Breakthrough COLON CANCER treatment means Karen can spend more time with her granddaughters.

The Siteman Cancer Center at Barnes-Jewish St. Peters Hospital gave Karen Sieve access to breakthrough colon cancer treatment offered by the only national leader in cancer in our region — the Siteman Cancer Center at Barnes-Jewish Hospital and Washington University School of Medicine. Our partnership with Barnes-Jewish St. Peters Hospital means our community has access to the most experienced and specialized colon cancer team in the region. MISSION & HISTORY

MISSION:

Lindenwood is committed to

- Providing diverse opportunities for students to engage the arts within an integrative liberal arts curriculum.
- Affording cultural enrichment to the surrounding community.

HISTORY:

Lindenwood's J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts opened in the fall of 2008 with two sold-out performances by legendary star Liza Minnelli and has been entertaining the St. Louis region ever since. With such names gracing the stage of the 1,200-seat Bezemes Family Theater as Hal Holbrook, Ed Asner, Debby Boone, Marvin Hamlisch, and Debbie Reynolds, as well as national tours of CATS, Jesus Christ Superstar, Legally Blonde, Annie, and the Russian National Ballet, the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts provides an unparalleled experience in the arts and entertainment.

Home to Lindenwood University's School of Fine and Performing Arts, the J. Scheidegger Center for the Arts features regular performances and exhibits by students in the theatre, dance, art, fashion, technical theatre, and music departments. Venues include the Broadway-style Bezemes Family Theater, the Emerson Black Box Theater, and the Boyle Family Gallery. Also included are two dance studios, a costume shop, the Charter Communications High-Definition Television Studio, several piano studios and private music rooms, separate choral and orchestra halls, and many other amenities for the students and community.

PROGRAMS OFFERED:

Programs available to the St. Louis Metropolitan Area include the Bezemes Family Theater Main Stage Season, University Theatre Department productions, music and dance concerts, art exhibits, and fashion shows.

Degrees are offered in a variety of areas of interest within the fine and performing arts and are available to undergraduate and graduate students.

In the past two years, over $1.8 million in scholarship aid was awarded to fine and performing arts majors.

A FINE & PERFORMING ARTS FOCUS FOR OUR REGION

FOCUSING ON THE ARTS:

One of the most important measures of any society is the quality and abundance of its artistic endeavors. Over time, a community that invests in the arts is a community whose diverse resources support progress and ensure a rich and secure future.

INVESTING IN THE ARTS:

To continue providing innovative arts education and rich cultural development, the Lindenwood University Board of Directors recently committed $2 million to establish the Lindenwood Arts Endowment. Our campaign to raise an additional $1 million is in full swing, and your support for this important initiative will help us to do the following:

- Offer expanded programming at the J. Scheidegger Center that will attract audiences from throughout the greater St. Louis community. Serving over 100,000 guests since the center's opening in 2008, Lindenwood's arts programs are poised to enrich our region with vibrant cultural education for decades to come.
- Expand current academic arts programs.
- Fund scholarships for students with artistic and academic merit.
- Establish artist-in-residence programs.
- Provide access to theatrical resources for nonprofit groups.

HOW CAN I GIVE?

Individuals and corporations can support these endeavors in a variety of ways. For instance, by giving to the endowment

- $250,000 will sponsor three performances of A Christmas Carol,
- $100,000 will fund an artist-in-residence program,
- $25,000 will establish an endowed scholarship for a deserving student,
- $5,000 will make theater facilities available for a local nonprofit group.

For more information on the Arts Endowment campaign, please contact Dean Joseph Alsobrook at (636) 949-4164 or jalsobrook@lindenwood.edu, or contact Institutional Advancement at (636) 949-4903 or development@lindenwood.edu.
