COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FOUR, NO. 29; MARCH 25, 1986

SEARCH BEGINS FOR FACULTY MEMBER - Area alumni along with faculty, staff and students are being asked to nominate professors who will be considered for the annual Lindenwood Faculty Lectureship. Reestablishing a popular faculty event that was discontinued in the 1970s, the college wants to honor a full-time faculty member as part of its observance of the "Year of the Professor."

The lectureship will enable a faculty member to present a talk of his or her choice to the college community. The person chosen to present the lecture "will exemplify the high qualities of the teaching profession that the college continues to foster," said Raymond W. Harmon of the board of overseers, and Arlene Taich, dean of the Evening College/LCIE. Both are cochairing a 12-member steering committee that is planning the "Year of the Professor," including the lectureship.

The faculty member chosen for the prestigious honor will be selected by the steering committee and announced at the May 17 commencement. The person also will receive a $1,000 cash stipend and will be honored at a college reception following the lectureship, which tentatively is scheduled April 12, 1987. Written nominations must be received by April 30. They can be sent to Amy McCracken, secretary of the "Year of the Professor" Committee, Box 363, Lindenwood College. Nominations must be of full-time faculty members.

KCLC MARKETING DIRECTOR NAMED - J. Denise Jones, a 1982 alumna, has joined the college as Marketing Director of KCLC Radio, a newly-created position in which she will be responsible for marketing, including solicitation of underwriting from area businesses.

She recently returned to the area from Fort Wayne, IN, where, for the past two years, she was merchandising coordinator for Northhill Development Corp., a national developer/manager of apartment communities. Jones also has worked for Dome Productions, Inc., of St. Louis as director of promotions for such special events as "Sesame Street Live!," "Motorcycles on Ice" and "Roller Derby." Holding an undergraduate degree in business administration, she plans to pursue her MBA at Lindenwood.

SAXOPHONE CONCERT APRIL 4 - The River City Saxes, one of the area's premiere saxophone groups under the direction of Robert Coleman, will perform in concert April 4 at 8 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. Tickets are free to Lindenwood students; for others, admission is $3 for adults and $1 for senior citizens, children 12 years and younger and students with non-Lindenwood IDs. The group's repertoire includes music written for the famous Paris Saxophone Quartet to sax quartet settings of familiar jazz songs, including contemporary ones with rhythm sections. Professional experiences of individual members of the River City Saxes includes radio, television, recording, the Fox Theatre and the St. Louis Symphony and Municipal Opera orchestras.

LAST MAINSTAGE PRODUCTION - One of the greatest comedies of the English language, Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," will close the college's Mainstage season this semester with performances April 2-5 and 10-12 at 8 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. Tickets, priced at $5-$7, are available at the Box Office in Roemer Hall from noon to 5 p.m. weekdays, or call 946-2004 for information or reservations.

CAP LOGO CONTEST ANNOUNCED - Faculty, staff and students are asked to submit ideas for a new logo for the CAP Center. Entries, which must be received by April 30, will be judged by members of the newly-formed CAP Advisory Board. A cash prize of $25 will be made to the winner. Submit your entries to Box 741 along with your name and address.

GET YOUR DRESS TO THE CLEANERS! - Students, faculty and staff are invited to this year's Cotillion, scheduled from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. April 5 at the Miracle of Dove's Banquet Center in St. Charles. Tickets are available at the door for $3@ or $5 per couple. Dancing begins at 9 p.m., hors d'oeuvres at 10 and a cash bar all night. Formal attire is required.

NAME CHANGE - Moheb M. Seif El-Nasr, associate professor of chemistry, became an American citizen earlier this month, and changed his name to Moheb M. Nasr. A member of the faculty since 1979, he holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in chemistry from the University of Cairo, Egypt, and a doctoral degree from the University of Minnesota.

COLLEGE DONATES SCHOLARSHIP - As a means of showing its support for public television, Lindenwood has donated a $1,500 scholarship and two partial tuition waivers, valued at $1,000 and $500, to KETC-TV for use in the station's auction, April 17-20. To be auctioned to the highest bidders during the fund-raising event for Channel 9, the $1,500 scholarship and $1,000 tuition waivers can be used for undergraduate or graduate studies at the main campus or at off-campus locations. The $500 tuition waiver is for either undergraduate or graduate studies in the college's new Saturday Campus, which offers instruction for those who are unable to attend day or evening programs because of employment or families. The waiver can be used for the Saturday Campus, which begins this fall, or it can be used for 1987 terms beginning next January or May.

For its contributions, Lindenwood receives on-air promotions during the four-day event, which are viewed by audiences of several hundred thousand during prime time. Lindenwood's gifts were arranged by the Public Relations Office in cooperation with the college's Scholarship Committee, chaired by Financial Aid Director Larry Sackman. This is the third year Lindenwood has aided Channel 9. In 1984, the college became the first educational institution in the area to show its support through the donation of two scholarships valued at $2,000, said Randy L. Wallick of the Public Relations Office. Auction hours are 7 p.m. to midnight April 17-19 and from noon to midnight April 20.

BLOOD DRIVE TODAY - The Lindenwood Student Government College Life Committee and the Religious Life Council are cosponsoring a blood drive for the American Red Cross today from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in McCluer Hall Lounge. An appeal is made to all faculty, staff and students to make the blood drive a success by each donating a pint of blood.

MEMO TO: All Faculty and Staff

FROM: Business Office

UPS delivers all packages to the Post Office. These packages are to be picked up by departments. The person responsible for picking up these packages must sign a sheet kept in the Post Office by Von Goodson. This sheet is a copy of the delivery record identified by numbers furnished by UPS.

All other packages (excluding UPS) are delivered to the Stables, where the Maintenance Staff is responsible for delivery to departments. Tom Hedgecock keeps a record of all packages delivered, stating the name of the firm and date received. The person responsible for delivering these packages also must receive a signature from the department when the package is delivered. These sheets are returned to Hedgecock after deliveries have been made; copies of which can be obtained by departments.

Each department must check their packing slips with the merchandise to make sure it has received all of its order. All packing slips must be sent to Carol Whitman in the Purchasing Dept. so they can be matched with the purchase order and invoice. This is the only way that Accounts Payable can know if merchandise has been received prior to paying the invoice.

All purchase orders will contain delivery and billing instructions which will be provided by the Purchasing Dept.

We certainly appreciate your cooperation in these matters.

COED VOLLEYBALL TOURNEY - Eight teams are being formed for a coed volleyball tournament that will be played April 1-29 from 10 a.m. to noon in Butler. Four men's and four women's teams will be organized on a first-come, first-served basis. Deadline is March 28. If you're interested, sign the roster in the Office of Programs and Residents in the CAP Center, or see Marilyn Morris.

MAJOR/MINOR FAIR FOR SOPHOMORES - Preceptors are sponsoring a Major/Minor Fair for sophomores April 2 from 3-5 p.m. in the Student Center in Niccolls Hall. Sophomores should attend to declare their intended major and to consider the possibility of a minor. Advisors will then be assigned to the student's major field prior to preregistration for this fall. Sophomores also will have the opportunity to join departmental representatives for casual conversation and exploration of the available majors and minors at Lindenwood. Although this event is for sophomores, freshmen also are welcome to attend.

NEW OFFICE HOURS - The Rev. George Wilcox has announced new office hours - from 3-5 p.m. each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Students are encouraged to drop by to visit him at his office in Niccolls Hall; no appointment is necessary. The Rev. Wilcox is available other times upon request. Contact him at extension 231 on campus or at 724-6685 off-campus.

COLLEGE TO HONOR SUPPORTERS - In appreciation of the support it has received in recent months, Lindenwood is hosting a Theatre Night on April 2 for all contributors in the metro area who have pledged $100 or more to the college in the past year. The event will include a preview performance of Oscar Wilde's classic comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest," followed by a reception in which participants will have the opportunity to meet cast members.

ARTHRITIS TELETHON APRIL 27 - Contributions are sought from the Lindenwood community for the St. Louis Arthritis Foundation Telethon, April 27 from 6 p.m. to midnight on KDNL-TV. The telethon will feature local celebrities as well as entertainment from Mickey Gilley, Loretta Lynn, the Oak Ridge Boys and Grand Ole Opry artists. Proceeds will benefit the foundation, a voluntary health organization that provides information and services concerning the cause, prevention and cure of arthritis, a disease that affects one in seven.
