LINDENWOOD

LU 8th in nation in race for Sears Directors' Cup

Lindenwood University currently stands in 8th place in race for the Sears Director's Cup. Westmont College, of California, is currently in the first place.

At the conclusion of the Fll sports season, Lindenwood has accumulated 110 points, the highest total among teams in the Heart of America Athletic Conference. This high ranking is based largely on the success of the Lindenwood men's and women's soccer teams, voth of which finished in fifth place in their respective nationa tournaments. The remaining points came front the Lady Lions' volleyball team.

The Sears Director's Cup is a program sponsored by Sears, which honors institutions maintaining a broad-based athletic program, achieving success in many sports, both men's and women's.
