by the college for the entire year in advance; the established rule is that no deduction will be made from the amount paid.

If a student withdraws voluntarily or involuntarily before the end of the year there is no refund. However, in case of withdrawal upon the recommendation of the college physician, on account of serious illness, a refund pro rata will be made on the amount paid for board and room. No deduction is made for temporary absence during the year.

Textbooks, sheet music, regulation gymnasium outfit, stationery and similar articles may be obtained at the college book store at current prices.

The terms of entrance are stated plainly in the catalog. No verbal agreements are permitted.

To Our Friends

Lindenwood College has entered upon a new era of its history. Generous friends have been contributing largely to its support. The beginning of New Lindenwood has fairly started. Greater things are yet to come and greater things yet to be done. To reach the goal of a great woman's college, well equipped and heavily endowed, will require the enlisting of all our friends in doing according to their means. If you have not remembered Lindenwood College in your will, do so at once. A form of bequest is appended for your guidance.

The Board of Directors has established an Annuity Fund which will enable donors, unable to do without an income, to receive a life annuity according to age. This is a safe and secure form of investment and gift to the college.

Opportunity is also given for endowment of chairs in the college. Fifty thousand dollars has been given to endow the Bible chair.

My Will

I give, bequeath and devise unto Lindenwood Female College, a corporation, of St. Charles, State of Missouri, the sum of..... Dollars ($.....) to be paid to the Board of Directors of said college, and by them used in the improvement of and additions to the buildings and property of said college, or as an endowment fund, according to the discretion and judgment of said directors. I give to said directors full power and authority to hold, manage and control said trust fund and to sell, transfer and convey and invest and reinvest the same, according to the discretion and judgment of said directors.
