

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. SEVEN

SEPT. 9, 1986

ALUMNA FEATURED IN EXHIBIT . . .

A collection paintings, pastels and ceramics by Diane M. Papageorge-Racine is on display through September 23 at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the FAB. An art teacher at Lewis & Clark Elementary School in the Ft. Zumwalt School District, Racine is a 1981 graduate of the Washington University School of Fine Arts and a 1986 graduate of Lindenwood with a master's degree in art. Her exhibit can be viewed from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 1-5 on weekends.

COMPUTER PRIMERS AVAILABLE . . .

John Dooley, assistant professor of computer science, has written three primers to help students, faculty and staff use the college's Vax computer for word processing. Available for $1 each at the Bookstore, the primers are "An Introduction to the Vax," "An Introduction to the Screen Editor" and "An Introduction to Text Formatting."

Dooley also requests that faculty members who want their class to use the Vax computer this semester should contact him at Campus Box #682 or Extension #343. A list of students who need accounts should be provided.

DO MORE THAN SING IN THE SHOWER . . .

"If music be the food of love, play on." Like to sing? Want to sing? Think you can sing? Want to find out if you can sing? Lindenwood's two choral ensembles, the Chamber Singers and the Women's Ensemble, still are looking for musically-inclined individuals for the fall semester.

Men are needed for the Chamber Singers as well as for the Madrigals, and women are needed for the Women's Ensemble. Auditions will be held this Thursday. The college's new director of choral music, Kristana Weiler, encourages all who might be interested - faculty, staff or students - to stop by her office in 105 FAB or call her at extension #218. Music is great fun, and you may have more of an inclination than you think. Find out by contacting her.

CHAPLAIN ANNOUNCES OFFICE HOURS . . .

The Rev. George Wilcox has established office hours on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 3-5 p.m. in the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall. No appointment is necessary. If you'll unable to make these times, you can contact the college chaplain at extension #231 or at St. Charles Presbyterian Church, 946-4467, to arrange a meeting. The Rev. Wilcox is available to all students as well as faculty and staff, regardless of their religious affiliation.

ASA COMMITTEE MEETS ON CAMPUS . . .

The Professional Development Committee of the American Society of Appraisers (ASA) met on campus recently to acquaint members with Lindenwood and its Valuation Sciences program. The committee, which includes Patricia Soucy of the LCIE faculty as a representative, is responsible for planning and developing ASA programs to enhance professional and educational standings of appraisers. The college's Valuation Sciences program, which offers undergraduate and graduate degrees, has been supported and assisted by the Washington, DC-based ASA.

AAUP PARTY NEXT FRIDAY FOR FACULTY . . .

Lindenwood's chapter of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) is sponsoring a "TGIF Party" September 19 beginning at 3:30 p.m. in the Goodall Lounge of the MAB. All Lindenwood faculty members are invited to attend. AAUP will provide drinks, while faculty members are asked to bring a snack to share. For further information, contact Jean Taylor in Butler Library, extension #329.

Speaking of the Lindenwood chapter, newly-elected AAUP officers this year are President Edith Graber, Vice-President Jim Evans, Treasurer Allen Schwab and Secretary Jean Taylor.

PART TIME POSITIONS AVAILABLE . . .

Citicorp in Chesterfield needs several students to work part-time in its Central Processing Dept. Hours are flexible. Salary is about $4.50 per hour. Interested? Then contact Donna Bennett in the CAP Center, extension 237, for more information.

NEW TITLES AT BUTLER LIBRARY . . .

Recently-purchased books at Butler Memorial Library include A DIFFERENT KIND OF PRESIDENCY by Theodore Sorenson, BIOFUTURE by Barke Zimmerman, THE HISTORY OF SOUTHERN LITERATURE, and, on reserve, the ATTORNEY GENERAL'S COMMISSION ON PORNOGRAPHY: FINAL REPORT by the U.S. Dept. of Justice, and BUDGET IMPACT ALERT: THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL BUDGET FOR EDUCATION AND ITS IMPACT FOR FISCAL 1987.

FREE FONDA FLICK . . .

Humanities 210 and the College Life Office are sponsoring two showings of the 1973 film of Henrik Ibsen's landmark play, "A Doll's House," at 4 and 7 p.m. today in McCluer Hall Lounge. Jane Fonda's controversial portrayal of a young woman struggling to express her identity in the male-dominated society of late 19th Century Norway won wide critical and popular acclaim. Both showings are free to all.

STUDENT ART EXHIBIT IN FAB . . .

Richard Lux, a junior majoring in studio art, has an exhibit of 20 black-and-white photographs on display at the FAB now through September 30. The exhibit, entitled "Academic Shadows in Silver," is the result of an independent study with Hans Levi, associate professor of art and photography who is in Europe this semester on a sabbatical year. The photographs are displayed in the FAB's Lower Gallery.

CAP CENTER EXTENDS HOURS . . .

The Consolidated Advising Program (CAP) Center in Niccolis Hall has extended its hours for career, academic and personal counseling and development. Beginning this week, the center will be open Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. until 9 p.m.; on Fridays, it is open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Donna Bennett, coordinator of Work Programs & Job Placement in the CAP Center, also will be available for appointments on Tuesday evenings in addition to her regular hours. Bennett is responsible for career counseling, assistance with resume writing, internships and part and full-time employment opportunities. If you have any questions or if you would like to schedule an appointment with her, contact Joann Massmann in the CAP Center, extension #237.
