Castro Memorial to be Held Sunday, Jan. 20 from 3 to 7 p.m.

A memorial service for Michael Castro will be held Sunday, Jan. 20 from 3 to 7 p.m. at the Central Reform Congregation, 5020 Waterman in St. Louis. The memorial is open to family, friends, and admirers.

Castro taught at Lindenwood for 32 years and founded the Master of Fine Arts in Writing program. He was also the first poet laureate of St. Louis.

Submitting Items for The Weekly Roar

The Weekly Roar is an email that goes out to all undergraduate and graduate students on the St. Charles campus on Sunday evenings. This email contains information about the current week's events, campus announcements, and upcoming events. If you would like information included in The Weekly Roar, please log in to Involve U via your faculty/staff portal, and under "Forms" click on the "2018-2019 Social Media, Weekly Roar, Golden Roar, Chalking, Digital Monitor Request" form. Please submit your requests by Wednesday at noon for the upcoming week's edition.

So that anyone in the Student Involvement office can process your request, we do ask that you not email your information. Please use the form in Involve U so that we can better serve you. And, if you would like to receive The Weekly Roar, please contact Angie Royal at aroyal@lindenwood.edu to be added to the mailing list. Thanks so much!

Assessment Tip of the Week: “General Education Assessment Update”

Guest Contributor: Kate Herrell, Director of Academic Assessment

- Since Fall 2018 every instructor that teaches a Gen Ed course has been recording assessment data via Canvas.
- Thanks to all who were involved last semester (and in the pilots in past years), we reached 90% participation.
- If you participated in the Fall 2018 rollout, and you copy over the course from that semester, the outcomes and rubrics will be copied over with it. There are NO CHANGES to the outcomes or KPIs for each outcome. Here are instructions for the course copy as well as a video.

Q2 Training Coming Up on Jan. 23

Lindenwood University is embracing a new culture. In July, a team of four Lindenwood University representatives traveled to Florida to take part in the Disney Institute-Quality Service program. They used this expert advice to develop a service excellence program for Lindenwood. The team is offering the program to all employees through the Lindenwood Learning Academy over the next 12-18 months.

As a welcome back for the spring semester and a kickoff for the new Lindenwood culture, Q2 will host a University-wide Q2 social on January 23, 2019. This event will begin a new era for the University and a focus on service excellence at Lindenwood. Please join us for this exciting time at Lindenwood!

First-Year Programs Seeks Freshman Seminar Proposals

The office of Student and Academic Support Services – First-Year Programs (SASS-FYP) is currently accepting proposals to teach one of our Freshman Seminars. The concept of the Freshman Seminars is to connect our incoming students to full-time faculty members through creative and innovative seminar topics. Each seminar will be unique to the individual instructor, who will have an opportunity to pass on their passion for their particular area of study. We are looking for seminars that represent a broad range of degree programs. Read more

Summer Camp/Conference Facility Requests

If you are interested in hosting a camp or a conference on campus this summer, please view the Summer Facility Request Guidebook and then submit a proposal to Samantha Kennedy no later than March 2, 2019. Proposals are handled on a first come, first serve basis so room availability is limited. Additional questions and internal pricing sheet requests can be directed to Samantha Kennedy.

Request for Computer Science Projects

As the primary part of a Computer Science course (CSC43000 -Senior Projects) that I will be teaching this Spring, students are required to work on a "real world" group programming project. In order to facilitate this, I would like to gather several potential projects from campus sources. So, if you have a potential computer programming project, I'd like to hear about it. Some things to keep in mind: Read more

Student Research Conference Submissions Now Accepted

It is that time of year again, everyone: The 2019 Student Research Conference submission portal is open and is accepting faculty recommendations and student submissions.

Students who are working on or who have completed original research papers or creative projects can be nominated by a faculty member to participate in the Student Research Conference. Students can either display a poster or give a presentation of their work at the conference. Read more
