

COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FOUR, NUMBER SEVEN; SEPT. 10, 1985

THE PRESIDENT'S PREFACE . . .

One of the fascinating aspects of life at Lindenwood is the number of students who help finance their education by working while attending college. Among our adult students, who number about 1,500, nearly all hold jobs - most of them full-time positions. Most of our traditional-age college students, both residents and commuters, also work.

Recently, the director of our Work Service Office, Marigay Shelbe, conducted a very helpful seminar for supervisors of students who hold campus positions. This year, more than 200 students, representing about 75 percent of our resident population, will be holding jobs on campus. Their labors are important to the smooth functioning of the college. They'll be involved in labors as diverse as stocking shelves in the Bookstore, keeping ledger records for student tax funds in the residence halls, participating in the annual Alumni Phone-a-Thon, washing dishes in the cafeteria kitchen, assisting at the Post Office and serving in public relations functions. The money they earn is applied toward tuition and/or room rent. The experience they gain makes much of their class work more relevant and teaches them the dignity of work.

Lindenwood is proud of its developing work program. I encourage faculty, staff and students to give full cooperation to Ms. Shelbe as she administers this complex but vital part of life beneath the lindens.

NAMED MEN'S SOCCER COACH - Scott K. Westbrook of St. Louis has been named head coach of the men's soccer team, replacing Joe Olwig. With four seasons of professional experience, he has played with the Milwaukee Wave of the American Indoor Soccer Association; two seasons with the Tulsa Tornados/Oklahoma City Stampede, a former team of the United Soccer League; and with the Detroit Express of the American Soccer League.

A 1982 graduate of the University of Evansville (IN), Westbrook has had coaching experience with boy's teams and with professional soccer camps. A former two-time team captain at the University of Evansville, he was named "Rookie of the Year" for the Detroit Express in 1983, and was a second-round draft choice for the Wichita Wings in 1982.

The men's team has a 19-game season for the 1985-86 academic year, including 12 home games at Lindenwood Stadium.

"Linden Week Communique" is published each Tuesday morning during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9 am Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office, #6 Roemer Hall.

LINDENWOOD JOINS FOOTBALL BROADCASTS - As part of this year's marketing program, Lindenwood is cosponsoring pre-game broadcasts on KMOX-AM Radio of all away games of the St. Louis Football Cardinals. The 60-second commercials will appear in "Larry Wilson Show," which is aired several minutes before play-by-play action. Last year, the college cosponsored 10 games, become the first institution in the metro area to take part in KMOX's live broadcasts.

Spots can be heard on September 22 when the New York Giants host the Cardinals; on October 7 with the Washington Redskins, one of two Monday night games to be televised nationally; on October 20 with the Pittsburgh Steelers; on November 10 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; on November 17 with the Philadelphia Eagles; on Thanksgiving, November 28, with the Dallas Cowboys; and on December 15 with the Los Angeles Rams.

Commercials will feature two fathers discussing the benefits of a Lindenwood education for their children.

COLLEGE TO TAKE PART IN PRSA EVENT - Public Relations Director Randy L. Wallick, a member of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA), will discuss the college's public relations program when Lindenwood hosts 20 students during the PRSA's Pro-Am Day, October 9. Students from PRSA chapter schools will be visiting public relations departments and agencies in the metro area where they will find out about public relations programs and practitioners. This year's Pro-Am Day marks the first time the college has taken part in the educational/career opportunities program of the PRSA, the nation's professional association of public relations practitioners.

COMPETITION FOR ARTISTS - Art students and faculty members can compete for more than $7,500 in prize money in 12 separate shows being sponsored this year by the St. Louis Artists' Guild. Competitions will run October through July, 1986, with prizes ranging from $25 to $300 for both member and nonmember artists. Further information on competition eligibility as well as membership in the nearly 100-year-old organization can be obtained by calling the St. Artists' Guild at 961-1246.

BEQUEST TO AID ORGAN MAINTENANCE - A bequest of about $21,000 from the late Aimee Becker of St. Charles, an alumna, will be used for maintenance and repairs of the organ in Sibley Hall chapel or for the purchase of a new one. Miss Becker, who died last year at the age of 94, graduated from the Linden Wood Boarding School for Young Ladies in 1908, at a time when the college was a three-year prep school and a two-year liberal arts institution.

According to college officials, funds from her most recent gift will be kept in a trust, and the interest earnings applied to the principal until repairs or replacement are needed. Before her death, she created the Aimee Becker Scholarships, a fund that meets full four-year tuition costs for outstanding female students attending the college.

JOINS COMMUNICATIONS DEPT. FACULTY - Amy E. Hamill, former producer/director of the University of Georgia Television at the Georgia Center for Continuing Education in Athens, GA, has been named assistant professor of communications.

A 1980 graduate of Auburn University, she holds a master's degree in journalism, awarded in 1984 from the University of Georgia.

Prior to her position at the Georgia Center for Continuing Education, she was producer of "Georgia Issues and Opportunities" for WGTU-TV in Athens and Atlanta, and a teaching assistant at the University of Georgia. Hamill is a member of the Television Academy of Arts and Sciences.

ALL-COLLEGE READING LIST - This is the first year for the All-College Reading List. Each year, a number of books on diverse subjects will be selected which all members of the college community are encouraged to read and discuss, said Ann Canale, one of the organizers. Selections this year include Jerome Rothenberg's TECHNICIANS OF THE SACRED: A REANGE OF POETRIES FROM AFRICA, ASIA, EUROPE AND OCEANIA, 1985; E. F. Schumaker's SMALL IS BEAUTIFUL, 1976; and Lewis Thomas' THE LIVES OF A CELL: NOTES OF A BIOLOGY WATCHER.

"Selected lectures and discussions, as well as useage of books in courses, should make our private reading experience part of a shared understanding," Canale said. "Although the reading and related discussions are a college requirement, we should all encourage that this activity is an essential aspect of our common effort to be educated," she added. The campus Bookstore has copies of all books, and the library has copies available for a three-day loan.

In the fall, evaluation of the list will be requested along with recommendations for next year's list.

AAUP ELECTS OFFICERS - Newly-elected officers of the Lindenwood chapter of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) for 1985-86 are President Judy McMahon, assistant professor of psychology; Vice-President Edith Graber, chairman and associate professor of sociology; Treasurer Hans Levi, assistant professor of art; and Secretary Jack Kirk, LCIE faculty advisor in business administration.

REQUEST MADE FOR FILE CABINETS - The college needs file cabinets that are not being utilized in faculty and staff offices. Please check your offices for available file cabinets. If you're storing old files, these can be placed in corrugated file boxes available at the Bookstore or any office supply center. If you can spare a file cabinet, contact Carol Whitman, purchasing director, at extension 381.

LIBRARY INSTRUCTOR NAMED - Jean A. Taylor of Ballwin, a reference librarian Lindenwood since January, has been named instructor of library science. A 1966 graduate of Bradley University in Peoria, IL, she has a master's degree in library science, awarded from Rosary College in River Forest, IL, in 1969.

Prior to joining the Butler Memorial Library staff, she was a librarian at the St. Louis Public Library. She also has served in library positions at the Kenton County Public Library in Erlanger, KY; at the University of Cincinnati; at Nazareth College in Rochester, NY; at Westchester Community College in Valhalla, NY; at Indiana University in Bloomington, IN; and at the Chicago Public Library.

PHOTO EXHIBIT IN YOUNG GALLERY - A collection of more than 20 black-and-white photos produced by beginning and intermediate students is on display now through September 30 at the Young Showcase Gallery on the first floor of Young Hall. Open to all without charge, the exhibit can be viewed from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. weekdays.

RELIGIOUS LIFE COUNCIL MEETINGS - The Religious Life Council, an interfaith campus organization representing students from various religious backgrounds, invites members of the college community to participate in its planning and programming. Meetings are held each Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. in the first-floor lounge of McCluer Hall. Further information can be obtained from the Rev. George Wilcox or Audrey Meyer in the CAP Center.

COLLEGE RECEIVES ENERGY GRANT - The Missouri Dept. of Natural Resources has awarded a $102,000 energy grant to Lindenwood for renovation of underground steam lines and expansion joints on campus. When completed in early 1986, estimated savings in natural gas costs for heating campus facilities will be nearly $50,000 annually, according to Wayne Daugherty, special projects coordinator.

The state grant, made possible through the U.S. Dept. of Energy, is a matching one, meaning Lindenwood will earmark $51,000 with in-house labor for the project. "Nearly 7,000 feet of underground piping will be renovated, affecting all 24 structures on campus," Daugherty said. Construction will begin September 23, with a completion date set for January, 1986. The $102,000 grant from the state is another cycle in an energy conservation program started by the college.

SECRETARIAL POSITION AVAILABLE - An employment position exists as secretary to the Vice-President of Administration. For a job description and application procedures, contact Jerry Rufkahr at extension 207.

AEROBIC EXERCISE SESSIONS - Students, faculty and staff are welcome to participate in aerobic sessions conducted weekly in Cobbs Hall Lounge. Sessions begin at 11:30 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday; at 8 p.m. Monday; and at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. For further information, contact Jane Henthorn, R.N., at the Student Health Center, extension 270.

CHAPLAIN'S OFFICE HOURS - The Rev. George Wilcox, interfaith campus chaplain, will be in his office in the CAP Center from 3-5 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. Students are invited to drop by, and no appointment is necessary. For other times when the chaplain is available, contact the CAP Center.
