NUMBER 7

DR. JOHN OLERT TO SPEAK FOR RLW

Two Notables To Visit LC Mon., Feb. 23

Edouard Van Remoortel, 32 year old Belgian conductor of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, and Charlotte Nolan, Mammy Yokum of the "Lil' Abner" road company, will be guests on Lindenwood campus Feb. 23.

Mr. Van Remoortel's purpose in visiting Lindenwood is to see what an American girls' school is like. He will probably not visit any classes, but will eat lunch in the student dining room and appear at a special student assembly.

Preceding his coming to St. Louis last September as conductor of the St. Louis Symphony Mr. Van Remoortel gave 15 concerts at the Osaki music festival in Japan, 10 concerts with the London Symphony Orchestra, 35 concerts in Australia, 26 concerts with the Stuttgart Chamber Orchestra, and was guest conductor in Chicago and Munich. He also gave a special Beethoven concert in Brussels, Belgium.

Mr. Van Remoortel studied at Brussels and Geneva music conservatories and won prizes as cellist at both schools. At the age of 17 he decided that conducting instead of the cello would be his career and started school at Sienna where he won first prize over 100 other young conductors. He has directed over 60 orchestras on five continents.

Miss Nolan was a Lindenwood student from 1946-48. Upon leaving Lindenwood she went to New York where she received several minor play roles and later became a night club entertainer.

Later Miss Nolan gave up her entertainment career and left New York to become a newspaper feature writer. As a newspaper writer she chaperoned Kentucky's Miss America candidate to Atlantic City where she was seen by a talent scout for the "Lil' Abner" road company and was asked to join the show as Mammy Yokum.

Miss Nolan will visit speech, radio, and TV classes, and will probably be on campus all day. She will appear in the student assembly.

Three Sophomores Vie for Crown At Valentine Ball

Three sophomore students, Jane Gadberry, Diane Goldman, and Judy Burnes, have been chosen by their classmates as candidates for Valentine Queen.

One of the three will be queen, but her identity will remain secret until the annual sophomore Valentine dance, to be held Saturday, Feb. 14, in Butler gymnasium. The other two students will serve as the queen's attendants.

"With A Song In My Heart" is the theme of the dance. Margaret Bassnett is chairman of the decoration committee; Peggy Hite, chairman of refreshments; Judy Guthrie, chairman of publicity; Connie Ellis, chairman of the flowers; Gay Pauley, chairman of the serving committee; June Tavlin, chairman of the invitations and programs; and Jane Ely, chairman of the lighting. Wallie Masters and his band will play for the dance.

The three court members were elected by secret ballot following nomination of eight sophomores at a class meeting Jan. 21. Other nominees were Stephanie Harms, Mary Lou Reilly, Judy Downing, Marietta Tinsley, and Nancy Calvert.

Oscar Wilde Play Opens Tomorrow

"The Importance of Being Earnest," a comedy by Oscar Wilde will be presented at 8 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night in Fellowship Hall.

The play, a project of Lindenwood's advanced acting class, is directed by Robert Douglas Hume. Julie Orr, Marilyn Wilson, Gay Nicholls, Ferol Finch, Keith Hammel, Roger Short, Lee Wells, Kenneth Kemper, employed at KADY radio station, and Leroy Miller, who is a new scholarship student from Texas, are participating in the production.

Described as a "trivial comedy for serious people," the play is a brilliant comedy of manners set in late-Victorian England. It revolves around two young gentlemen, of

Week's Theme, 'An Invitation To Pilgrimage'

Dr. John Olert, Jr., D.D. will be the speaker for the annual Religion in Life week, Feb. 15-19, Connie Milliken, general chairman, announced today. Dr. Olert's present pastorate is the Knox Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, Ohio.

"An Invitation to Pilgrimage" is the general theme for the week. Individual sermons will be on "The Invitation," "An Introduction to God," "Meet the Master," "The Spirit Speaks," "On Finding Fellowship," "Regarding Bootstrap Religion," and "The Endless Journey."

Dr. Olert was born in Holland, Mich., and attended Hope College where he received his A.B. degree in 1939. He received his B.D. degree from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, his S.T.M. from Union Theological Seminary in New York, and his D.D. from Westminster College in 1954.

His pastorates include the First Presbyterian Church of Owensboro, Ky., and the First Presbyterian Church of St. Joseph, Mo. He has served on the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian

Connie Milliken

Church in the United States, and on the Board of Trustees of the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary.

The week will begin officially Sunday, Feb. 15, with vespers in the college chapel. Immediately following this service a reception honoring Dr. Olert will be held in Fellowship Hall which students and faculty are urged to attend.

During the week personal or group conferences may be arranged with President McCluer, Dr. Robert McLeod, dean of the chapel, and Dr. Olert. Discussion groups also will be held during the week in the Library Clubroom. Dr. Homer Clevenger, professor of history and government, will speak Monday, Feb. 16, on "Religion in Politics." Tuesday, Feb. 17, Dr. Walter J. Grundhauser, associate professor of biological science, will address the group on "Religion in Science." "Religion in Economics" will be discussed by Dr. J. B. Moore, professor of economics on Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Red Cross Blood Bank Drive Needs 130 Campus Donors

A blood bank sponsored by the St. Charles Red Cross will visit Lindenwood's campus, Feb. 19, from 12 noon-6 p.m. One hundred and thirty blood donors, both faculty and students, are needed to make this program beneficial to everyone.

A donor will establish eligibility to receive free blood for himself and his family in any hospital in the United States for one year. He will also receive a donor's card stating his name and blood type. In case of an accident, this card may save a life.

Each donor will be examined carefully. After giving blood, the donor will be served a snack and be allowed to rest for 20 minutes. Then he will be able to resume normal activities.

Medical authorities assure that everyone has enough blood to give two, three, or four pints without injury to the system. Blood is quickly replaced and a one pint loss will not harm the individual in any way.

Anyone planning to give must eat no fatty foods. On the day the blood bank is here a light lunch will be served in the dining hall with no meat, cream, or other heavy foods. A donor should not eat at the "Tea Hole" or snack for four hours before donation. Fat in the blood will not cause the donor harm, but it may injure the receiver.

Press Club To Meet

The Press Club will meet today at 4:30 p.m., in the Library Club Room, to discuss the Gridiron Show, said Nancy Calvert, co-president.

Mark Rillens Named Romeo By KMOX Personality

Mark Rillens, ex-pinmate of Linda Gillespie, Irwin Hall sophomore, was chosen Lindenwood Romeo of 1959 last week by Miss Patricia Fontaine, star of her three daily telecasts on KMOX-TV.

Mark, a six-foot brunette from Los Angeles, Calif., attends the University of California, Los Angeles, where he is majoring in pre-med. His interests include football, baseball, basketball, track, golf, hunting, and water skiing. He is a member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

Miss Fontaine also selected the traditional five *Mos*s: "Most Athletic," Bill Bedell; "Most Fun to Go Out With," Fred Palumbo; "Most Intellectual," Bethel Thomas; "Most Kissable," Tommy Wilson; and "Most Marriageable," Chuck Moser.

Mark Rillens—Romeo

"There are so many darling faces here, I don't know which one to choose," Miss Fontaine told the Bark.

Bill Bedell, "Most Athletic," is a good friend of Missie Check, freshman from Niccolls Hall. Interested in water skiing and snow skiing, Bill is on a football scholarship at the University of Colorado. He is a six-foot brunette from Dallas, Tex.

"Most Fun to Go Out With," Fred Palumbo, is the "kissing cousin" of Susanne Esber, Irwin Hall sophomore. Fred, a second-year man at Annapolis, has black Who Deserves Greatest Respect?

If at this very moment you should walk into the White House and stand before the President, how would you conduct yourself? This question probably seems ridiculous to most of you as words like respect, awe, and reverence immediately come to mind; but now look back and recall the last time you walked into a church or chapel and stood before God. When you were in God's presence did you conduct yourself in the same manner as you would if you were in the President's home, or have you forgotten who deserves the greatest respect of all?

No matter whether we're walking into the Lindenwood College Chapel or the St. Charles Presbyterian Church, we're still walking into God's house. All conversations and letter-writing should be considered trivial in comparison with hearing the word of God and praising His name.

Each of us should experience a very special closeness to God the moment we step inside the church or chapel doors. Our respect for Him and our joy in visiting with Him once again in His house should be so great that nothing could possibly be worthy of distracting our minds from His presence.

Give careful consideration to the question, "Who deserves the greatest respect of all?"

Co-operate With Social Director

Only once in Lindenwood's history has there been a full time social director. However, because LC's students failed to give her their whole hearted cooperation, her "mission went unaccomplished." Again, we LC students have requested a social director. We have asked this of our administration because we feel that our social program needs changes that we alone cannot accomplish.

The success of Miss Marguerite Odell, and the new program we desire to work out with her, depends mainly on us. Her efforts will be to secure a more satisfactory social program than that which we now have. If we don't contribute all we can toward making this program the best Lindenwood has ever had, only we shall be the losers.

Express your welcome to Miss Odell by giving her your practical suggestions, and heeding the advice of one experienced in building successful social affairs. Let's be active participants of a well rounded social program and give it that "old college try."

Represents 46 Colleges At New York Meeting

Dr. Franc L. McCluer represented 46 Presbyterian colleges, members of the Presbyterian College Union, at a meeting of the Special Committee on College Policies held in New York City, Feb. 4.

The committee, composed of 11 members of the Presbyterian national board, in Philadelphia, and Dr. McCluer, discussed the role of the church-related colleges in society and other topics that arose.

In the evening of the same day, Dr. McCluer showed the film "Linden Leaf", at the 5th Avenue Presbyterian Church, to parents and daughters interested in Lindenwood.

60 Voice St. Olaf Choir Sings at Kiel Next Tuesday Night

St. Olaf's Choir from Northfield, Minn., will sing in St. Louis at Kiel Auditorium on Feb. 17 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Olaf Christiansen is director of the 60 voice singing group. In 1941 he succeeded his father, F. Melius Christiansen, founder of the choir.

Music critics last year described the choir as "everything that it should be," and the singing as "the ultimate in formal a Cappella choir singing." The choir sings outstanding music from various centuries and by many composers.

Tickets for the concert, priced at $1, $1.50 and $2, may be secured from radio station KFUO, 801 DeMun, St. Louis 5, Mo. or from the ticket office at Kiel Auditorium.

"Sonata" by Hindemith. Mitzi also played two piano solos, Respighi's "Nocturne" and Brahms' "Rhapsody II in G Minor".

Castro Presents Land Reform Program; Danish Ship, With 95 Persons, Vanishes

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, flew to Europe last week, apparently in a bid for Allied support of a counter-proposal to Russia on the Berlin crisis.

Ninety-five persons are feared lost or dead in the icy Atlantic. The Danish ship, Hans Hedtoft, vanished leaving no trace after striking an iceberg off Greenland's coast. The ship carried radar and the latest navigation aids. She has not been heard from since her SOS two weeks ago.

President Eisenhower has established a special cabinet committee headed by Vice-President Richard M. Nixon to spearhead his war against inflation. Mr. Eisenhower has warned that unless inflation, with the accompanying devaluation of the dollar, is halted, the government may have to resort to price and wage controls.

Fidel Castro's land reform program is one of the first steps in rebuilding Cuba after the revolution. This program will benefit 200,000 or more farmers . . . Also in Cuba, an American suspect is held on suspicion of being hired to assassinate Fidel Castro. Edward A. Nye, 31, of Chicago, Ill., and Florida, is in an Havana prison. Nye has denied the charge.

Reports are that integration in Virginia is orderly at Norfolk and Arlington.

Buddy Holley, Ritchie Valens, and J. P. Richardson, well known rock and roll singers, were killed last week when their chartered plane crashed in a light snow storm . . . Audrey Hepburn broke several bones in her back in a fall from a horse while on location in Mexico.

The U.S. has four nuclear-powered surface ships under construction, but Russia apparently is going to put one in operation a year ahead of this country. Russia has announced its nuclear-propelled icebreaker will be ready for actual use in the spring of 1959.

Experts predict fashion changes in men's clothing during 1959. They say trousers will be shorter, sleeves will be longer, cuffs will disappear from the trousers and appear on the sleeves, vents in jackets will take the form of box pleats, and gray silk will be worn for evening. Says Francesca Lebow from the Lebow firm, "A woman's best accessory is a well dressed man."

Sir Winston Churchill will have a one-man art show at the Royal Academy of Art in London; fifty canvases will be on exhibit during the first two weeks in March. Many of the paintings have been on tour in the United States, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. Only four other living artists have had one-man exhibitions at the famous gallery on Piccadilly. AB

Bernard: I said I was sorry. I'm sorry.

Gloria: I know. It's just so HARD to believe.

Bernard: It's not like I did something wrong is it? It's not a crime is it?

Gloria: It's just so HARD to believe.

Bernard: Good grief. You wanted me to confide in you. Are you SORRY now?

Gloria: I just can't believe it, that's all. I just can't believe it. Tell me again.

Bernard: I've never been to Europe.

We charter members of the A.A. O.S.N.A.U. Club (Alone Again On Saturday Night As Usual) were beginning to think we'd been victimized by a league of scheming beauticians. We'd spent half our allowances on having our ears flattened, noses lifted, anatomy developed, and hair rejuvenated. But gals! It isn't so much us as it is them! To help us overcome our evenings of shoe polishing and solitaire a SOCIAL DIRECTOR IS COMING TO LINDENWOOD. It won't be long before we'll have no more excuses for playing bridge on weekends. Our administration is giving us the solution to our problems, now let's solve them. Welcome to the forthcoming princess in shining polaroid visor. Soon we'll be listening to the Kingston Trio in mixed company instead of dorm rooms.

"Eleven years old and I'm NEVER picked for the team. Look at those OTHERS. They ALWAYS play. Batting the ball . . . catching it. Running . . . laughing . . . There's something basically wrong there. Something BAD. Something UNHEALTHY. The way they GATHER together. The way they CHOOSE up sides. It's very lucky they won't let me play. Otherwise I might not have noticed."

"Bernard" and the above, undiscovered "Joe di Maggio" are indirect and direct products of Jules Feiffer. Try his latest "guide to nonconfident living." It's titled "Sick, Sick, Sick."

A Niccolis scholar discovered she hadn't signed up for "phys. ed." before the deadline and needed the credit if she wished to transfer next year. After hours of deep concentration she decided she had nothing to worry about. She's going to Europe next summer and will stop off at Oxford for a summer course in bean bag pitching. Oh, and for those who are interested in constructive travel abroad, there are still a few rugby scholarships left.

LC misses have been devising all sorts of parlor games. Mental telepathy is enjoying the present rage. One group of "mystics" are very proud of the fact that they've advanced from numbers and colors to figures in history. Now they're looking for someone who's brainy in "Civ." to transport the right answers to them during tests.

Has everyone figured out the May Court from the mimeographed slips deposited in the post office boxes? This is quite a contest—especially since no one claims to be running it. Are we in the hands of some clever fakers? Here's another set of initials for the suspected culprit—B.L.

When you get downhearted remember "man like you're way out. Your uncombed hair, dirty face keep you apart from the human race. You think your way of life is crazy. Man you're not beat. Like, you're just lazy." (Refer to "Le Jazz Hot," "Complex Freud," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," and "Why Humanity" for that last one.)

Welcome Second Semester, Washington Students! Congratulations To Scroll On White Elephant Sale

It's grind time again and aren't we all happy about it! Actually for some of us it is a treat to be back in classes with the sweat of exams over.

Welcome back, Washington Semester students! Know that the prospect of returning to the swinging LC campus dispelled any sorrow that you all may have felt upon leaving Washington.

An open letter to Linden Scroll (Mary Green take note): If I had just one hose for every hose hanger I got in my little grab bags, I could easily corner the nylon market. Oh well! Congratulations on a real groovy sale and even if Julie Hoyt couldn't buy her hoped for elephant we all hope you made much money.

Stop! Don't read one more word until you flip back and grab a look-see at Linda Gillespie's ex-pinnate. Congratulations to Linda for being the owner of this year's Romeo, and it's just fine with us even if he nearly was a 4'2" P. E. major.

Equally exciting is the fact that, without a doubt, Chuck Moser IS the most marriageable boy around. Irwin third is expecting big things of you, Nance. But, try for June will you?

Saturday night, Butler gym will house what will be the most fabulous dance ever held on the Lindenwood campus. The sophomores have really got a good thing going here, and cordially invite every one to come and see and dance. Best wishes for the three girls nominated for queen and congratulations to Nell McGee for keeping her identity a secret.

Welcome to all the new students on campus and we all certainly hope that you all like Lindenwood just half as much as we do.

The weeks before and after exams really looked like old home week at Lindenwood. Margie Bassnet counted more exes than enrollees one night at dinner.

There's an old saying among some of the more enthusiastic Lindenwood students that was started last year around exam time. It is: "When in doubt—cut!" Of course, some people prefer to say "drop" instead of "cut" but actually the same feeling is expressed by both.

At any rate, this columnist intends to cut right now so until next issue—hang by your thumbs. JE

"Most Kissable," Tommy Wilson, is the brother of Marilyn Wilson, Ayres Hall junior. Interested in speech and science, Tommy is six-foot-one and has blond hair and blue eyes. He is a senior in Miami High School, Miami, Okla.

Chuck Moser, pinman of Nancy Calvert, Irwin Hall sophomore, is majoring in architecture at the University of Illinois. A six-foot golf fan, "Most Marriageable" Chuck lives in Chicago, Ill. His interest—Nancy.

Miss Patricia Fontaine, judge of the contest, has been with KMOX-TV for the past two years. She recently began a morning show which gives her a total of three telecasts daily.

Aside from her active career, Miss Fontaine also leads a lively home life caring for her five children between telecasts. Before coming to St. Louis, she held a position with KARK-TV in Little Rock, Ark.

M. Odell Appointed New Social Director To Work With Council

Miss Marguerite Odell, newly appointed social director at Lindenwood College, will be working with Patsy Price, social chairman, and the social council this semester toward co-ordinating a more extensive social program on the campus.

Miss Odell, a native of St. Louis, has just completed work as personnel director of Brinkley Manufacturing Company in Warrenton, Mo., where she lived. She was active in community affairs there, including the Federated Women's Club, the Community Affairs Committee, and the Park Board. She also worked with the local Girl Scout and church groups.

Previous to her work at Warrenton, Miss Odell was a member of the Women's Army Corps. She did administrative work for the Counter Intelligence Corps on the Manhattan Project in Los Alamos, N.M., and later worked for the Atomic Energy Commission there.

Miss Odell then became co-director of a nursery school in Fairfield, Conn. Miss Jane Wainwright new Lindenwood instructor in charge of the LC nursery school.

Miss Odell enjoys working with people and has much experience in that field. She is interested in taking further college work while she is at Lindenwood.

Tenth Of LC's Population Stumbles Through Meals With Varying Degrees Of Efficiency, Co-ordination

In Deadwood, fair community of harmonious living, exists a group (who comprise ten per cent of the student body) known as the Happy Waitresses. They are most commonly found in the vicinity of the kitchen which is run by a kindly and generous manager, Mr. Habitat.

These jolly little creatures may be divided into three groups—the skillful, the less skillful, and the downright clumsy. The skillful are identified by their spotless uniforms, cheerful smiles, and twinkletoes. They speed to and from the kitchen balancing their trays on their heads, weaving delicately through the confusion to bring meat and drink to their hungry tables. These spirited waitresses leave the dining room at 6:50 p.m. The less skillful wear smiles that are not quite so wide and carry their trays warily in front of them, praying every moment that the rolls won't slide into the spaghetti.

happy dining room by 7 p.m. Alas, we have reached the final group—the downright clumsy. One cannot fail to note these frowning nervous bits of humanity. These waitresses are rarely seen carrying their trays—the trays are on the Three typical LC waitresses!

Although their uniforms have that slightly used look, they are still recognizable. With the help of Avid, they are usually out of the floor in front of them and the rolls are already drowning in the spaghetti. Their uniforms, no longer green, are a mass of soup, coffee, and tea stains, and their bodies are bruised terribly from being in the way of the swinging doors. With the aid of both Avid and Mistletoe, these war-torn waitresses leave the dining room at 7:30 p.m., after making numerous trips to the kitchen to replace broken items.

All waitresses, whether clumsy or skillful, have certain distinguishing characteristics, such as flat feet and dishpan hands. They usually have an aversion to all foods, especially soup and chocolate pudding.

Waitresses are confronted with three main types of tables—the hungry, the messy, and the impatient. The hungry, tables are definitely a menace. It is a touch-and-go situation for even the most experienced waitress who must escape being eaten alive or being hit on the head as sixteen arms and eight mouths simultaneously reach for the center of the table and thoroughly masticate the food there.

The messy tables are less dangerous but more time-consuming. The happy waitress is dismayed as she surveys a mass of wet napkins, spilt milk (which she cries over), cigarette butts mashed into the ice cream, and drumsticks rolling across the table. It is under the messy table that one most often finds a waitress.

The impatient tables are another sad situation. These tables want their appetizer, main course, drink, and dessert, plus seconds on everything all at the same time. Thus we find the case of the waitress with the St. Vitus Dance.

However, on the whole, the wait-

March 2, at 5 o'clock, is the deadline for freshmen to submit their original writings to the Griffin Freshman Writing Contest.

All freshmen are eligible to enter any piece of original writing. Poems, one-act plays, short stories, essays, radio script, or editorials may be submitted.

Entries are to be signed with fictitious names, and both the fictitious and real names are to be enclosed in an envelope.

Contributions may be put in the mailbox of Cornelia Childs, editor-in-chief, box 366, or in a special box in the English seminar room, 328.

Semesterites Give Convo

The Washington Semester students, Margie Ward, Judy Winburn, and Charlyne Grogan, juniors, have returned from Washington and they reported their experiences in a convocation at 11 a.m. today for all students.

The Washington Semester students will meet this evening from 5-6 p.m. in the Library Club Room to talk with those students who are interested in Washington Semester.

Following this meeting, the Committee on Washington Semester will be receiving applications from students who would like to go to Washington next year. This committee is composed of Dean Paulena Nickell, Dr. John B. Moore, chairman of the economics department, Walter M. Beattie, Jr., chairman of the sociology department, Miss Martha May Boyer, associate professor of speech, and Dr. Homer Clevenger, chairman of the department of history and government and chairman of the Committee on Washington Semester.

28 French Posters Shown in Roemer

Exhibition posters by Chagall, Dufy, Leger, Matisse, and Picasso are on display in Roemer Hall.

In the years from 1949 to 1953, these painters contributed to the production of the most outstanding posters in their careers. There is no doubt that such work marks a new high in the history of French art posters.

The balance of the posters, including all by Dufy, are lithographic interpretations of paintings by the artists and were executed under their personal supervision and approved by them.

Some posters are signed in pencil by the artists, either in the finished state or on a proof before letters. Some of the posters are on special paper, others show the register marks, but all are interesting both from the artistic and technical viewpoint. All of the posters are in color, and although a few subjects are widely known, the others offer a special opportunity to study works not otherwise presented in this country.

The impressive collection includes three posters by Chagall, five by Dufy, five by Leger, six by Matisse, and nine by Picasso.

Montaldo's will present spring fashions for 1959, sponsored by Colhecon, Lindenwood's home economics club, Feb. 26 at 7 p.m. in Roemer Auditorium.

Eight girls, chosen from the try-outs held Feb. 5, will model a variety of selections. The clothes will consist of ensembles for street, sports, and evening wear.

Kathy Stafford, general chairman, and assistants Patsy Lenhart and Sally Seifert are in charge of the show.

Terrapin Show To Use Short Story Theme

Ina Rae Barklage, sophomore, and Sally Cary, freshman, will be featured soloists in Terrapin's Water Carnival to be presented Thursday and Friday night, Mar. 12 and 13.

Sally will swim to "Deep Purple" for the scene in the Purple Room. The scenes for the show are being taken from Edgar Allen Poe's short story, "The Masque of the Red Plague." Ina Rae will swim in the scene depicting the Black Room.

Judy Estes and Barbara Williams will do a duet to the song "American in Paris," for the scene in the Blue Room.

Four Terrapin members wearing body lights will swim in the scene portraying the Green Room.

A reception will be held after Thursday night's performance for the faculty, Terrapin members, and friends. It is to be held in the lounge in Butler.

Fight For Lindy, Intramurals, Open Basketball Season

Intramural basketball for the possession of "Lindy", the Women's Recreation Association's athletic trophy, began Wednesday, Feb. 4, with Niccolls playing the day students and Irwin playing Cobbs. The competition ended yesterday.

Basketball extramurals will begin Feb. 23, following the end of Religion and Life Week. The Lindenwood team will play teams from Webster, Fontbonne, Washington University, Monticello, and Harris Teachers' College.

Following basketball will be ping-pong and bridge tournaments which will run simultaneously starting Feb. 24, and last for approximately 2½ weeks. Both games will be played in the dorms on a voluntary basis. The ladder system will be used and each individual will be expected to challenge someone else in order to reach the top.

There will be both doubles and singles competition in the ping-pong tournament, and students may participate in both games.

N.B.O. Team Tops Bowling League

Winning team of the physical education bowling class league with a score of 3,299 points was the N.B.O.'s led by Martha Crane. Taking second place in the tournament were the W.B.P.L.'s with 3,296 points, whose captain was Linda Winegarner, followed by the Strikers, with Seeti Sheehan as captain.

Individual high scorer was Judy Cotteral, with 800 points out of 12 games, followed by Sandra Bowen with 780 points and Martha Crane with 582 points.

The bowling League ran from Dec. 4 through Jan. 15, with 14 teams of five players each participating.

If enough interest is shown, the physical education department and the St. Charles Bowling Alley will sponsor a Lindenwood league which will start Feb. 16 and last until the middle of May.

LC Sponsors Nursery School; Director Joins College Staff

Besides being a four year college, Lindenwood now has its own nursery school. The private nursery school, sponsored by the college, was opened Feb. 3, and is under the direction of Miss Jane Wainright.

Ann Weatherwax, Lindenwood senior who is doing her practicing teaching this semester, is Miss Wainright's assistant.

The class meets every week day morning from 8:30-11:45 in the nursery of the Presbyterian Church. It has an enrollment of 12 children from the ages of three-five.

Of the nine boys and three girls, four of the students are children of faculty members. Walter Beattie, professor of sociology, and Dr. William Engram, associate professor of psychology, have daughters in the LC nursery school.

Arthur Kanak, associate professor and artist in residence, and Mrs. Alice Wise, secretary to the business manager, have sons enrolled.

Each morning the children are checked by student nurses Ruth Bekmann, Carol Ann Hopkins, and Eleanor Orth.

The mornings are filled with free and planned play, rest periods, and outdoor activities.

Glamour Begins Annual Best Dressed College Girl Contest

Glamour Magazine has announced its annual "10 Best-Dressed College Girls in America" contest. If Lindenwood submits a winner, she has a chance to fly to New York in June, participate in Glamour's College Fashion Show, and be pictured in the special fall issue of the magazine.

The best dressed students on campus will be selected by a special committee of Lindenwood students, and the "winner" will be elected from those by popular vote in student assembly Feb. 17.

Nominees for "best dressed" will be chosen by the 10 Glamour Magazine standards: (1) Good figure, posture; (2) Clean, shining, well-kept hair; (3) Carefully used make-up; (4) Good grooming; (5) Imagination in managing a clothes budget; (6) A good over-all wardrobe; (7) Appropriately dressed according to the customs of her campus; (8) Appropriately dressed off-campus; (9) Unmistakable individuality in color, accessories, looks, and (10) A real understanding of her fashion type.

IRC Elects Delegates

The International Relations Club, sponsored by Frank T. Armstrong, professor of history, held a dinner Sunday, and selected delegates who will attend Principia's Twenty-First Public Affairs Conference, to be held April 16-18.

Linden Scroll White Elephant Sale Nets $104

"Sold to the girl in the sneakers and checkered shirt!"

So went the Linden Scroll White Elephant Sale held in Butler gym, Feb. 3. Betty Layton, president of the Scroll, remarked that "it was very successful."

Scroll members sold boxes of cookies they'd baked personally. "Chances" on another product of a home bakery—that of Mrs. Van Bibber — were also sold and Ann Beadle, freshman, was the lucky recipient.

Jewelry, sweaters, pin curl rollers, cosmetics, perfumes, and stuffed animals were among the goods auctioned. The highest sale price was fifty cents. Inflation is in full swing on LC's campus.

Records and books were a popular commodity. One adventure fan purchased six mysteries. It is hoped this won't affect the crime rate.

Though everything was well organized, Dr. Marion Rechtern's gloves were sold, and recovered. Suellen Purdue nearly lost her shoes to an eager buyer.

Success in dollars and cents amounted to $104. The money will go into Linden Scroll's scholarship fund. Only a few items remained when the last of the customers had gone. These articles will be donated to Alpha Lambda Delta for its rummage sale.

Conventions Set For '60

Dr. Franc L. McCluer announced there will be intercollegiate mock conventions at Lindenwood College in the spring of 1960. No date has been set, but will soon be announced.

Do You Think for Yourself? (ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS AND FIND OUT!*)

1. If you were about to buy an automobile, would you (A) study the road-test reports in the magazines, or (B) select the car that looks best to you?

A B

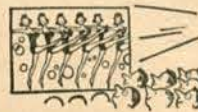

5. In buying a radio, would you be influenced more by (A) low price, or (B) product features despite a slightly higher price?

A B

2. When confronted with a menu with lots of foreign terms, do you (A) ask what is in each dish, or (B) accept the waiter's recommendation?

A B

6. When deciding on what movie to see, do you usually prefer films that (A) are gay and diverting, or (B) have a social message?

A B

3. When invited to play an unfamiliar game, do you (A) refuse to play until you fully understand the rules, or (B) pick up the rules as you go along?

A B

7. When you run into a foreign phrase in a textbook, do you first (A) head for a dictionary to find the meaning, or (B) try to dope out the meaning yourself?

A B

4. When invited to a party, do you (A) accept, hoping to enjoy yourself no matter who attends, or (B) try to learn who will be there before accepting?

A B

8. When reading the paper, do you (A) catch yourself concentrating on scandal stories, or (B) spend your time on news and editorial matter?

A B

9. In choosing a filter cigarette, (A) are you easily swayed by bold claims, or (B) do you think for yourself and stick by your decision?

A B

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself . . . you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in everything else. Men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

*If you checked (A) on three out of the first four questions, and (B) on four out of the last five . . . you really think for yourself!
