Dear Sir

No doubt you will have had sundry applications since it has been known that you have a voice in the giving of a Job supposed to be pretty good, and among the rest I wish you to take serious notice of the application of René Paul for the appointment of Surveyor to the Commissioners for laying out the Road to New Mexico.

You may depend on his being a first rate Surveyor, and good Craftsman, excelled, I will venture to say, by none in the State- Any thing you may feel inclined to do in the thing toward his obtaining the appointment will very much oblige your friend & servant –

Wilson P. Hunt

Give my respects to Madame
