

Linden  Weekly
COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FOUR, NO. 16; NOV. 12, 1985

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE . . . - The holidays are coming! Thanksgiving, Christmas, Hanukkah and New Year's Day are upon us. I'm looking forward to the observances that accompany these important events.

Plans are under way to decorate the campus on December 2. Lynne Landholt chairs a committee that is planning our annual Christmas Walk from 4-6 p.m. on Sunday, December 8. The Salvation Army will use one of our beautiful evergreens at the corner of First Capitol and Kingshighway for its Tree of Lights for the needy. The St. Charles Kiwanis Club, in conjunction with the college, will be erecting a Christmas creche near the Tree of Lights in early December. Nancy Fleming and the Lindenwood Chamber Singers are hard at work on the annual Elizabethan Festival scheduled for several evenings in early December. Bruce Longworth and the Performing Arts Dept. are in rehearsal for their holiday production, "The Magic Galoshes," a play for kids of all ages written by Suzanne Mills, a member of our faculty.

And, as a gift from a grateful college to a wonderful group of employees, all college operations will shut down Friday, December 20, at 5 p.m. to Monday morning, December 30. The college also will close for New Year's Day but will be open the other days of the week.

Another change this year, instead of a Holiday Party for all employees, the college is allocating $2.50 per employee to various divisions of the college to hold their own parties Friday, December 20, between 3-5 p.m.

Let me make a special appeal for all faculty members, staff and administrative employees to attend the Christmas Walk on Sunday afternoon, December 8. This will be the third year for the walk, and those who have participated in the past have had a wonderful experience.

Happy Holidays!

'A NEW TWIST' - The Performing Arts Dept. in conjunction with the Education Dept. is presenting "A New Twist" as part of the Springboard/Headstart program. "A New Twist" is an entertaining play that attempts to teach children the importance of reading. This delightful show will be presented today, tomorrow and November 18 at 10 a.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. The show runs about 35 minutes. Admission is free, and faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

COUPON BOOKS ON SALE - Gold C Coupon books are on sale for $7 each from LSG members and at the Bookstore. The books contain a variety of discounts on goods and services.

MOTLEY SCHOLARSHIPS CREATED - As a means of strengthening its residential population, Lindenwood is offering two Guy C. Motley Scholarships next fall to outstanding students nominated by friends of the college. Each worth $30,000 during the next four years, the scholarships are the most lucrative and distinguished offered by Lindenwood and cover the full cost of tuition as well as total room and board.

The two awards are named in honor of Motley, a former director of admissions, vice-president of the college and chairman of an administrative committee that presided over Lindenwood operations from 1946-47. In announcing the creation of the awards, President James I. Spainhower said, "Motley's advocacy for a strong residential college and his concern for students merit that Lindenwood's most distinguished awards be named in his honor. These awards will be presented on the basis of academic record, leadership, personal achievement and character. Competition for these two scholarships is by invitation only," he said.

Nationally, the college is soliciting the names of outstanding students who would be eligible for the Motley scholarships from among selected alumni, high school administrators and guidance counselors, clergy, civic and business leaders and friends of the college.

Faculty and staff members who would like to nominate names of students, or who would like to find out more about these full-cost awards, should contact either Admissions or Financial Aid.

NOVEMBER 23RD CONCERT - One of the leading flute and guitar duos today, Susanella Noble and Charles Wolzien, will perform in concert November 23 at 8 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. Lindenwood students will be admitted free, while admission for others is $3 for adults and $2.50 for students and senior citizens.

The duo's unique and varied repertoire includes contemporary pieces written especially for them, their own arrangements of music by composers such as Bach and Vivaldi and such seldom heard repertoire of 19th-century composer Mauro Giuliani. Receiving wide acclaim since its formation in 1977, the duo has delighted and entertained audiences across the United States and Canada.

BROADCASTING SCHOLARSHIPS - The St. Louis Chapter of the National Association of Television Arts and Sciences announces the Walter Cronkite Scholarships are available for the fall, 1986, term. One award of $2,500 and two of $750 each will be presented to a full-time graduate or undergraduate student, majoring in broadcasting. Selection is based upon academic excellence, interest in television as a career, personal character and integrity, demonstrated potential in television and financial need. The awards are open to any college or university in which a faculty member is a member of the St. Louis chapter. Peter Carlos, LCIE faculty advisor, is the college's representative, meaning competition is open to Lindenwood students. Further information and applications for the Walter Cronkite Scholarships can be obtained from Carlos in the LCIE/Evening College Office, 108 Roemer Hall.

ELECTED TO BOARD OF OVERSEERS - Gary N. Shaw, a vice-president of E.F. Hutton and Co., Inc., and branch manager of its St. Charles office for the past five years, has been elected to the college's board of overseers. A graduate of Iowa Wesleyan College, Shaw has been with Hutton since 1975, previously serving as manager of the St. Louis office. Active in the community, he is a member of the St. Charles YMCA, St. Charles Boy's Club, the United Services and Missouri K.I.D.S. as well as Iowa Wesleyan.

FALL CONCERT SCHEDULED - The Lindenwood College Women's Ensemble will present its fall concert on November 24, beginning at 4 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. Under the direction of Nancy P. Fleming, the concert will present a variety of works by such artists as Brahms, Schumann and Brent Piece. It is open to Lindenwood students, faculty and staff as well as the general public without charge.

NEW LIBRARY ACQUISITIONS - Among new government documents received recently at Butler Memorial Library are WORLD MILITARY EXPENDITURES AND ARMS TRANSFERS-1985, PRENATAL DRUG EXPOSURE: KINETICS AND DYNAMICS, NINETEEN EIGHTY-FOUR by George Orwell and YOUNG AMERICA IN THE NEW WORLD by Hubert M. Humphrey.

FACULTY, STAFF DISCOUNTS FOR MADRIGALS - The 1985 Madrigal Dinner Elizabethan Feasts will be held December 6-7 and 13-14 in the MAB. The cost is $22 per person, but faculty and staff are eligible for a discounted price of $15 per person for the evening of December 6. Contact the Box Office, extension 252, between noon and 5 p.m. daily for reservations.

BOOK GIVEAWAY NOVEMBER 14-17 - Butler Memorial Library will hold a book giveaway November 14-17. Stop by and grab some literary stocking stuffers for the Christmas holidays!

ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWS - Limited Express will be conducting interviews for manager trainees for its apparel management program on November 19. Students should bring a copy of their resume.

The following day, November 20, K-Mart Apparel Corp. will be conducting interviews for its apparel management program. Interested students who will graduate in December with a business or liberal arts major and who have a 2.5 GPA or better are urged to attend the recruiting session. Students should bring a copy of their resume and transcripts.

Ever-Green Lawns will be interviewing November 21 for its management trainee program in the areas of sales, production, office management and data processing. Interested students should bring a copy of their resume.

On-campus recruiting is an excellent opportunity to improve your interviewing skills and possibly to secure a position with a growing organization. Five other colleges will be participating with Lindenwood. Call Joann Massmann at the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall, extension 237, to register for an appointment as soon as possible.

ST. LOUIS MARATHON THIS SUNDAY - Barnes Hospital is sponsoring the 26.2 mile St. Louis Marathon November 17, and Lindenwood students and employees are invited to participate by coming out to cheer on the runners or to join in marathon festivities. A special viewing area for spectators will be in front of the Barnes complex at the corner of Clayton and Euclid avenues. Free parking and shuttle service are available. Festivities, including music, food and drink, begin at 8:30 a.m. Further information on this 14th annual event can be obtained by calling Barnes Hospital's Marketing Dept. at 362-1060 or the St. Louis Track Club at 862-7582.

REQUIRED FRESHMEN WORKSHOP - If you haven't registered for one of the last three workshops on "Career Development and Adjusting to College," call Joann Massmann in the CAP Center, extension 237, immediately. The last workshop is November 18.
