Bob Chitester to Appear at Langenberg Speaker Series

The Hammond Institute for Free Enterprise will host the next Langenberg Speaker Series event on Jan. 23, featuring Bob Chitester from the Free to Choose Network. In addition to the traditional evening event at MAC-West, the Hammond Institute will host a student-centric session from noon to 1 p.m. in Dunseth Auditorium (lunch included – no reservations required).

During the student event, Chitester will appear in costume and his presentation -- "Hogwarts Economists" -- will include an engaging Q&A session (complete with a Hogwarts-worthy award) during which he will explore:

1. Is the world of magic governed by free market principles?
2. What principles seem to define the society?
3. Do any of the individuals show evidence of free market principles?
4. What's missing in the magic world?
5. What does it suggest should be our attitude regarding government?
6. Is free will valued?
7. Is the magic world egalitarian?
8. What is the range of political viewpoints represented by the characters?
9. To what degree is there a classical liberal economic system?

REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Strategic Enrollment Planning Forums

All faculty and staff are invited to attend Strategic Enrollment Planning Forums to provide input on potential innovations in academic programs, marketing, recruitment, and student engagement. Forums will be moderated by members of the University Committee on Strategic Enrollment Planning, and will offer employees a chance to ask questions and propose ideas for development into tactics for recruiting, improving Lindenwood's academic reputation, and increasing student engagement.

January 29, 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

January 30, 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Refreshments will be served.

Lindenwood Diversity Event: “The Inaugural Event: The Getting Real Series”

Students, faculty, staff, and administrators are invited to join this powerful participatory session “The Inaugural Event: The Getting Real Series,” on Feb. 6, 2019 which will challenge people to examine their own biases and work together to learn how to achieve inclusive excellence. Goals of this program are to help foster a culture of understanding, support, and acceptance within our campus community and to create an inclusive environment whereby all members feel respected and welcomed.

Dr. Derek Greenfield, a well-known speaker on diversity, inclusion, and motivation, will facilitate and lead this inaugural event. Prior to becoming a visionary speaker, Dr. Greenfield spent 20 years in higher education as a professor, administrator, and most recently a chief diversity officer.

The same session is being offered twice, so we hope you will be able to attend one of the sessions. Please RSVP by Friday, Feb. 1, 2019 by going to St. Charles RSVP 2 - 3:30 p.m. or St. Charles RSVP 4 - 5:30 p.m. If you are a non-exempt employee and you choose to attend the 4 - 5:30 p.m. session, please communicate with your supervisor regarding the potential impact on overtime because this is a paid training.

The University Committee on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion is sponsoring this event and funding is provided by Belleville’s Dean of Students Office and St. Charles’ Office of Student Life & Diversity and Student Involvement.

Questions – Please contact Dr. Shane Williamson at swilliamson@lindenwood.edu.

Felzien to Serve on Entrepreneurship Forum Panel

Craig Felzien, Director of the Duree Center for Entrepreneurship, in the Hammond Institute in the Plaster School of Business & Entrepreneurship, has been named to serve on a panel at the 2019 Mississippi Entrepreneurship Forum on March 8 in Jackson, Mississippi.

The event brings together leading entrepreneurs, economic developers, innovators and future business owners to learn more about entrepreneurship, best practices, resources and immediately practical, useful information about building a business.

The University of Mississippi's McLean Institute for Public Service and Community Engagement sponsors this event annually, and is part of their Catalyzing Entrepreneurial and Economic Development initiative. The initiative is in its fifth year.

Q2 Training Coming Up on Jan. 23

Lindenwood University is embracing a new culture. In July, a team of four Lindenwood University representatives traveled to Florida to take part in the Disney Institute-Quality Service program. They used this expert advice to develop a service excellence program for Lindenwood. The team is offering the program to all employees through the Lindenwood Learning Academy over the next 12-18 months.

As a welcome back for the spring semester and a kickoff for the new Lindenwood culture, Q2 will host a University-wide Q2 social on January 23, 2019. This event will begin a new era for the University and a focus on service excellence at Lindenwood. Please join us for this exciting time at Lindenwood!

Academic Technology Services Spring Catalog Now Available

The Academic Technology Services spring catalog is now available. The catalog lists all Academic Technology Services workshops available to faculty and staff.

First-Year Programs Seeks Freshman Seminar Proposals

The office of Student and Academic Support Services – First-Year Programs (SASS-FYP) is currently accepting proposals to teach one of our Freshman Seminars. The concept of the Freshman Seminars is to connect our incoming students to full-time faculty members through creative and innovative seminar topics. Each seminar will be unique to the individual instructor, who will have an opportunity to pass on their passion for their particular area of study. We are looking for seminars that represent a broad range of degree programs. Read more

Summer Camp/Conference Facility Requests

If you are interested in hosting a camp or a conference on campus this summer, please view the Summer Facility Request Guidebook and then submit a proposal to Samantha Kennedy no later than March 2, 2019. Proposals are handled on a first come, first serve basis so room availability is limited. Additional questions and internal pricing sheet requests can be directed to Samantha Kennedy.

Request for Computer Science Projects

As the primary part of a Computer Science course (CSC43000 -Senior Projects) that I will be teaching this Spring, students are required to work on a "real world" group programming project. In order to facilitate this, I would like to gather several potential projects from campus sources. So, if you have a potential computer programming project, I'd like to hear about it. Some things to keep in mind: Read more

Student Research Conference Submissions Now Accepted

It is that time of year again, everyone: The 2019 Student Research Conference submission portal is open and is accepting faculty recommendations and student submissions.

Students who are working on or who have completed original research papers or creative projects can be nominated by a faculty member to participate in the Student Research Conference. Students can either display a poster or give a presentation of their work at the conference. Read more
