EDUCATION ENROLLMENT INCREASE - Lindenwood's graduate program in education has shown nearly a 50% increase in enrollment this semester as compared to last fall's. Currently, there are 105 students in the master's program, with 78 taking classes this semester, reports Gene M. Henderson, Ed.D., department chairman and director of graduate programs. A breakdown of graduate students shows most are from St. Charles County schools as well as districts in Franklin, Jefferson, Lincoln, St. Louis and Warren counties. Henderson attributed the increases in graduate enrollment to Lindenwood's scholarship assistance and tuition reduction programs for teachers and to the college's recent accreditation by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education for its graduate programs as well as its undergraduate degrees.

COEDS SOUGHT FOR NATIONAL CONTEST - Lindenwood coeds are invited to participate in the 1986 Top Ten College Women Competition, a national contest sponsored by GLAMOUR Magazine to select 10 outstanding female students at college and university campuses. A panel of magazine editors will select the winners on the basis of their records of academic achievement and their participation in extracurricular activities either on campus or in the community.

The top 10 coeds will be featured in the August, 1986, issue of GLAMOUR. In addition to media exposure, they will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to New York City next year to participate in meetings with professionals in their areas of interest or education.

This is the fourth year that the college has participated in the national competition with the submissions of outstanding Lindenwood female students. For further information on the contest, contact the Public Relations Office, 6 Roemer, or call extension 383.

YOUNG ADULT FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM - St. Charles Presbyterian Church invites all interested Lindenwood students to participate in its Young Adult Fellowship Program. Upcoming events include a hayride on October 12, a Halloween party October 19 and a Nostalgic Game Night on November 16. Interested? Then, give the Rev. George Wilcox a call in the CAP Center for more information.

RESERVATIONS NEEDED BY TOMORROW - Faculty and staff members planning to attend the Alumni Reunion Picnic October 18 at 6 p.m. on campus should confirm their reservations by Wednesday. Call Esther Fenning, extension 317 if you're going attend. The picnic will include musical entertainment and a hayride following dinner. Through the generosity of the LSG, there is no charge for faculty and staff members; spouses and guests can obtain tickets for $9.50 each by contacting Fenning.

LINDENWOOD TO TAKE PART IN COLLEGE FAIR - Lindenwood will be among area institutions participating in the St. Louis College Fair, October 13-14 at St. Louis Community College at Forest Park. Sponsored by the National Association of College Admissions Counselors in cooperation with the state chapter, the event will be held in the Education Bldg., 5600 Oakland Ave., from 1-5 p.m. Sunday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday. More than 175 colleges and universities will be represented to provide admissions, curriculum and financial aid information. Admissions Counselors Paul Boschert, Barry Freese, Rebecca Stauffer, Susan Thomas and Bill Wright will be in attendance to provide information about educational opportunities at Lindenwood.

CAP CENTER JOB OPENING - The CAP Center has an immediate opening for a full-time, 12-month position as Coordinator of Work Programs, Internships and Placement. Responsibilities include working closely with faculty, administrators, alumni and area employers; organizing career panels, presentations and recruiting events; and facilitating career preparatory workshops. The position also requires maintaining a part-time jobs listing and coordinating student placement within on and off-campus positions, plus arranging internships. If you are interested in applying, or if you like to recommend someone, contact Joann Massmann at the CAP Center, extension 237, no later than October 14.

FOR WORK/SERVICE, WORK/STUDY QUESTIONS - Until further notice, students having questions about work/service and work/study programs should contact Larry Sackman, director of financial aid. This includes turning in all student time sheets to his office on regularly-scheduled dates. Students interested in part-time positions should contact the CAP Center - jobs will no longer be displayed around campus and will be posted only on the CAP Center's two bulletin boards. Also, if you're interested in miscellaneous jobs such as babysitting, typing, yard work, etc., contact the "On-Call" Job Pool Registration Card in the CAP Center.

SPECIAL LUNCH PROGRAM - Kerry Haynie, an intern for the Presbyterian Church Volunteer in Mission Program, will speak about nationwide volunteer mission opportunities designed especially for college students. The presentation, open to all, will be at noon October 18 in the Sunshine Room of Ayres. Bring your lunch tray and discover some adventuresome alternatives for your next summer vacation!
