'Pop' Ordelheide Retires

IN 1914 Harry P. Ordelheide accepted responsibility as Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds at Lindenwood College. At that time there were two buildings on the campus. Mr. Ordelheide has seen the college grow and during thirty-eight years in which he has served the institution, he has contributed significantly to its strength.

He has indicated his desire to retire but has agreed to stay on to serve in an advisory capacity until the end of the current college year.

He is known to thousands of Lindenwood former students and alumnae as "Pop," the man whose never failing friendliness helped to make Lindenwood their home. He has been happy, faithful and devoted in his service to the college, in his cooperation with his colleagues, and in his friendship to the students. Literally thousands of students at Lindenwood remember "Pop" with affection and deep appreciation.

Members of the administration and faculty of the College rejoice not only in the long period of competent service that Mr. Ordelheide has given Lindenwood but also in the deep devotion he has given the college and the sincere friendship he has given us.

Congressman Brownson and Senator Humphrey to Be Convention Keynoters

More Than Forty Universities and Colleges Will Send Delegations to National Student Political Conventions at Lindenwood on March 20-21 and 22

KEYNOTE addresses at the national student political conventions to be held on the Lindenwood campus March 20 to 22 will be delivered by United States Senator Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Congressman Charles B. Brownson of Indiana. Senator Humphrey will speak for the Democratic Party and Congressman Brownson for the Republicans. More than forty universities and colleges have already made reservations for delegations for the conventions.

Senator Humphrey is recognized as one of the forceful leaders of his party in the United States Senate. At one time a professor of political science at the University of Minnesota, he held several important administrative positions in war agencies during World War II and in 1945 was elected Mayor of Minneapolis. He was elected to the Senate in 1948.

Congressman Brownson, whose home is in Indianapolis, was a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army and served as Executive Officer to the G-I staff of Gen. Omar Bradley in Europe. After VE Day, he flew to the Philippines as a member of the staff which planned the invasion of Japan. He was elected to Congress in 1950 and is the first Republican from his district in twenty-two years. He was born in Jackson, Mich., where the Republican Party was founded, in 1914. Congressman Brownson is a successful business man in Indianapolis.

It is expected that attendance from other schools at the political conventions will exceed the record set in 1948 when forty-seven universities and colleges sent 208 delegates to the campus. The keynote addresses that year were delivered by United States Senator Robert A. Taft for the Republicans and United States Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney for the Democrats. Under the convention rules, each participating institution may send five delegates to each convention. The number of votes allotted to each delegation is determined by the enrollment of the school it represents. The rules of procedure will be adopted by the conventions when they are organized.

The conventions will follow closely the pattern of the actual national conventions, which will be held this year in Chicago. They will adopt platforms, hear nominating speeches, and nominate candidates for President and Vice-President. Many of the convention sessions will be broadcast. As was the case four years ago, the student conventions will be watched closely by leaders of both parties as an indication of political trends in this country.

Badges for the convention will be provided by Lindenwood and the contract for decorations for the conventions has been let. Dr. Homer Clevenger, head of Lindenwood's Department of History and Political Science, is general chairman of the committee on arrangements. Miss Mary Lichliter has been named chairman of Decorations, Badges and Housing and Mrs. Betty Winter is chairman of the committee planning social events for the visitors.

Dr. Siegmund Betz is the campus sponsor for the Republican Party and Dr. John Moore is sponsoring the Democratic Party. General chairman on the campus for the Republicans is Miss Mary Beth Banta, and Nell Culver is general chairman for the Democrats. Lindenwood's delegates to both conventions will be elected by the students.

Included in the list of schools which have made reservations for their delegations are: University of Missouri; Notre Dame University; St. Louis University; Vanderbilt University; Wabash College; Fontbonne College; University of Illinois; Southern Illinois University; Carthage College; Westminster College; University of South Dakota; College of St. Thomas; Milliken University; St. Mary's College; Culver-Stockton College; Central College; the Principia; Franklin College, Blackburn College and Harris State Teachers College.

The student conventions, Dr. Frank L. McCluer, president of Lindenwood, points out, offer an opportunity for college students to add to their interest in and understanding of current political issues and political activities. "This is democracy at work," he added. "This is an opportunity for the demonstration of keen political thought, oratory and democratic competition and for the practical application of the political science theories taught in the classroom."

Variety of Activities Reported by Lindenwood Alumnae Clubs

By MRS. MARY BRYANT, Alumnae Secretary

THE Des Moines, Iowa, Club, is gunning for new members and asks that any interested Lindenwooders living in the Des Moines area make themselves known to the club secretary, Mrs. H. J. Wilson (Ruth Jamison), 249 Fifty-first St. President of the club is Mrs. Richard F. Rabe (Nancy Jane Riggs), 744 Forty-second St., and the treasurer is Miss Harriet Liddle, 711 Fifty-sixth St.

Latest news we have from the Central Indiana Club is of a luncheon during Christmas holidays for students now in Lindenwood from Indianapolis, Bedford, and New Castle, Ind., which was reported as a gala affair. Mrs. Miller E. Spears (Lucia Scofield), 5234 Grace-land Ave., Indianapolis, is president.

Denver and Tulsa clubs take laurels for sending in the most alumnae dues from members.

The Kansas City Club, which has 74 members on its roster, has monthly meetings; some of them noon luncheons and some evening desserts. Next ones on the schedule are a luncheon on March 20 and a dessert on April 17. Mrs. William W. Weeks (Frances Lee Metzger), 4826 Booth St., is president. An important activity of the club is raising money for a Lindenwood scholarship. The main money-raiser is the sale of canned chicken, but there's also an annual summer white elephant sale and an occasional bake sale.

The St. Charles club went all out with a bazaar in the fall to raise scholarship funds, as did the St. Louis Afternoon Club. Since then, programs for the monthly meetings have varied. In February the St. Charles Club, which has an average attendance of 45, had an audience of 80 at a dinner meeting to hear a talk on the F. B. I. A musical is planned for the March meeting, and in April an alumna, Mrs. Leland S. Cunningham (Martha Lemmon) of the personnel staff of Stix, Baer & Fuller department store in St. Louis, will speak. Miss Dorothy Ely of the college English staff is president.

Guests at the February meeting of the St. Louis Afternoon Club were Dean Eunice C. Roberts and students from the Speech Department. Mrs. J. Glennon Schreiber (Virginia Porter), 255 Edwin St., Glendale, is president.

At its last monthly dinner, the St. Louis Evening Club heard a talk on fashions by Madame Helene Lyolene, visiting consultant in design at the college. Dr. Mary Terhune, head of the modern language department, also attended. The President is Miss Rosemary Dron, 2659 State St., Granite City, Ill.

Washington, D. C., alumnae had as their guests at a luncheon on January 5, President and Mrs. McCluer and Dean Roberts. Dr. McCluer showed recent movies of the college.

One of the most lively clubs is in Los Angeles. Mrs. Conn Gertmenian (Doris Nahigian), 925 Columbia Ave., South Pasadena, is president. The group meets on the third Saturday of each month, October through June, usually with luncheon meetings in members' homes with several hostesses each time. Besides some local philanthropy and lots of sociability, the club provides a yearly Lindenwood scholarship.

Faculty Members Appear on Variety of Programs

Dr. Franc L. McCluer, Lindenwood's president, addressed a luncheon meeting of the Classroom Teachers Association in St. Louis on February 26. The meeting was held in connection with the convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

On February 8 and 9, Dr. Eunice C. Roberts, dean of the faculty, attended the first annual Tri-State Faculty Conference on "Religion and Higher Education" at Park College, Parkville, Mo. She addressed the Park College student body and participated in a panel discussion on "The Campus, Faculty and the Spiritual Crisis." In January Dr. Roberts spoke on "The Importance of Liberal Arts Training for Women" at the American Conference of Academic Deans in Washington, D. C. Dr. Roberts is a member of the Executive Council of the Conference.

Charles C. Clayton, instructor in journalism and national president of Sigma Delta Chi, addressed the Milwaukee, Wis., Press Club on February 19 and was a member of a panel on "Pressure Groups and the Schools" at the convention of the American Association of School Administrators on February 26.

Miss Kathryn Hankins Is Elected to Church Council

Miss Kathryn Hankins, professor emeritus of Classical Languages, who retired last June as a member of the faculty and alumnae secretary, has been elected second vice-president of the Topeka, Kan., Council of Church Women. Miss Hankins, who will serve a two-year term, is the council representative of First Presbyterian Church in Topeka.

An interesting letter from Mrs. John Martin Staton (Bertha Florence Ward, 1945-46) tells of her life in Mexico City, where her husband is attached to the American Embassy.

The Alumnae Can Help

We shall welcome recommendations of prospective students from alumnae and friends of the College. We hope you will not only send us the names of students, but will speak to these students about Lindenwood College. If a substantial number of the friends of Lindenwood should become very active in locating prospective students for us, calling them to the attention of the Director of Admissions, and following up by telling these students something about the College, we shall have a great increase in enrollment. Your help in this matter is earnestly requested and will be sincerely appreciated.
