November Theater, Music, and Dance Performances

November is a busy month for the School of Arts, Media, and Communications' performing arts programs!

The Theater Program presents Silent Sky, a play about early 1900s astronomer Henrietta Leavitt, Nov. 6-9 at 7:30 p.m., with a 2 p.m. performance on Nov. 9. The Dance Program will present its Fall Dance Concert, featuring 11 works by faculty, students, and guest artists in styles including jazz, tap, ballet, contemporary, improvisation, and traditional Chinese dance. These performances are Nov. 7-9 at 7:30 p.m. Finally, the Music Program will present several engaging concerts throughout November. The Fall Concert Series features the Band and Orchestra

Concert on Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m., the Choir Concert on Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m., the St. Louis Collegiate Collaborative Choir Concert on Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m., and the Chamber Concert Series, featuring the Percussion Ensemble, on Nov. 24 at 3 p.m., and the String and Woodwind Ensembles on Nov. 25 at 7:30 p.m.

For Lindenwood theatre and dance performances, all faculty and staff receive two FREE tickets at the Scheidegger Center Box Office with a university-issued ID. Music performances are free, non-ticketed events, open to the public. Come support the students, faculty, and staff of the School of AMC! Visit LUBoxOffice.com for complete details on these performances.

3. After reviewing the guidebook, click the checkbox to agree that you have read the guidebook
4. Submit the task.

Thank you for your immediate attention.

Funding Available for Assessment-Related Professional Development

The Office of Institutional Effectiveness provides funding to Lindenwood faculty and staff to engage in assessment-related professional development. This funding is used to develop capacity for institutional assessment at Lindenwood and to nurture our culture of continuous improvement. Although this funding is limited, it supports multiple colleagues as they participate in training, workshops, and conferences related to assessment. Get more information about submitting a request for funding.

Resume Workshop Hosted by Vosevich

Lindenwood Delegates Join Annual Assessment Institute

A team of faculty and staff from Lindenwood joined the 2019 Annual Assessment Institute in Indianapolis from Oct. 13 to 15. The Assessment Institute in Indianapolis is the nation’s oldest and largest event focused exclusively on outcomes assessment in higher education.

Dr. Bethany Alden-Rivers, Dr. Jessica Randolph, Dr. Areerat Kichkha, and Kate Herrell represented Lindenwood at the Institute. Kichkha presented her work on a "Post Learning Diagram," which promotes deeper learning and stronger assessment for business students. Herrell served as a discussant on the Excellence in Assessment (EIA) Panel, which provided insights into best practices from institutions who received the EIA designation this year. Kate Herrell also joined former Lindenwood employee Dr. Aaron Shilling for a poster presentation on Lindenwood's approach to general education assessment.
