

Linden  Weekly
COMMUNIQUÉ

VOL. FOUR, NO. 17; NOV. 19, 1985

A MESSAGE FROM THE OFFICE OF COLLEGE LIFE - The rapid approach of the holidays and examinations is a forked reminder that we are beginning a time of special academic and personal stress. If what helps to distinguish us as a relatively small, close-knit learning community is our sense of caring and concern for those around us, it follows that the weeks ahead may help to define how well we do so.

As the term ends, if you sense that a friend, a colleague, a member of one of your classes or of your organization is having an especially difficult time and might like a third-person invitation to talk, I hope you won't hesitate to call me (extension 230). I or a member of my staff will follow up your suggestion, keeping what referral information you provide in confidence and/or anonymous, if that's your preference.

On behalf of the College Life staff, let me share our best holiday wishes to you and your families. May the New Year prove a growthful and rewarding one all.

Allen Schwab

JA JOB OPPORTUNITIES - Volunteers are needed to conduct economic awareness programs for 5th and 6th-grade students at Hardin Middle School in St. Charles. A kit is provided by Junior Achievement which includes materials and information needed to conduct the program. More information on these positions can be obtained from Joann Massmann at the CAP Center, extension 237. Voluntary work experience listed on a resume can be as valuable as paid positions. Education majors interested in the JA positions also should contact Gene M. Henderson.

GET SOME HELP FOR FINALS! - Students who have worries or questions about final exams may benefit from "How To Study for Finals," a workshop sponsored December 3 by peer tutors. Two sessions will be offered - from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in Ayres Cafeteria and again from 6-7 p.m. in Young Hall Lounge. Tips will be provided on "getting your act together," study groups, objective and essay exams, what to expect from professors and "your worries over finals."

PEER TUTORS SOUGHT - The CAP Center's Academic Assistance Program is looking for students who want to be peer tutors next semester. Peer tutors help other students to improve their study skills and to be more successful in classes. Work of peer tutors can be credited toward work-service or work-study credit. Students also can receive cash. Among those needed are students who can tutor in History 100, composition, math, data processing and science. Past and present tutors have found that the position not only gives them the satisfaction of helping their fellow students but also helps them in their own course work. If your interested, call extension 316 or drop by the CAP Center and request an application.

SPRING INTERNSHIPS IN CLAYTON - A Clayton firm is looking for recent graduates or juniors or seniors willing to work in full-time, paid internships during the spring semester. This public relations firm is looking for bright, enthusiastic people with good basic writing and communication skills to work with major clients in the St. Louis area. Interested? Then see Joann Massmann at the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall. Application deadline is December 6.

ELECTED TO BOARD OF OVERSEERS - David C. Baue, owner of the Baue Funeral Home Co. in St. Charles and Baue-Davis Funeral Home in O'Fallon, has been elected to the college's board of overseers. A 1956 graduate of Westminster College, he graduated from the Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science the following year. A former president of the Missouri Funeral Directors Association, Baue is chairman of the Missouri State Board of Embalmers and Funeral Directors and director of education for the National Foundation of Funeral Service. Community active, he is a member of the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club and is former chairman of the St. Charles Community Council and United Fund Campaign. His appointment is for a three-year term on the 26-member Lindenwood College Board of Overseers, a community organization to the board of directors.

ADVENT VESPER SERVICE DECEMBER 1 - The Lindenwood College Religious Life Council is sponsoring an Advent Vesper Service, "From Darkness into Light," on Sunday, December 1, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Lindenwood College Chapel of St. Charles Presbyterian Church adjacent to campus. The service will be based on lessons and carols for the Advent season. A reception will follow. All members of the Lindenwood College community as well as the general public are invited to attend this festive occasion.

PART-TIME ATHLETIC DIRECTOR'S POSITION - Lindenwood announces a staff vacancy for Athletic Director, approximately a 1/5-time position as a member of the College Life staff, reporting directly to the dean. The Athletic Director must implement and oversee the college's athletic program: intercollegiate, intramural and recreational sports; participate in the formation of short and long-range policy; and serve as a representative of the program, explaining its place within the educational goals of the college.

He/she must prepare and administer the annual athletic budget; make recommendations for athletic grants; evaluate and assist in the hiring of coaches; administer and implement regulations of the NAIA as well as monitor compliance; and arrange for the location and scheduling of games, transportation and officials. Applications should be sent to Allen Schwab, dean of College Life, 107 Roemer Hall, by November 26.

'THE MAGIC GALOSHES' - Remember what it was like to be a kid, lost, scared and unsure of what was going to happen next? Remember the thrills, chills and excitement of letting your imagination run wild. Remember those secret friends and places no one would believe? If you can relate to any of these, or have a little one who can, "The Magic Galoshes" is the show to see. It's an adventure story of two young girls and a most fascinating alternate universe playing right here in Jelkyl Theatre November 19-23 and December 5-7 at 8 p.m. and November 23-24 and December 7 at both 2 and 8 p.m. Students can get in free with a I.D., while discounts are available for faculty and staff. Children are admitted for $3. Don't miss it!

FOR STUDENTS ONLY - Lindenwood students are invited to attend the final dress rehearsal of the Chamber Singers' renowned Elizabethan Holiday Feast. The performance includes music, dancing, a new script with a comic twist and even a duel. Refreshments will be served. All students are encouraged to take advantage of the opportunity to see this lavish entertainment without having to pay $22 for tickets. The dress rehearsal begins at 7 p.m., December 4 in the MAB, and it is open to students only.

SINGERS NEEDED FOR SPRING SEMESTER - Openings for sopranos, altos, tenors and bases in the Chamber Singers and Women's Ensemble are available next semester. All interested students are encouraged to plan now to be a part of one of these exciting performing groups. Director Nancy Fleming has chosen a wide range of interesting music, and both groups will make a number of appearances in the community and on campus. The Women's Ensemble is Music 110 and carries two credits; the Chamber Singers is Music 111 and carries from 1-3 credits. (Painless) auditions will be held during registration and the first day or two of classes in January. No preparation is required. For more information, contact Fleming at extension 246.

ON-CAMPUS PR INTERNSHIPS - Once again, the college's Public Relations Office is offering an internship program of up to six hours of academic credit next spring. Students interested in the program should be communications majors of upper-class standing. They also should have excellent written and verbal communicative skills, be willing to accept responsibilities and adhere to deadlines and have the capabilities to best exemplify the college and its ongoing public relations pursuits. If you interested in finding out more about the PR Office internship, contact Randy L. Wallick at 6 Roemer Hall.

Yoga

For Supreme Physical-Mental Wellness and Performance

Cobbs Lounge
Tuesday, November 19, 1985
4 PM

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| --Moderate effective exercise | --Depth relaxation |
| --Stress management techniques | --Improved breathing |
| --Increased energy and will-power | --Reduced learning anxieties |
| --Greater concentration and awareness | --High-level wellness |

Taught by Richard Rickert, LCIE Faculty
(Member, Himalayan International Institute of Yoga)

Sponsored by Office of Programs and Residences

Additional sessions on Tuesdays, Dec. 3 and 10, 4 PM

Wear exercise togs, bring mat and pillow

NO NEWSLETTER NEXT WEEK - Because of the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, the "Linden Weekly Communique" will not be published November 26. Publication will resume the following Tuesday, December 3. The deadline for submission of editorial copy for the next "Communique" is by 9 a.m. December 2.

TO: Faculty and Staff
FROM: James I. Spainhower
RE: Christmas Walk Decorating Day
DATE: Nov. 19, 1985

In order to make this year's third Annual Christmas Walk a success, I am designating Wednesday, December 4, as "Decorating Day" on campus. All faculty and staff members are invited and encouraged to help decorate the campus, and I urge all supervisors to allow employees additional time during the day so they may participate.

The areas listed below are those which require decorations. Please check the areas you're interested in and return this form to Marilyn Morris at Box 737. Decorations will be provided by the college.

The Christmas Walk is an annual event at Lindenwood designed as our gift to the community. Under the direction of Lynne Landholt, chairperson of this year's Christmas Walk Committee, many new and special events are planned for December 8, including free performances by Bob Kramer's Marionettes. In order to maintain the spirit of the holiday season, we need participation from all campus departments and offices. Please plan to join in the spirit of the holidays by helping to decorate the campus.

Help is needed with the following items:

- General assistance - helping to hang lights, wreaths, garland, etc.
- Assist students in residence halls
- Help to make luminarios for walkways
- Assist day students in Niccolls' Student Center
- Help to decorate Sibley Hall Parlor
- Help to decorate office doors

If you are interested in assisting with any of the above on December 4, please check your preference and return this form to Marilyn Morris, Campus Box #737.

Name _____ Department _____ Extension _____

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

The "Linden Weekly Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office, #6 Roemer Hall.