Vol. 2, No. 34; April 23, 1984

KCLC RAISES NEARLY $12,000 IN FUND-RAISING DRIVE

Lindenwood's community radio station, KCLC-FM, has raised nearly $12,000 in cash and contributions from its recent on-air, fund-raising effort, which ended April 9. The week-long event, which featured gift incentives for donors and guest appearances by local and national personalities, was the first of five fund-raising drives planned by the 1,500-watt station within the next 15 months.

According to Jim Wilson, general manager and faculty member, the station hopes to raise $100,000 within the next 15 months. Funding from tax-deductible contributions will be used to increase the power of the station to 25,740 watts, a proposal tentatively approved by the Federal Communications Commission. Money from the April 2-9 drive and future fund-raising campaigns will be earmarked for the purchase of more modern station equipment, for operating expenses and for expansion of broadcast facilities, Wilson said.

Expressing appreciation to community residents and businesses in the area, Wilson said the amount raised "is more than we've ever raised before, and we are very happy about it."

STUDENTS' RESEARCH PAPER CITED BY MPA

Two May graduates of Lindenwood - Margaret E. Cook of Florissant and Nancy L. Bridges of St. Charles - have received a second-place award in a statewide research competition sponsored by the Missouri Psychological Association (MPA). The students are coauthors of a research paper that investigated the psychological effects of a pet therapy program in geriatric populations. This spring, both will present the paper at an MPA session. Faculty supervisors for the project were James D. Evans, Ph.D., chairman of the Psychology Dept., and Edith E. Graber, Ph.D., chairman of the Sociology Dept. In the 10 years that the MPA has sponsored the statewide competition for undergraduates, Lindenwood students have won one of the top two places five times, Evans said.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT FOR COMMENCEMENT

Students are asked to volunteer a few hours of their time to serve in a variety of tasks for this year's commencement, scheduled at 10 a.m. May 12 on campus (or, in the event of rain, at the Lindenwood College Chapel-St. Charles Presbyterian Church). If you are willing to assist at graduation, contact Student Activities Director Janet Zak at extension #316.

Speaking of commencement, President James I. Spainhower reminds faculty, staff and their families that they are invited to attend the continental breakfast May 12 to honor 1984 Lindenwood graduates. The event is scheduled from 8-9:30 a.m. in Niccolls Hall.

SEARCH COMMITTEE FORMED FOR MILLER'S REPLACEMENT

Aaron Miller, Ph.D., has resigned his position as Dean of Faculty and Provost, effective July 31. In accepting the resignation, President James I. Spainhower commended Dr. Miller for his lengthy service to Lindenwood College, and noted that he was particularly helpful when the college was without the services of a president in 1982. Dr. Spainhower also expressed the best wishes of the college to both Dr. Miller and his wife, Terri.

Dr. Miller joined the college in 1980 as Dean of Faculty and professor of humanities. He was given added responsibilities as provost in 1983.

Dr. Spainhower has appointed a search committee to aid him in finding a new dean of faculty and provost. The committee will be chaired by Howard A. Barnett, Ph.D., professor of English, and will consist of three other faculty members, one member of the administrative staff and a student. Under the Faculty Constitution & Bylaws, the Faculty Council will serve in a consulting capacity in recommending a replacement for Dr. Miller; James D. Evans, Ph.D., chairman of the Faculty Council and Psychology Dept., has been named to the search committee to serve in this capacity.

Other members include faculty representatives N. Jean Fields, associate professor of English and communications arts, and Nancy Polette, assistant professor of education; student Victor T. Avellino of Manchester; and Edward D. Watkins, vice-president for institutional development.

PASS OUT THOSE CIGARS . . .

Bruce Edler of the Maintenance Dept. and his wife, Lisa, formerly of the college's Food Services Dept., are the proud parents of a girl, Lauren Marie Rene, born April 9 at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis. She is the St. Charles couple's third child.

MEMO REGARDING GUIDELINES

WITH ADOPTION OF NEW COLLEGE LOGO

The President's Council of Lindenwood College has adopted a new identifying symbol or logo as a part of the college's Renaissance major funds campaign. With the adoption of this logo, certain guidelines have been established to assure uniformity and broad utilization of this symbol.

- 1) This logo is the property of Lindenwood College and joins the college crest as the official symbols of the institution.
- 2) As current printed materials become exhausted, this logo should be incorporated into any materials, including letterhead, business cards, publications, brochures, catalogs, print advertising, class schedules, etc.
- 3) With the adoption of this new logo, a certain style of type has been chosen to compliment this design. It, too, is to be used exclusively with the logo.
- 4) Reproduction stats of the new logo in assorted sizes have been supplied to Duplicating to fit virtually all college printing needs. Likewise, Duplicating has various sizes and styles of the new typeface to meet your communications needs.
- 5) Regarding color, for the majority of Lindenwood's printing requirements, materials will require one color. No limitations are placed on color; you may choose an appropriate color in stock that will fit your needs. However, if two colors are to be used, they must conform to the green and brown that have been selected to be used with the logo. Standard PMS color charts showing the green and brown are available in Duplicating whenever the need arises to print the logo in its appropriate colors.
- 6) The logo is a total unit and must be used in its entirety without alterations. Any suggested alteration of the logo must receive approval of the Public Relations Office prior to printing.
- 7) Kris Cordes in Duplicating and Randy L. Wallick in the Public Relations Office are available to answer any questions or problems you may encounter in meeting these guidelines for utilization of Lindenwood College's new symbol for today and the future.

GOSPEL MUSIC CONCERT SCHEDULED THURSDAY

A gospel music concert featuring The Russians, One Accord and the Bethelairs will be presented Thursday at 7 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. Tickets, priced at $3 and $4, are available at the college's Box Office in Roemer Hall.

The Russians, composed of Peter and Nikolai Pankratz of Lynchburg, VA, immigrated to the United States from the Soviet Union. Their grandfather was imprisoned in Siberia because of his expression of his faith in God. Subsequently, he died during his imprisonment. The Russians frequently tour the United States, singing gospel music and telling their inspirational story.

One Accord is a gospel singing family from St. Louis that has performed for the past 12 years. Recently, the group returned from Africa where it completed a singing tour of churches, concert halls and outdoor evangelistic crusades. The group's appearance at Lindenwood will include some selections from songs performed on its African tour.

A St. Charles group, the Bethelairs have performed throughout the midwest and have appeared on numerous radio and television stations. The all-male group was voted in the top five in the National Gospel Quartet Convention in 1978 in Nashville, TN.

FINANCIAL DEREGULATION IS PANEL'S TOPIC WEDNESDAY

Nine outstanding seniors from a financial management course in the Business Administration Dept. will present brief summaries of their research projects on the consequences of financial deregulation Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the lounge of Cobbs Hall. Topics to be covered range from problems in control of the monetary system to opportunities in the financial futures market, according to Robert W. King, associate professor. A question-and-answer period and a reception will follow the formal presentations. The event is free and is open to all students, faculty, staff and the community.

ATHLETES TO BE HONORED AT FRIDAY BANQUET

Today is the deadline to secure tickets for Lindenwood College's third Annual Athletic Banquet, scheduled Friday at 7 p.m. in Ayres Cafeteria. Awards will be given to the college's outstanding athletes, who will receive a free ticket to the event if picked up by 5 p.m. today. Tickets for all others are priced at $8@. Tickets can be picked up at the Dean of College Life's Office, 107 Roemer Hall today from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1-5 p.m.

CANALE APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF ENGLISH DEPT.

Based upon a recommendation by the English Dept. and concurrence by the Provost & Dean of Faculty, Ann Canale, Ph.D., assistant professor of English, has been named chairperson of the English Dept. for the 1984-86 academic years, replacing Howard A. Barnett, Ph.D. Dr. Barnett, who requested to be relieved of the chairmanship and return to full-time teaching, will continue as professor of English.

BASEBALL TEAM TO BENEFIT FROM OPTIMIST CLUB GIFT

Lindenwood has received a $300 gift from the St. Charles Noon Day Optimist Club to be used for equipment and operational costs for the men's baseball team. A formal presentation was made last week by club President Hugh Orr during a luncheon meeting in St. Charles. Accepting the gift on behalf of team Coach Mark Hahn and the college were James D. Thompson, major funds coordinator at Lindenwood, and Tom Schapp, a senior who will graduate in May and a member of the men's team.

SPAINHOWERS GREET ALUMNI IN OKLAHOMA

Dr. and Mrs. James I. Spainhower visited nearly 400 Lindenwood alumni last week during a three-day tour in Oklahoma. Receptions and meetings were held in Oklahoma City, Stillwater and Tulsa during the April 18-20 visit.

PRESIDENT APPROVES FACULTY COUNCIL RECOMMENDATIONS

The following recommendations by the Faculty Council have been concurred by the Provost & Dean of Faculty and granted by President Spainhower:

Promoted on the Lindenwood faculty from assistant to associate professor are Jeanne Donovan, Ph.D., of the Education Dept.; N. Jean Fields of the English Dept.; Moheb Seif El-Nasr, Ph.D., of the Chemistry Dept.; and Arlene Taich, Ph.D., of the LCIE.

Granted tenure are Nancy Polette of the Education Dept. and Dr. Seif El-Nasr of the Chemistry Dept.

Promoted from instructor to assistant professor is Arlene Sueoka of the ESL Dept.

And, granted sabbatical for the spring, 1985, semester is Dominic C. Soda, Ph.D., professor and chairman of the Math Dept.

'ATTIC SALE' SCHEDULED SATURDAY ON CAMPUS

More than 50 antique dealers, arts-and-crafts exhibitors and tailgate vendors will be on campus Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. for 'Mrs. Sibley's Attic Sale,' a fund-raising event by the St. Charles-Lindenwood Alumni Club. Named for the cofounder of the college, the sale will offer a variety of merchandise, antiques, crafts and tailgate items in specially-marked areas on campus. Proceeds from space rentals for vendors and concession sales will be used for scholarship awards and the partial renovation of the gym in Butler Hall. Admission to the event is free. Rain-out date for the sale is May 5.

LCIE SCHOLARSHIPS DONATED TO KETC-TV AUCTION

Watch for Lindenwood College's donations on Channel 9's annual fund-raising auction, which airs from 6 p.m. to midnight April 27 through May 6. Tuition scholarships of $1,500 and $500 have been given to the public television station for the auction, a 10-day event in which an estimated one million viewers will witness. Several airings of a videotape on Lindenwood and a slide presentation will be aired during the auction in return for the scholarship awards.

'COMMUNIQUE' BEGINS BIWEEKLY PUBLICATION IN MAY

If you can't find "Communique" in your mailbox each Monday morning, don't panic. Beginning May 7, the newsletter will be published biweekly during the May and summer terms. It will resume weekly frequency on September 10.

Scheduled publication dates are May 7 and 21; June 4 and 18; July 2, 16 and 30; and August 13 and 27. When publication resumes weekly circulation on September 10, all students will receive the newsletter in addition to all faculty and staff members.

Deadlines for publication during the May and summer terms are by noon Tuesday of the week preceding dissemination of the newsletter. All editorial submissions should be written and sent to Randy L. Wallick in care of the Public Relations Office in Roemer Hall.

OPENINGS ANNOUNCED ON PEER TUTORING STAFF

One important group at the CAP Center is comprised of peer tutors, students who offer their assistance to other students to help them develop academic skills. There are several openings available on the peer tutoring staff for the next academic year. Work-study or other financial compensation is available. Students returning next fall who are interested in finding out more about the college's peer tutoring program can stop at the CAP Center, where they may fill out application forms. The deadline for applications is Friday. Students who have good communication skills and who are strong in math, writing, accounting, computer science or the physical sciences are needed for next year's program.

COLLEGE DISPLAYS HISTORIC 'VIGIL' EXHIBIT

"The Vigil," a pictorial history of the St. Louis community from 1812-1984, is on display now through May 15 on the main floor of Butler Library. The exhibit features fourteen 4x8' boards which contain historical photos, sketches, past newspaper clippings and informational copy about some of the men and women through the years who committed themselves to the struggle for freedom and justice, including Dred Scott, Sojourner Truth and Harriet Beecher Stowe as well as lesser known individuals. With great importance given to Elijah Lovejoy, a native of Maine who came to Missouri in 1828 and later became the first martyr to a free press in America, the exhibit portrays the struggle between blacks and whites to achieve universal freedom in America.

"The Vigil" was produced in 1983 through the cooperation of the Des Peres Presbyterian Church and the Elijah Parish Lovejoy Society, an organization committed to the preservation of historic sites and traditions to commemorate the significance of the Lovejoy saga in the area. Others contributing include the Missouri Historical Society, the ALTON TELEGRAPH and the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR ALUMNI PHONE-A-THON

Faculty and staff members are asked to donate a few hours of their time to aid the Alumni and Development offices in the Renaissance Alumni Phone-a-Thon, scheduled today through May 7. To boost fund raising to a respectable level and to reestablish ties with alumni, the 14-day event will attempt to reach half of the college's 13,000 alumni. Faculty and staff volunteers are needed from 6:30-9 p.m. April 26 and 29. If you can donate a few hours of your time to this important and worthwhile event, call the Alumni or Development offices today and show your support!
