Our Gratitude for Church Support

ATTENTION at the college is centering on the chapel drive, as this Bulletin goes to press in April, almost a month before it reaches you. Alumnae gifts are starting to come in (Keep them coming!); the St. Charles Presbyterian Church community shows sure signs of reaching its goal of $150,000 toward the new chapel - church, and Presbyterians throughout the Missouri Synod are about to step into the climax of their money-raising campaign.

All Lindenwood supporters owe a debt of gratitude to the Reverend Dr. Harry T. Scherer, pastor of the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church and member of the Lindenwood Board of Directors, for his willing and effective leadership as Synod minister chairman of the fund-raising campaign. A busier man it would be hard to find, but Dr. Scherer has given untiringly of his time and energy to head up the state drive for Lindenwood's chapel.

Strategic work also has been done by Dr. Philip J. Hickey, superintendent of instruction in the St. Louis public schools and also a member of Lindenwood's board, who has worked as the Synod lay chairman, and by Mrs. N. S. Edwards of Merriam, Kan., who has served as Synod women's chairman.

For his vigorous support and cooperation, credit also goes to the Rev. Dr. James W. Clarke, pastor of

The Reverend Dr. Harry T. Scherer

Second Presbyterian Church in St. Louis and president of Lindenwood's board.

It is impossible to pay tribute to all persons who are aiding in the campaign, but key persons within each of the seven Presbyteries of the state may be mentioned. They are the ministers in the seven Presbyteries who headed the fund drive in their areas, and the men and women who served as lay chairmen and women's chairmen in the seven districts. Listed by Presbyteries they are:

St. Louis Presbytery — The Rev. Dr. Marion F. Stuart, pastor of Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, St. Louis; Mr. J. B. Butler of St. Louis; Mrs. Frank Adams of Webster Groves.

Kansas City Presbytery — The Rev. Dr. Clem E. Bininger, pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Dr. Stuart M. Patterson, pastor of Westport Avenue Presbyterian Church, both in Kansas City; Mr. Clarence McGuire and Mrs. Russell Radford of Kansas City.

Carthage-Ozark Presbytery—The Rev. Dr. Arthur McClung, pastor of First and Calvary Presbyterian Church, Springfield; Mr. Stanley Clay of Joplin; Mrs. R. L. Turrentine of Springfield.

Kirk Presbytery—The Rev. Mr. Charles Andrus, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Hannibal; Mrs. J. J. Wimp of Kirksville.

St. Joseph Presbytery — The Rev. Dr. Elmer B. Whitcomb, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, St. Joseph; Mr. Carson McCormack, Mound City; Mrs. H. H. Bowers, Cameron.

Sedalia Presbytery—The Rev. Mr. Robert Young, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Jefferson City; Mr. William Tweedie and Mrs. J. W. McHaney, both of Jefferson City.

Lindenwood's 127th Commencement To Be Held May 29th

Federal Judge Florence Allen to Give Graduation Address—Rev. Dr. C. Ralston Smith Will Preach Baccalaureate Sermon

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE'S 127th annual commencement will be held at 10:30 a. m. on Saturday, May 29, climaxing a weekend of activities for seniors and their families. Twenty-nine seniors are candidates for degrees. Following custom of recent years, the commencement program will be held outdoors if the weather permits.

Dr. Florence E. Allen of Cleveland, judge of the U. S. Court of Appeals, will deliver the commencement address. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached in Roemer Auditorium on Friday night, May 28, at 7:30 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. C. Ralston Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Oklahoma City.

Other activities include the President's reception honoring seniors and their families and friends to be given with the assistance of Alpha Sigma Tau at the home of President and Mrs. F. L. McCluer following the baccalaureate service on Friday; the annual senior prayer meeting with the President at 7:15 a. m. commencement day, and the breakfast for seniors, their families and the faculty at 8 a. m.

Judge Allen is the first woman to be appointed to an important judicial post in this country. Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, she received her A. B. and A. M. degrees from Western Reserve University and her LL. B. from New York University. She holds honorary degrees from 17 institutions of learning.

She began the practice of law in Cleveland in 1914. In 1919-20 she served as assistant county prosecutor of Cuyahoga County. In 1920 she was elected judge of the Court of Common Pleas in Cleveland, and in 1922 she was elected to the Ohio Supreme Court. She served on the Supreme Court until 1934 when the late President Roosevelt appointed her judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, which includes Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Judge Allen was Lindenwood's commencement speaker four years ago, in 1950.

Five Seniors Awarded Fellowships

JO JUNE DEWEESE of Hugo, Okla., senior English major, was awarded a national Woodrow Wilson fellowship for graduate study next year at the University of North Carolina. Miss DeWeese was one of 25 women in a total of 144 college seniors who received Wilson fellowships. Her fellowship is for $1,610.

At Lindenwood Miss DeWeese is president of Butler Hall and of the Poetry Society; an editor of the Griffin, literary magazine; a member of Alpha Sigma Tau, upperclass scholastic honorary. Last year she was a Washington Semester student, and this year she is writing original poetry as an honors project in English.

Choosing from four fellowships offered her by four institutions, Yu-Chen Li, majoring in both biology and chemistry, has accepted a $1,500 fellowship in biochemistry at the University of Wisconsin. An honor student during her four years at Lindenwood, Yu-Chen this year is president of Alpha Sigma Tau.

Three other students had received graduate scholarships by the time this issue of the Bulletin went to press.

Janie Evans, biology major from Malden, Mo., has a $1,200 fellowship for graduate study in education, preparatory for secondary school teaching, awarded jointly by the George Peabody College for Teachers and Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn.

Cora Lee Critchfield, art major from Tecumseh, Neb., was awarded a tuition scholarship of $720 for graduate study in history of art at the University of Chicago. Mary Nell Van Bibber of St. Charles, majoring in education, has a tuition scholarship for a year at the Nursery Training School of Boston, affiliated with Tufts College.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

Social welfare work in Wisconsin, three years of overseas Red Cross work during World War II, and administrative work in welfare service have added up to a busy, useful life since her graduation for Lillian Nitcher (A. B. 1933). These facts are brought out in a recent, lengthy feature story about Miss Nitcher published in the Wisconsin State Journal and sent to Lindenwood by Josephine Lupfer Fitschen (1924-26).

Miss Nitcher since 1948 has been associate executive secretary for the Madison (Wis.) Community Welfare Council. In addition, she is co-director of welfare in the city-county Civil Defense organization, a member of the Madison Mayor's committee to study teen-age drinking in Madison and of the Governor's state committee on children and youth.

During the war she served with a Red Cross unit for an American general hospital near London, and later at a hospital in Augsburg, Germany. She received a citation for her outstanding work in the Red Cross. Miss Nitcher lives at 1 Langdon St., Madison.

Frances Merritt Rathbun (1943-44), sent, with a check to the alumnae fund, information about her husband, Edwin, who works for the Argonne National Laboratory; her son, Roy, 3, and baby Gloria, born last August. She also sent the welcome news that she is "very appreciative" of the Bulletin. The Rathbuns live at 355 E. Whitehall Ave., Northlake, Ill.

Blanche Hestwood Lischer (B. M. 1935) writes Dr. John Thomas, chairman of the music department, that she teaches junior high school music and directs choral groups in Royal Oak, Mich., where she lives with her husband, Carl F., and daughter, Joanne, high school sophomore, at 319 Park Ave.

Gloria Omohundro Palmer (B. S. 1943), her marine husband, John E., and their son recently moved back to 446 S. Flower, Santa Ana, Calif., after a tour of duty in Hawaii, where their landlord was the father of Betty Tom (B. S. 1951). Unfortunately the two L. C. grads did not meet.

Dr. John Thomas, chairman of the music department, received word from Peggy Pennel (B. M. 1953), who is a graduate student at Florida State University in Tallahassee, that her organ lessons are progressing well and she is scheduled for a lecture-recital in May. She is organist for a church there. From other sources Dr. Thomas learned Peggy's first semester record—14 hours of A and one of B.

Word comes that Mary Jean Taggart Wood (Mrs. John W.), 1934-36, is living at 5027 Art St., San Diego, Calif., and is dean in a San Diego high school.

Barbara Oehlert Nelson (1950-51) writes that in mid-May when the Army releases her husband, Maynard, they and their son, Ricky, will move into a new home at 1926 Gebhart, Salina, Kan.

The engagement was recently announced of Dorothy Frye (1948-50) to Ensign L. N. Darden of Sacramento, Calif., now based in Glenview, Ill. Dorothy works for Trans World Airlines in Kansas City, Mo., where her address is 1310 Brush Creek.

Word comes from the Hardy sisters of Texarkana, Tex.—Betty Hardy Ledwell (A. B. 1947) and Becky Jo Raffaelli (1946-47)—that they spend most of their time and energy in a greenhouse, owned by Becky Jo and her husband, Joe, and owe their green thumbs to Dr. Marion Dawson's "wonderful, wonderful lectures and exciting little field trips." Betty, her husband, L. W. Ledwell, and their 11-month-old son, Stephen Hardy, live at Route 6, Box 167, Texarkana, and the address of Becky Jo, her husband and Becha, 3, is c/o Texarkana Greenhouse, West 7th Street Highway. Bulletin appeal: Help is needed in locating Betty Ann Hardy (1941-42), formerly of Mattoon, Ill.

In writing that she would not be in Evanston in March to help entertain members of the Lindenwood Choir, on concert tour, Betsy Triebel Rahmel (Mrs. Henry — 1934-35), 1604 Lincoln St., Evanston, reported the exciting news that she and her husband were leaving March 17 for 10 weeks in England. She wrote, "My Lindenwood days are still and will always be happy, shining memories. I often wish I had stayed longer than one year."

Dr. and Mrs. Eric Andreae (Gaenor Joan Hudson, 1948-49) have moved from Lookout Mountain, Tenn., to 420 W. 119th St., New York City, to stay until July, when they will go to Geneva, Switzerland, for the next few years of study for Dr. Andreae.

Virginia Morrow Welch (1946-48) has moved from Pittsburgh to 148 Fordham Rd., Hicksville, N. Y., in connection with her husband Albert's new job as head of electronics for Fairchild Research.

Three former Lindenwood faculty members were together in Walla Walla, Wash., in March when Grace Stevenson Powers (Mrs. Thomas H.) visited Edna Hanna (class of 1908). Both are former L. C. music faculty, known for their two-piano recitals. The third faculty member is Mrs. Julia Underwood, who taught journalism and who lives in Walla Walla.

August 21 has been set for the marriage of Glenna Kiner (1949-51) to Paul Baptist, student at the University of Chicago, headed for a Ph. D. in philosophy. Kiki Kotsiopoulos (1948-51), who works for a Chicago advertising firm, will be in the wedding. Glenna is a legal secretary in Chicago and lives at 434 W. Melrose Ave., Chicago 2. In 1952 she flew to Hawaii and spent a month as the guest of Betty Tom (B. S. 1951).

Recent visitors to the campus were Dorothy Norris

News from the Class of 1945

THE SECOND INSTALLMENT of the roll call of the class of 1945 follows. Members of the class who have failed to send autobiographical accounts still may be included in the series if they will send the information promptly to the Alumnae Secretary at the college.

Betty Jean Schroer (Mrs. Robert J. Friauf), 15C Sunnyside, Lawrence, Kan.: "After graduating from Lindenwood I worked for a year at the St. Louis City Welfare Office. Continuing in the field of social work, I went to the University of Chicago and in March 1948, secured my MA in the School of Social Service Administration. Since my specialization was child welfare, I first worked in a private children's agency and later with the Illinois Department of Child Welfare. In the fall of 1949, however, I married Bob who was at the University of Chicago working towards his Ph. D. in Physics. We stayed in Chicago and I continued to work until Bob completed his work in June, 1953. We also stayed long enough to have Ann Phyllis, who was born June 3, 1953. The following month we were here in Lawrence with Bob a member of the faculty in the Physics Department at the University of Kansas. We are happy in our new location and enjoy our participation in the many activities of the University and town."

Helen Bartlett, 103 N. President St., Wheaton, Ill.: "I graduated from Lindenwood in 1945 with a B. S. degree in physical education. That fall I entered the school of Physical Therapy at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis and graduated in 1946 as a registered physical therapist.

"My first position was with the Veterans Administration at Hines Hospital, Hines, Ill., where I worked for a year. Most of the patients were war casualties and typical war disabilities. . . . In 1947 I transferred to the V. A. Out-Patient Clinic in Chicago, and in 1949 I moved to Pasadena, Calif., where I worked at the Huntington Memorial Hospital until March, 1953. I returned to the Midwest at that time because of the serious illness and death of my father.

"For the past eight summers I have been associated with the Chicago Boys' Clubs—acting as waterfront director and as a camp director. I am now employed as physical therapist and director of the Special Service School for physically handicapped children of the Hammond, Ind., public schools. I recommend my profession to anyone interested in the medical field."

Mary Aldridge (Mrs. Myron E. East), 39 Bishop Road, Wollaston 70, Mass.: "After graduation I taught a year in my home town, Evansville, Ind., married Myron when school was over, and then taught another year while Myron returned to college. In January, 1947, he returned to Serval, Inc., and we moved to Akron, Ohio, for 3½ years. Myron, Jr., was born in August, 1948, and Jimmy Lee in August, 1952. Meanwhile a promotion for Myron transferred us to Boston in February, 1951. My husband travels a lot. My days are busy with our lively boys, and I spend evenings, when Myron is away, reading, sewing, watching television — and even have learned to hang wallpaper and paint, an occupation never dreamed of at L. C.

"We are both active in church work, and I help with a Brownie troop. Occasionally we take advantage of Boston's fun, education and entertainment. We love New England, especially the beaches, and hate the thought of some day having to leave.

"I keep in contact with several of the girls at Christmas, and was fortunate enough to see Peg Proctor, Brighton, and Kay Thread Pritchett in the last year. I would especially like to know what has happened to Scotchy Carter, Nancy Pipan, Bonnie Lumpkins and Francis Shudde."

Kathleen "Girt" DeCroes (Mrs. Glenn D. Bruce), 605 Callender, Peoria, Ill.: "After two wonderful years at Lindenwood I attended Bradley University and received my degree. In 1948 I married Glenn who works at Le Tourneau—Westinghouse. For four years after our marriage I taught in the elementary grades in East Peoria. Deborra Lynn, our daughter, was born in 1953. Now my time is devoted to my husband and daughter and various community activities. My hope is that Debby, too, may someday attend Lindenwood and live the tradition, beauty and friendships that it offers in such abundance. There is no more wonderful place for a girl to spend those few short years of collegiate life than at Lindenwood."

Frances Watlington (Mrs. J. R. Hubbard), 2315 Wood, Texarkana, Tex.: "After leaving L. C., I taught school here in Texarkana—the city of two states (Arkansas and Texas)—but I claim Texas, of course! In December of '45 I married my high school beau, James Robert Hubbard, and continued teaching while he attended Baylor Law School.

"September 30, 1948, was a happy day for us—our daughter Harriet was born. From then on I was a busy housewife and mother keeping baby from disturbing Daddy's studying; a rushed student, for I was taking some Junior High Ed courses; and an amazed teacher, for, truly, fifth graders know a lot. In December of '50 our "Trailer Days" (those two words need capitalizing; if you've ever lived in one, you know what I mean) ended, and Papa was admitted to the Texas Bar, having made the highest mark from Baylor on his exam.

"We now own our home in Texarkana. My husband is a practicing attorney and is kept busy being a City Father.

"Last March we were blessed with a son, James Griffin. We square dance and hold barbecues in the yard (Typical Texans?!?!), and in my spare (?) time I attend a weekly bridge club, work in A.A.U.W., teach Sunday School, belong to a music club. I hope to take up voice study again soon."

The Alumnae Can Help

We shall welcome recommendations of prospective students from alumnae and friends of the College. We hope you will not only send us the names of students, but will speak to these students about Lindenwood College. If a substantial number of the friends of Lindenwood should become very active in locating prospective students for us, calling them to the attention of the Director of Admissions, and following up by telling these students something about the College, we shall have a great increase in enrollment. Your help in this matter is earnestly requested and will be sincerely appreciated.
