

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. NINE

SEPT. 23, 1986

NOMINATIONS BEING ACCEPTED . . .

Nominations can be made to President Spainhower for a successor to George W. Tilden, Jr., vice-president of finance, who is resigning his position September 30 to rejoin Centerre Trust Co. Spainhower will assume the position until a successor is named, and he will be in the Business Office each morning from 9-11 a.m. Nominations should be submitted to the president immediately.

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOPS . . .

Lindenwood is offering a series of six workshops for intermediate and advanced watercolorists beginning Wednesday on campus. The series will be instructed by Shirley Eley Nachtrieb, a St. Charles artist who has distinguished herself nationally and in the local area with numerous exhibits, workshops, classes and demonstrations. The series runs through November 5, from 6:30-9 p.m. on Wednesdays in the FAB. Designed for intermediate and advanced students, it will cover still lifes, portraits and landscapes. Cost is $65 per person. For more information, contact John Wehmer or Dean Eckert at the Art Dept., Ext. #240.

COMMUNTER DISCOUNT TICKETS . . .

Lindenwood commuter students can take advantage of discount meal tickets being offered by Ayres Cafeteria. Two plans are available - one for $15 which entitles students to five lunches or breakfasts and one for $20 which entitles students to five breakfasts, lunches or dinners. Find out more about the plans by talking to one of the cashiers in the cafeteria.

BLOOD DRIVE THURSDAY AT McCLUER . . .

The Interhall Government is sponsoring a blood drive Thursday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in McCluer Hall Lounge. Anyone interesting in donating blood or assisting with the five-hour event should contact Brenda Eisenbeise, Cindi Sitz or Marilyn Morris at Ext. #222.

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP SET . . .

The Gateway Council of Student Activities Directors is sponsoring its fourth Leadership Workshop September 27 at St. Louis University. Running from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., the event will include a variety of topics, sessions and discussions. Cost is $15, and transportation may be provided. If you're interested in attending, contact Marilyn Morris at Ext. #222.

FRESHMEN WORKSHOP SCHEDULE . . .

The CAP Center will host freshmen workshops on "Career Exploration and Decision Making," a follow-up to the career investment inventories given during fall orientation. Dates and times for the 90-minute workshops are 6:30 p.m. September 29, 11:45 a.m. October 7, 2 p.m. October 8, 6:30 p.m. October 21, 11:45 a.m. October 23, 2 p.m. October 29, 3:30 p.m. November 5, and 11:45 a.m. on November 11 and 13. Freshmen must register for one workshop. To do so, contact Joann Massmann in the CAP Center, Ext. #237.

INTERESTED IN INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL? . . .

If you're interested in playing intramural coed softball, contact Marilyn Morris at extension #222. A single elimination tournament is planned, with trophies awarded to the top three teams. Rosters will be limited to 10 men and 10 women. For more details, contact Morris at Ext. #222.

WANT TO STUDY IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL? . . .

Applications are being accepted now for a semester at the American University in Washington, DC, next spring. Lindenwood is one of 200 institutions participating in the Washington Semester Program, which offers studies in American National Government, U.S. Foreign Policy, Economic Policy, Journalism and Justice. A limited number of scholarships are available. For more information about this unique program, see Dean Eckert or Edith Graber, or see the bulletin outside 206 Roemer for more details.

VENTRILQUIST ON CAMPUS WEDNESDAY . . .

The ventriliquist team of Barber and Seville will present a presentation Wednesday in Ayres Cafeteria, beginning at 11:30 a.m. It will be a preview

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

of the show to be presented at 7:30 that night in Jelkyl Theatre. Admission is free to all students, faculty and staff; for the general public, a $1 admission will be charged for the Wednesday night event.

BOOK DISCUSSIONS THURSDAY . . .

Edith Graber of the Sociology Dept. will lead the first in a series of discussions on HABITS OF THE HEART, one of this year's selections on the All-College Reading List. Taking place on alternate Thursdays, the discussions will be held from noon to 1 p.m. in the Cardinal Room of Ayres Cafeteria, with the first beginning this week.

The book is based on independent interview projects conducted by four sociologists and, since its publication last year, has provoked lengthy analyses in leading journals. The All-College Reading List Committee invites students, faculty and staff to take part in this Thursday's discussion. HABITS OF THE HEART is available at the Bookstore and on reserve at Butler Memorial Library.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM . . .

Mark Twains Banks has "hands-on" training opportunities in various banking areas for sophomores, juniors or first-semester seniors with at least a 3.0 GPA. Students must be highly motivated, out-going and have leadership potential. The part-time position is a paid one leading to a full-time position upon graduation. For details, contact Donna Bennett at the CAP Center.

CAP CENTER COUNSELOR . . .

Susan Gerhard has joined the CAP Center to assist with personal and career counseling. Her experience includes counseling on an individual and group basis with a variety of education settings. Her office hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each Thursday, and she can be contacted at Ext. #237.

PEER COUNSELORS TRAINING . . .

This week begins training for peer counselors who will be meeting on Tuesday and Thursdays from 7-9 p.m. for the next few weeks. After training, peer counselors play a vital role in identifying other students at risk, general college life concerns and needed resources and referrals. If you're interested in the peer counseling program, contact Randi Wilson in the CAP Center.

BOARD MEMBER TO KEYNOTE LUNCHEON . . .

"Renewal of American Management" is the title of an address to be given September 23 by John D. Wolf, executive vice-president of operations for McDonnell Douglas Corp. and a member of the college's board of directors. His presentation will be made at the St. Louis Metropolitan Noonday Alumni Club's luncheon beginning at 11:30 a.m. at Stouffer's Concourse Hotel. Tickets are priced at $13 per person (or $6.50 for Lindenwood One Thousand Club members), and they can be obtained by contacting Esther Fenning in the Alumni Office, extension #319.

LCIE FACULTY PROMOTION . . .

Patricia Soucy has been appointed Core Faculty for Valuation Sciences, an extension of her role as LCIE adjunct professor. A senior member of the American Society of Appraisers who chairs the society's Valuation Sciences Committee, she is a Lindenwood graduate who teaches valuation theory and principles, personal property appraisal and material culture.

PRE-HOLIDAY SALE AT BOOKSTORE

With the arrival of fall today, it's not too early to be thinking about the holidays. The Bookstore is having a pre-Christmas markdown on a number of items that would make excellent holiday gifts. A special table with savings up to 20% is featured in the Bookstore now through October 1st. Stop, buy!

Now giving where you work helps all three.

JOINT CAMPAIGN IN BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

LCIE, EVENING COLLEGE WORKSHOPS . . .

The CAP Center is hosting a workshop of career exploration Wednesday from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in Niccolls Hall. Designed for LCIE and Evening College students, the session will explore self assessment, decision making and goal setting. Another workshop will be held October 14 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. If you're interesting in attending, contact Joann Massmann at Ext. #237.