

COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FOUR, NO. ONE; JUNE 18, 1985

HYLAND REELECTED BOARD CHAIRMAN - Robert F. Hyland, regional vice-president of CBS, Inc., and general manager of KMOX-AM and KHTR-FM Radio in St. Louis, has been reelected to a three-year term and reappointed chairman of the Lindenwood College Board of Directors. He has been a member of the board since 1970.

THREE JOIN ADMISSIONS STAFF - Elizabeth Herod of Creve Coeur, William H. Wright, III, of St. Louis and Richard L. Yalem of Chesterfield have been appointed admissions counselors.

Herod has undergraduate degrees from Lindenwood and Northern Michigan University, and has taken graduate courses in education and social psychology at the University of Guam. Prior to joining the Admissions Office, she was a teacher in Havana, FL, and, from 1974-81, at Dededo Junior High School in Guam. She also has served as a realtor in Guam and California.

A May graduate of Lindenwood, Wright has an undergraduate degree in psychology. At Lindenwood, he was a member of the LSG, served as a peer counselor and resident advisor and was active in men's soccer, baseball and intramurals. He has been employed during the summers as a teller at Landmark Bank in St. Ann and as a personnel assistant at McDonnell Douglas Corp.

A 1950 graduate of Washington University, Yalem was vice-president and corporate treasurer at Affholder, Inc., a Chesterfield-based tunnel contracting firm. During his 13 years with Affholder, he participated in the formation and management of Alfa Pet, Inc., a St. Louis-based manufacturer and distributor of pet products. From 1950-66, he was employed with Aetna Finance Co. in St. Louis where he served as branch office manager, territory supervisor and company vice-president.

The three new appointments create nine counselors in the Admissions Office.

NEWSLETTER BEGINS FOURTH YEAR - This issue of the "Linden Week Communique" begins a fourth year of a publication designed to be the official communicative vehicle of Lindenwood. Produced by the Public Relations Office in cooperation with the Printing Center, the newsletter is disseminated every Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Written copy should be sent to the PR Office by 9 a.m. Monday for inclusion in Tuesday's newsletter. Publication dates this summer are July 2, 16 and 29; August 13 and 27; and September 10; weekly publication resumes September 17.

FACULTY MEMBER TO LEAD DISCUSSION - Samuel Zibit, core faculty member of health administration in the LCIE, will lead a discussion on health promotion and wellness for the elderly July 16 at Alexian Brothers Hospital in St. Louis. The community program is part of the hospital's free public service series of discussions on pertinent health issues. Zibit is a graduate of City College in New York and has an M.P.H. degree from Yale.

RANDY WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Linden Week Communique" is published each Tuesday morning during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9 am Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office, #6 Roemer Hall.

SWITCHBOARD INFORMATION - The Switchboard requests that all departments and offices notify it when new employees are hired. Letting the Switchboard know immediately will enable operators to place calls directly to new staff members rather than to other employees.

Also, a reminder that when you need telephone work done in your office (such as relocating phones, new wiring, repairs or additional extensions), a purchase order must be filled out with the proper department/office supervisor's signature. The PO also must contain the signatures of President Spainhower and Ken Musbach before being submitted to the Switchboard for telephone work to be scheduled.

FACULTY/STAFF DIRECTORIES DISTRIBUTED - Updated "Faculty/Staff Telephone Directories" were distributed recently by the Public Relations Office to all employees. If you have corrections and/or additions, send them in writing to Kris Cordes in the Public Relations Office. An updated directory will be printed prior to the start of the fall semester. Also, make sure you notify the Switchboard of any errors or additions. A limited number of additional copies of the new directory are available at the Switchboard.

ANOTHER 'DOCTOR' IN THE FAMILY - A Doctor of Philosophy in Astrophysics degree was awarded by the University of Colorado recently to Patricia L. Bornmann, daughter of Chemistry Dept. Chairman John A. Bornmann, Ph.D. A former St. Charles resident, she received her undergraduate training in physics and astronomy at California Institute of Technology, and she is employed presently as an astrophysicist by the U.S. Air Force at Sacramento Peak Observatory in Sunspot, NM. While pursuing her doctoral work, she spent six months at Goddard Space Center analyzing x-ray data collected by the Solar Maximum Mission satellite, the one repaired during a recent shuttle mission by NASA. Her work with the Air Force involves the causes and prediction of solar flares and activity. Bornmann also is participating in the planning of a satellite for solar research.

BOARD EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REELECTED - Recently-reelected members of the Executive Committee of the Lindenwood College Board of Directors are Walter L. Metcalfe, Jr., vice-chairman; S. Lee Kling, treasurer; John C. Hannegan secretary; and Henry J. Elmendorf and Mrs. Russell J. Crider, members at-large. Gary Cowger was elected as a member at large and Elmendorf also was elected assistant treasurer. Robert F. Hyland was reelected chairman as reported previously.

NOMINATED FOR EMMY AWARDS - Peter V. Carlos, instructor of communications in the LCIE, has been nominated for in four categories in the 1985 St. Louis Emmy Awards - local television spot produced for less than $7,500, documentary, corporate and as faculty advisor for student entry. An independent producer, director, editor and writer, Carlos has been a member of the LCIE faculty since 1979, teaching communications, video production and documentary-making. A 1975 graduate of UMSL, he has a graduate degree in literature from Breadloaf School of English in Middlebury, VT. The St. Louis Emmy competition will award plaques and trophies June 22.
