A Double Greeting to the Alumnae

Dear Friends:

Today we put Dr. and Mrs. McCluer on the train starting them on their three-month trip through Europe. Dr. McCluer's parting words were a greeting for you, wishing each of you a good summer.

My own greeting comes to you upon my return from a long-planned journey. Most of you know that early in December I sailed west from San Francisco into the cold, blue Pacific, launching upon a trip around the world. From that trip I returned, closing the circle at Lindenwood College, April 18th. Throughout the coming year I shall be happy to share some of my experiences with many of you, one way or another.

Many times since my return I have been asked, "What interested you most on your travels?" The answer must always be, "That depends!" The little experiences day by day were indeed rewarding. On the other hand in the Far East many things interested us. The people at their daily activities, scurrying along in high purposefulness or just sitting on their heels, as is their custom, watching the world go by were ever a source of interest. Their customs, food habits, dress, family life patterns, methods of transportation, even the looks of the people themselves from country to country were always exciting. We were ever alert to the countries' psychological atmosphere—the feel, if you please, of the people toward themselves and the world. It was not difficult to detect the attitude toward the United States. In the Phillipines and in Pakistan the warmth toward this country was indeed evident. In others there was indifference and in several we felt definite feelings of distrust toward our country and our international policies. Always, though, the people were helpful and kind in answering our questions and helping us solve our problems.

I think I felt nearest home, though far away, when in Yokohama I recognized Frances Stumberg Nuelsen (A. B. 1928) as our ship maneuvered into dock. We were gathered at the rail, watching operations, when she turned toward the ship and smiled a friendly greeting to our first strange land, Japan. She and her fine husband gave us nine or ten happy hours and started us out wisely in a strange land. Two days later in Tokyo I visited with another Lindenwood graduate of 1953, Michiko Takaki.

I felt furthest away in Ceylon when one morning one of the passengers said to me, "You have now started home, Polly. You turned the corner last night." Upon inquiry of distance yet to travel, I learned that I was 13,000 miles from St. Charles.

Traveling around the world is indeed nothing more than going to the next station, then on to the next and the next and so on and on. The realization of the wholeness of such a trip, in fact of the world, as a complete circle, comes after you reach home and live with your memories. You will find you have small meandering memories together with awe-inspiring ones, and you will have concerns and appreciations for the problems facing millions of our foreign neighbors. And always you are grateful for your own heritage, the democratic American heritage.

My warm greeting to you.

Sincerely,

PAULENA NICKELL, Dean

Alumnae Weekend to Be October 15-16

Remember what it's like at Lindenwood in October? Remember how pleasant it is to sit in the lawn swings under the campus canopy of trees turning scarlet and yellow? Remember how pleasant it is to stroll with friends along the walks?

Well—mark your calendar now for next October 15-16 and come back to alumnae weekend. Start making plans now to meet your college friends—and renew old acquaintances and campus memories.

Weekend events will follow the plan of last fall's successful alumnae gathering: Dinner just for alumnae and the 1955 seniors in Cobbs Lounge on Friday evening, followed by a reception to include faculty at the home of President and Mrs. F. L. McCluer. Then on Saturday, the Founders' Day convocation at 10:30 a. m., followed by the alumnae luncheon in Ayre dining room and the annual meeting of the Lindenwood College Alumnae Association in Sibley Chapel.

All former Lindenwood students are urged to attend.

Classes which will have special reunions are those of 1895, 1900, 1905, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1945, 1947, 1948, 1949, 1950, 1954. Alumnae wishing to stay on campus are asked to make reservations for rooms in Ayres Hall by writing the Alumnae Secretary. Returning alumnae will be guests of the college, without charge, except for the alumnae dinner on Friday evening, for which the charge will be $1.50.

Please make specific reservations for meals or room without fail.

Globe Problems Pressing, Says Judge Allen At 127th L. C. Commencement

Gives 29 Seniors "Chart for Living, 1954"—The Rev. Dr. C. Ralston Smith Preaches Baccalaureate Sermon

INTERNATIONAL problems are everybody's responsibility today, Judge Florence E. Allen, of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, told the 29 graduates at Lindenwood's 127th annual commencement on May 29.

"Mary Easton Sibley was a woman of foresight to found this college," Judge Allen said. "But I don't suppose she ever thought about Indo-China, about Laos and Cambodia, or about Korea. But because you are partners in the government, you have to answer these questions: Should we enter Indo-China? Should we stay out? . . . How can we assist the United Nations, which is our one going concern for world peace?"

Judge Allen

Speaking on "Chart for Living, 1954," Judge Allen said these broader problems of international affairs must be added to the chart for living, which also must list the traditional values of preserving the American home, upholding standards of morals and ethics, and maintaining faith in America. The living chart has expanded, she said, because "never before have the problems of the entire globe pressed on us as now."

Whoever inherits something, be it a jewel, a piece of land, a house, has to take care of it, Judge Allen said. "The fact that long ago a woman at Lindenwood looked forward and wanted you to have an opportunity of education and citizenship, you own the government of the United States. Because the government has joined the United Nations, you own the U. N. What are you going to do to take care of these things? That is part of your chart for living, 1954."

The Rev. Dr. C. Ralston Smith, pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Oklahoma City, preached the baccalaureate sermon on Friday evening. Taking as his subject "What Is Your Life?" Dr. Smith said that human beings are not turned out on assembly lines, but each one is a unique individual, and thus each person has an opportunity to develop his own special personality and capabilities.

The baccalaureate service was held in Roemer Auditorium, and commencement was held under the spreading trees on the center campus.

An honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred at commencement on Judge Allen by President F. L. McCluer. The Rev. Dr. James W. Clarke, president of Lindenwood's board of directors and pastor of Second Presbyterian Church in St. Louis, presented Judge Allen for the degree as a "learned lawyer, a wise jurist, a devoted citizen, a lover of peace, a grand human being, and a world figure."

Members of the senior class were presented for degrees by Dr. Paulena Nickell, dean of the college, and the degrees were conferred by Dr. McCluer. Students receiving diplomas in music were presented by Dr. Alice Parker, chairman of the English department. Lindenwood graduate fellowships were awarded to two graduates, Marian Stoerker of St. Charles who will study next year at the University of

Magna Cum Laude

Miss Suk Hun Chan of Malaya, who was graduated magna cum laude and who headed her class scholastically, receives the congratulations of President McCluer.

McCluers, Five from Staff In Europe This Summer

President and Mrs. F. L. McCluer sailed from New York early in June for Europe where they will visit several countries on the continent and Scotland and England in the British Isles. In late July Dr. McCluer will be one of the delegates of the National Education Association to the international conference on teaching to be held at Oslo, Norway.

Other members of the Lindenwood administration and faculty who are traveling in Europe this summer are Miss Mary Lichliter, director of guidance and placement; Dr. Agnes Sibley, associate professor of English; Harry D. Hendren, assistant professor of art; Miss Betty Jack Littleton (A. B. 1951), instructor in English during the past year, and Mrs. Mary Bryant, public relations director and alumnae secretary.

Two Women to Join Faculty

Appointment of Mrs. Greta Larson to the Lindenwood faculty as assistant professor of office management and chairman of the department has been announced by President F. L. McCluer. Mrs. Larson, who received the degree of Master of Arts in Business Education at Columbia University Teachers' College this June, will replace Miss Charlotte Clutterbuck, who resigned to be married this summer. Mrs. Larson formerly has taught at Kearney (Neb.) State Teachers College, Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, D. C., and the Army Education Center in Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Isabelle McClung of Springfield, Mo., has been appointed assistant professor of music for one year to replace Prof. Pearl Walker, who has been granted a year's leave of absence to study in New York City. Miss McClung, who holds degrees from the University of Iowa and Columbia Teachers' College and a diploma from the American Conservatory of Music in Fontainebleau, France, has taught at Eastern Illinois State College and at present is program director of KVOR radio station in Colorado Springs.

Commencement

Wisconsin, and Cora Lee Critchfield of Tecumseh, Neb., who will study at the University of Chicago.

Members of the class of 1954 are:

Bachelor of Arts Degree

Cora Lee Critchfield (high honors in art), Jo June De Weese (high honors in English), Jeanne Ellis (cum laude—honors in chemistry), Martha Jane Evans, Ann Frazier, Patricia Gleeson, Illomay Hachtmeyer, Marie Claire Helmlinger, Jeanette Hester (cum laude), Serita Humphner, Beverly Lett, Yu-Chen Li, Sandra Lunak, Paula Moore, Mark K. Pinckney, Julie Richards, Eunice Sheley, and Sandra Snider.

$1 Will Buy 1954 Literary Magazine

Eleven students are represented with original poetry and short stories in the 1954 edition of The Griffin, Lindenwood's literary magazine, published by the English department. This year's magazine also has poems by three members of the English department, Dr. Siegmund A. E. Betz, Dr. Agnes Sibley, and Miss Betty Jack Littleton (A. B. 1951), and by an alumna, Miss Carol Mahan, A. B. 1953. The 1954 Griffin is enhanced by an original block print by Dorothy Neblett, junior art major from Norfolk, Va.

Alumnae who would like to own this attractively-printed, 37-page magazine may send their orders, accompanied by one dollar, to Dr. Alice Parker, chairman of the English department.

Notes on Alumnae Clubs

The St. Louis Afternoon Club picnicked at the "Deanery" on the campus in May and Dean Paulena Nickell showed some of the pictures and treasures that she brought back from her world tour. Rena Eberspacher Hale (B. S. 1944) was elected president. . . . The St. Louis Evening Club heard a talk on "Research Libraries" by Dr. Kate Gregg, professor emeritus of English and a historical author. Alice Betty Hansbrough (B. S. 1926) was re-elected president. . . . The Southern California club had its annual White Elephant sale in April and will elect officers in June. . . . The Des Moines has buffet suppers every other month. Margaret Marshall Walker (A. B. 1927) is president, but is moving to Austin, Tex., this summer. Officers will be elected in the fall. . . . Mary Celeste Hirsch Hesser (A. B. 1946) is the new president of the St. Charles Club. . . . Frances Alleen Donnelly Keary (1929-30) is the new president of the Kansas City club.

Group contributions toward the chapel were sent by the Denver, Des Moines, St. Charles and Southern California clubs.

Bachelor of Science Degree

Margaret Ahrens, Suk Hun Chan (magna cum laude), Frances Habberthier, Arline Kruehl, Anita Marshall, Marian Stoerker (cum laude—high honors in physical education), Mary Ann Todsén, Mary Nell Van Bibber (cum laude), and Ruth Anne Weber.

Bachelor of Music Degree

Sue Null.

Bachelor of Music Education Degree

Margaret Pfoff Reschetz.

Diplomas

Rosemary Dysart, voice; Jacquelyn Lyerly, voice; Marian Marshall, voice; Shirley Parnas, piano; Carile Samuel, piano, and Molly Peterson, organ.

Campus News in Brief

Closing days of college were eventful as usual. Students voted to establish an honor system of government at the college, and it will go into effect next fall. The action followed several weeks of planning by a representative student committee and an educational program to explain the proposed system. . . . The traditional Pin Day, when the seniors officially step aside and give first place to the juniors, and the classes sing "Remember" to each other, followed the customary pattern—of half-concealed tears in Roemer Auditorium during the ceremony and floods of tears in Roemer Corridor after the ceremony. Presidents Sandra Snider, senior from Borger, Tex., and Marilyn Mills, junior from Danville, Ill., spoke for their classes. . . . Dr. Alice Parker, chairman of the English department, presented the annual Richard Spahmer prizes for creative writing at a student assembly to Jo June De Weese, senior from Hugo, Okla. (first prize, $30) and Deane Keeton, junior of Kansas City (second prize, $20). . . . KCLC radio students, under the direction of Miss Martha May Boyer, wound up their 11th consecutive year of "Lindenwood's Children's Theatre of the Air" presented on Saturday mornings over St. Louis station KFUE. . . . Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic freshmen honorary, of which Ann Smith of Magnolia, Ark., was president, cleared $114 on a rummage sale in downtown St. Charles for the Ethel B. Cook fund, to aid international students at Lindenwood. . . . A week before commencement the Lindenwood Choir sang three anthems at morning service at Second Presbyterian Church in St. Louis of which the Rev. Dr. James W. Clarke, president of Lindenwood's board of directors, is minister. . . . Gloria Bursey, junior of Grand Rapids, Mich., was elected president of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics honorary, and Kathy Hale, junior of Oklahoma City, was elected president of Alpha Epsilon Rho, national radio honorary. . . . Jane Edwards, junior of Crossville, Tenn., was chosen editor of next year's Linden Leaves, to succeed Mary Nell Van Bibber, St. Charles senior. . . . The Athletic Association wound up the year with a banquet at which annual awards were made. Butler Hall won the intramural plaque, and Marian Stoerker, retiring AA president, was awarded the senior service award blanket. Carol Wolter of St. Charles is next year's president. . . . Dormitory presidents for next year were elected: For Sibley, Carolyn Stuart, St. Louis; Butler, Ruth Mead Hamrick, Kansas City; Niccolls, Alice Prouty, Lubbock, Tex.; Irwin, Carol Kellogg, Amarillo, Tex.; Cobbs, Suzanne Anderson, Malden, Mo. . . . Elected president of Alpha Sigma Tau, upperclass scholastic honorary, is Susan Kennedy of Newport, Tenn.

June Brides

Seven Students Selected for Washington Semester This Fall

Six members of next year's junior class and one senior will attend the Washington Semester at the American University in Washington, D. C., this fall. The senior is Beth Glebe, Lawrenceville, Ill. The juniors are Maisie Arrington, Russellville, Ark., Penelope Creighton, Nashville, Tenn.; Judy Glover, Park Ridge, Ill.; Jean Gray, Rockwell City, Iowa; Jane Leonard and Nancy McDaniel, Fort Worth, Tex.

Forty-four colleges and universities now participate in the Washington Semester program, under which selected students spend a semester in the capital, learning about the national government, working on individual study projects related to their major academic interests and attending classes at American University.

President McCluer to Serve On Theological Survey

President F. L. McCluer recently was elected by the Executive Committee of the American Association of Theological Schools to membership on the Advisory Committee on Survey. The committee will be associated with Dr. H. Richard Niebuhr of the Yale University Divinity School in making a study of theological education for which the Carnegie Corporation will provide funds.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Betty Swisher Phillips (1944-46) in sending her alumnae dues and some flattering comments about the Bulletin, reports that she and her husband, William R. Phillips, Jr., and their children, Mike, 6, and Cindy, 4, are living at 6036 W. 51st St., Mission, Kan.

Word comes from Betty Sue (Susie) Perry Nygren (1945-47), along with her alumnae dues, that her husband, the Rev. Mr. Malcolm Nygren, is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Champaign, Ill., where they live at 509 S. McKinley Ave.

Conchita Sutton Peil (1935-37) sends a new address, Route 2, Box 504, Scottsdale, Ariz., from the new home on the desert in Paradise Valley which she and her husband, Richard Peil, Jr., built to provide "breathing space" for their five children: Richard, 9; Mary Jo, 7; Christine, 3; James, 16 months, and William, 3 months.

Miss Anna Mottinger, former head resident of Irwin Hall, sends news often from her home in Albany, Mo., about the many L. C. alumnae with whom she keeps in touch. Now she has written news of herself—that next year she will have a position with the Radford School for Girls in El Paso, Tex.

Sara Ellen Wilson Barker (1936-37) writes that she and her family (husband Clyde, daughters Pat and Mary Ellen, and her mother) have moved to Sioux Falls, S. D., where their address is 1607 S. Dakota Ave. Mrs. Barker has a part-time radio job, writing continuity for KSOO, is a Girl Scout leader and is active in church work.

Helen Lysaght Hodges (1923-24) writes from 5215 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles, that she sings in the choir of the Episcopal Church in which the curate is the son of a Lindenwood friend, Eleanor Kleinschmidt Burger (1923-25), 404 Yorkshire Pl., Webster Groves.

Anita Rudowsky Shuller (1924-26), 400 E. Seneca, McAlester, Okla., writes of a busy life heading a community concert drive, managing music recitals, getting her son back from college, doing yard work, giving a PEO program, attending a medical convention.

Polly Woolsey (A. B. 1945), 1662 Parkwood Rd., Lakewood, Ohio, left for Europe in May and expected to visit Mme. Helene Lyolene, former consultant in design at the college, in Paris.

Anne Erickson Phalon (B. S. 1940) inquires about alumnae in the vicinity of her new home, 90 Homestead Ave., Scarsdale, N. Y., and reports seeing Peggy Hocker Small (B. S. 1940), her lieutenant-commander husband and two children recently in Washington.

From Priscilla Calder Selden (A. B. 1924), 2147 W. Flower St., Phoenix, Ariz., comes word that she is getting a degree in Library Science to add to her A. B. and A. M. Her husband, Edward, is assistant chief attorney for the Veterans' Administration in Arizona. Their three children are Bob, 17, class salutatorian, clarinetist, headed for engineering; Kathie, 14 and Eddy Scott, 8½.

Jane Hicks Bean (1947-48) writes that she and her husband are sailing in October for South India as missionaries for the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society.

News From the Class of 1945

The following autobiographical accounts make up the third installment of the roll call of the class of 1945.

MARTHANN YOUNG (Mrs. William H. Von Meyer), 72 Hilltop Drive, East Alton, Ill.: "After graduating from Lindenwood I worked with the Federal Food and Drug Administration in Washington until 1947 when I married and returned to St. Louis. While my husband continued his education, I worked at the Washington University clinic as a research technician and later was a comparison shopper. Next we spent a year in Warsaw, Ill., and a year in Chicago. Three years ago we returned to St. Louis where my husband is a research chemical engineer and is continuing university study. I have finally settled down to a real job—of homemaker and mother, with a hobby of redecorating and painting everything in sight! We have a son, Kurt, 5, and a daughter, Susan, 2."

Barbara (Babs) Wexner (Mrs. Herbert Levy, Jr.), 3734 Rio Vista, Houston, Tex.: "When I look at the reverse of the numbers of the year and realize it will be nearly 10 years since I left L. C., I find it hard to realize—until I look out my front window and see a cash register, a bell, a table, a sign, and behind all this, my oldest, aged 6½. When I left L. C., I had hoped to continue my education and in time work on a newspaper—but above all to write. Thus far the closest I've come to this is—grocery lists, overdue letters and notes to the teacher. Herb, my husband, helped change my mind on this score. However, I still have hopes.

"Herb and I were married July 25, 1945. We have three children—Barby, 6½; Richard, 5, and Lauren, 18 months. We have a great deal of fun together, and I, as mother, am very proud of my family. At present I am one of the officers of the Houston alumnae club, and if anyone reads this that has not been contacted or would be interested, please call me—Li-9272. I always look forward to the bulletin with great delight. The days I spent there were wonderful ones, and I hope sincerely that my girls will attend L. C. and love it, as I did." (To be continued)
