Andover, Sept. 29. 1852

My Dear Sir,

I received, in due season, your favor of September 10th, and should have replied to it before this time, had not my own ill health and that of my family prevented. I received in due season your Miss. And was very much obliged to you for them. I not return them by mail, and hope that you will receive them safely. Be pleased to accept my sincerest thanks for them, and for all your kindness in reference to the memoir & hope that you will express to me freely your opinion about it, and I shall be very happy to avail myself of your ___.

I might have easily made the memoir four times larger than it is. I have been obliged to repress and to omit much. But I was ___ in the number of paged which I could devote to the memoir, by the Doctoral Trust Society. As it is, I habe that the feeble effort will not be altogether ___ to the decendents of are of the greatest and the best of men.

With very high regards.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your friend & servant
