

Linden Weekly COMMUNIQUÉ

VOL. FOUR, NO. 14; OCT. 29, 1985

TWO EXECUTIVES ELECTED TO BOARD - Richard L. Battram, vice-president of the May Department Stores Co., and Clayton Wilhite, chairman of D'Arcy MacManus Masius, have been elected to the Lindenwood College Board of Directors.

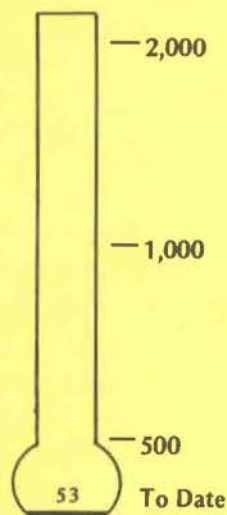

A graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis, Battram formerly was president and chief executive officer of Famous-Barr in St. Louis before being named to the May position in 1984. Active in his community and profession, he serves on a number of boards, including the Arts and Education Council, the Regional Commerce and Growth Association, St. Louis Children's Hospital and the St. Louis Symphony. He and his wife, Patricia, have three sons and are residents of St. Louis County.

A 1967 graduate of the University of Michigan, Wilhite played football for the the Wolverines and in the 1965 Rose Bowl. He became D'Arcy MacManus Masius' top executive in St. Louis earlier this year after serving as marketing director for Young and Rubicam-London. He took a leave of absence from the advertising industry in 1976 to serve as an executive in President Gerald R. Ford's reelection campaign. Wilhite is a member of the Media Club, the Civic Entrepreneurs and the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis. He and his wife, Ann, are residents of St. Louis County.

FULL-HOUSE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM

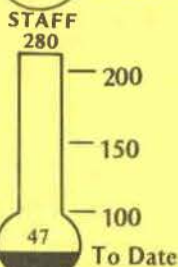

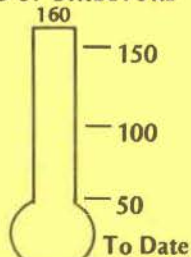

WEEKLY REPORT OF PROGRAMS

TOTAL COLLEGE GOAL
2,460 REFERRALS

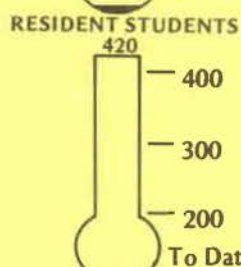

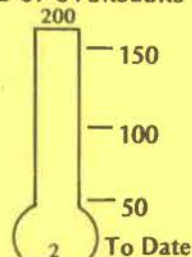

GOALS BY DIVISION

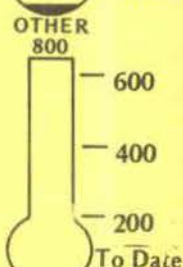

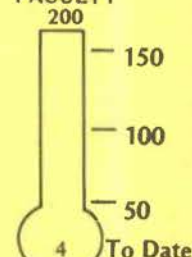

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BOARD OF OVERSEERS

FACULTY

MIDWEST PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION - Lindenwood is one of four locations in the country that will present the Midwest Photography Exhibition, representing 37 photographers from the Midwest Region of the Society for Photographic Education. The exhibit will be shown November 6-December 6 at the Hendren Gallery in the FAB. Hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 1-4 p.m. on weekends. A reception is scheduled from 2-4 p.m. November 10 at the gallery. The exhibit and the reception are open to all faculty, staff and students without charge.

COLLEGE RECEIVES STATE GRANT - Lindenwood has received a $22,440 grant from the Missouri Coordinating Board of Higher Education to offer workshops designed to help improve math and science instruction for area elementary and secondary education teachers. Workshops will be available to teachers from public and private school districts in Franklin, Lincoln, St. Charles and Warren counties. The grant will be used to pay tuition costs for the estimated 400 teachers attending the workshops, each of whom will receive one semester hour of graduate credit upon completion of the program. Instrumental in securing the funding for the four-county area was Gene M. Henderson, chairman of the Education Dept., who developed the program approved by the Coordinating Board and funded by the U.S. Dept. of Education.

COLLEGE TO TREAT YOUNG TRICKSTERS - Lindenwood's Irwin Hall will be transformed into a haunted Halloween House Thursday from 6-8 p.m. As a free gift to the community, the Halloween House will feature plenty of spooks as well as a contest for the best costume, tricks and treats, games, prizes and refreshments. Further information on this Halloween activity can be obtained from Marilyn Morris at extension 222.

COMMUTER STUDENTS GAIN VICTORY - Commuter students secured a first-place finish in the recent Crazy Olympics held at the Stadium. Second place was won by the combined efforts of McCluer, Irwin and Cobbs halls, while third-place was won by Parker Hall. Gain fourth and last was faculty/staff (ho-hum). Events included a wheel barrow race, straw throw, baseball bat relay, three-legged race, a pass-the-apple contest and a pig-calling event. When asked about the Crazy Olympics, Dean Allen Schwab replied he enjoyed it. "The baseball bat relay was fun. I enjoyed running around in circles and getting dizzy. This is great out-of-classroom fun!" he said.

HEALTH AWARENESS WEEK - The Office of Programs and Residences is sponsoring a variety of activities now through November 1 as part of Health Awareness Week. There will be aerobics offered throughout the week at various times; a session on stress management; a discussion on nutrition and proper diet; a performance by the 4,5,6 Speed Up Environmental Dance Group, free blood pressure checks and a one-mile Fun Run. For details, times and locations, contact Marilyn Morris at extension 222.

'LINDENWOOD FUN RUN' - As part of Health Awareness Week on campus, the college's Office of Programs and Residences is sponsoring a one-mile "Lindenwood Fun Run" on campus this Saturday. Trophies will be awarded to the top finishers and ribbons will be presented to all participants. The run begins at 5:30 p.m. For further details and registration forms, contact Marilyn Morris in Niccolls Hall, or call her at extension 222.

PART-TIME TEMPORARY POSITIONS AVAILABLE - Famous-Barr Co. is accepting job applications for day, evening or weekend schedules for part-time positions during the Christmas season. If you are interested, contact Joann Massmann at the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall, extension 237.

NEW ACQUISITIONS AT BUTLER LIBRARY - Newly-acquired government documents at Butler Memorial Library include FACTS ABOUT SEXUAL ASSAULT: A RESEARCH REPORT FOR TEENAGERS, COCAINE USE IN AMERICA: EPIDEMIOLOGIC AND CLINICAL PERSPECTIVES and THE TRADITIONALLY BLACK INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING 1860-1982.

McCLUER'S HALLOWEEN BASH - McCluer Hall's first floor lounge will be the site for a Halloween Bash, Friday from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. The event will include a costume contest and prizes, a disc jockey and music and refreshments. Admission is $2 or $1 with a costume, and all students must have a Lindenwood identification card.

STUDENT NEWSPAPER REORGANIZED - The Lindenwood Student Government (LSG) is soliciting applications for key positions on the student newspaper staff, including editor, business manager, layout editor and other administrative positions. Students holding top management positions may earn work-study hours. Those interested in applying should send a brief outline of their professional qualifications to Chris Cordes at Box 740 or Nan Siemer at Box 565. A reorganizational staff meeting will be conducted by the newspaper's advisors Thursday at noon in the Legacy Room of Ayres Cafeteria. Applications for all staff positions are due by November 4.

DANCE GROUP TO PERFORM FRIDAY - "4,5,6, Speed-Up," an environmental dance group from Lawrence, KS, will perform free concerts Friday at Lindenwood. The first is scheduled at noon in Ayres Cafeteria and the second at 7 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. Under the artistic direction of Joan Stone, the six-member group combines art, dance and music to create a variety of techniques, including modern, ballet, folk and soft shoe dancing. The group has performed throughout the United States as well as Italy and Switzerland, and it has received outstanding reviews since it was established in 1982.

CHRISTMAS WALK CHAIRPERSON NAMED - Lynne M. Landholt, assistant director of development for the annual fund, has been appointed chairperson of this year's Annual Christmas Walk, slated from 4-6 p.m. December 8 on campus. Landholt will chair a committee of faculty, staff and student representatives who will plan this year's event, a holiday gift to the community that is becoming a tradition on campus. Attracting nearly 500 visitors to campus, the past two Christmas Walks have featured entertainment and attractions for the whole family amidst a festively-dekcorated campus.

LINDENWOOD FILM SERIES

FALL 1985

ADVENTURE DAY

Sun. Nov. 3 RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK
Cast: Harrison Ford, Karen Allen, Paul Freeman
Director: Steven Spielberg

Indies struggle to keep the Lost Ark out of Nazi hands is an adventure that will leave you breathless, the cliff hanging action the tender romance, and the devil-may-care spontaneity of this memorable movie touches the wide eyed child in all of us. Raiders is the winner of 5 academy awards. PG (118 min.)

Sun. Nov. 3 INDIANA JONES AND THE TEMPLE OF DOOM
Cast: Harrison Ford, Kate Capshaw, Kelley Quan
Director: Steven Spielberg

In this exhilarating sequel to Spielbergs block-buster hit, Indie must penetrate the home base of a devil worshipping cult in order to retrieve a sacred stone and rescue all the children of a Himalayan village. Packed with almost unbearable excitement, Indiana Jones is one of the most impressive achievements in the history of adventure films. PG (118 min.)

WESTERN DAY

Sun. Nov. 17 THE MAN WHO SHOT LIBERTY VALANCE
1962

1962
Cast: John Wayne, James Stewart, Lee Marvin
Director: John Ford

B/W James Stewart plays the bungling eastern lawyer who's determined to rid the village of Shinbone of its number one nuisance, Liberty Valance, in this famous John Ford film that explores the relationship of myth and legend to reality. A beautifully acted and directed tale of loyalty and morality, this is the modern western to beat all westerns. G (122 min.)

Sun. Nov. 17 HIGH NOON
1952

Cast: Gary Cooper, Thomas Mitchell, Grace Kelly, Lloyd Bridges
Director: Fred Zimmerman

Gary Cooper won an academy award for his performance as a small town sheriff who, on the day of his wedding and scheduled retirement, learns that a criminal he convicted will be returning on the noon train for revenge. This landmark western won four Oscars. G (84 min.)

Sun. Dec. 8 A CHRISTMAS CAROL
B/W 1951

Cast: Alastair Sim, Kathleen Harrison, Jack Warner, Michael Hordern, Merylyn Johns, Hermoine Baddeley
Director: Desmond Hurst

This Classic British adaption stars Alastair Sim as Scrooge, whose misanthropic glare is reversed only after he has confronted the ghost of the present, future and past. G (86 min.)

All Showings-8:00 PM
Niccolls Hall
General Admission:$1.00
Free to Lindenwood Students

Sponsored by the Lindenwood Student Government (LSG)

For more information call 946-6912

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Linden Week Communique" is published each Tuesday morning during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9 am Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office, #6 Roemer Hall.