

Linden  Weekly
COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FOUR, NO. 15; NOV. 5, 1985

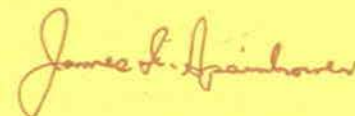

PLEASE TURN YOUR NOMINATION AND PROSPECT FORMS IN THIS WEEK FOR THE FULL-HOUSE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM. WEEKLY PROGRESS REPORTS FOR ALL DIVISIONS WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK IN THE 'LINDEN WEEKLY COMMUNIQUE.'

'THE PRESIDENT'S PREFACE' - Our Full-House Residential Program is in full gear, and I am pleased with the positive results of so many. It is important to remember two things - first, evidence of good results from the program will emerge slowly. The logistics of getting participants to submit lists of nominators, preparing letters to nominators and awaiting the response of nominators are involved and time-consuming. Second, widespread involvement by a majority of faculty, staff, students and members of our governing boards is essential. If you who are reading these words have not turned in your list of nominators (those to receive a personal letter from you), please do so at once!

A special message to our current students - We need your help to make a success of the Full-House Residential Program. In almost every college, students are the best source of referrals. Students now attending Lindenwood are in the best position to know who among their friends is looking for a good college. Please share the names of those prospective students with us, and we'll contact them about Lindenwood.

Finally, let me emphasize how important it is to implement this Full-House Residential Program now. We need the names of prospective students this fall so our admissions counselors can begin now to sort out those who have a bonafied interest in attending Lindenwood College.

The college does appreciate your assistance!

ST. CHARLES CAMPAIGN BEGINS - The "St. Charles-Lindenwood Partnership Program" is the title of Lindenwood's fund-raising campaign to generate $75,000 in cash and contributions within the next two months. Chairman of the local campaign is Henry J. Elmendorf, secretary-treasurer of Jim Meagher Motor Co. and a member of the board of directors.

Two highlights of this year's campaign are an Appreciation Night December 11, featuring the Madrigals, and the Sibley Medallion of Honor Dinner March 14. The appreciation affair will honor those who have contributed $160 or more to the campaign, while the March 14th event will cite an outstanding area citizen whose generosity to the community has created a close friendship with the college. Last year, $55,000 was generated from the St. Charles Community as part of Lindenwood's $10 million Renaissance Campaign.

ELECTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS - Larry G. Kelley, chief executive officer and president of Commerce Bank of St. Charles County, has been elected as an ex officio member of the Lindenwood College Board of Directors. Kelley also serves as chairman of the Lindenwood College Board of Overseers, a community body to the board of directors. The appointment is designed to increase cooperation and communication between the two governing bodies.

'THANKS' FOR YOUR SUPPORT - A "special thanks" to those faculty and staff employees who participated in this year's United Way Campaign at Lindenwood. Although the college fell slightly short of reaching its $2,500 goal, it raised $2,161 from 50 employees, a feat that enabled the United Way of Greater St. Louis to attain its 1985 goal of $35 million. "Your support is appreciated sincerely," said Randy L. Wallick, Lindenwood campaign director, "and it will help to secure more than $1 million for nearly 20 service agencies in St. Charles County."

The winner of the $25 gift from Dr. and Mrs. Spainhower is Vona Quackenbush, computer operator. Her name was drawn by Spainhower from among those contributing $24 or more to this year's United Way Campaign.

FALL CONCERT SCHEDULED - The Lindenwood College Women's Ensemble will present its fall concert on November 24 beginning at 4 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. The concert, which will present a variety of works by such artists as Brahms, Schumann and Brent Pierce, is open to all faculty, staff and students as well as the public without charge.

PRESIDENT TO MC AWARDS DINNER - James I. Spainhower will serve as master of ceremonies at the Annual Awards Dinner of the St. Louis Chapter of the National Society of Fund-Raising Executives (NSFRE), slated November 14 at the Marriot Pavilion Hotel in St. Louis. The ceremony will honor community, civic and business leaders for their fund-raising and volunteer activities. Affiliated with the Washington, DC-based NSFRE, the St. Louis chapter is comprised of professional fund-raising executives.

SENIOR PICTURE WEEK - Seniors graduating in December, next May or next summer who want to be included in the 1985-86 yearbook must have their photos taken November 18-22 at Gallery Photography, 1355 S. 5th, St. Charles. Appointments can be scheduled by calling 946-6629. The LSG is paying session fees, so there will be no charge to seniors unless they want extra photos. Don't miss your opportunity to be in the college yearbook!

For undergraduates - photo retake day is November 12 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Cafeteria. Retake day is for those undergraduates who are dissatisfied with their original proofs or for those who have not been photographed.

BOARD MEMBER HONORED - Gary L. Cowger, former general manager of the GM Assembly Division Plant in Wentzville, was honored recently by college, civic and community leaders for his service to the community, including his tenure on the Lindenwood College Board of Directors. Cowger, who recently was promoted to preside over three GM plants near Lordstown, OH, will continue to serve on the board of directors.

NOMINATED TO STATE ETHICS COMMITTEE - Nancy P. Fleming, assistant professor of music, has been nominated to the Ethics Committee of the Missouri Association Departments and Schools of Music. The committee works to maintain standards established by the National Association of Schools of Music and serves as a mediator in matters of dispute between schools throughout the state. Fleming, who is completing work on a musical arts doctorate degree, also serves as director of the Lindenwood Women's Ensemble and Madrigals.
