

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 10

SEPT. 30, 1986

STUDENT TO RECEIVE GOLD MEDAL . . .

Jill A. Czapla, a Lindenwood senior, is one of seven students in Missouri to be awarded a Congressional Gold Medal for outstanding community service. Nominated by Jim Thompson, advisor to the Circle K Club, she performed more than 800 hours of community service, about half of which stems from her involvement with Circle K, where she currently serves as president.

Czapla received the award yesterday from Rep. Robert A. Young (D-MO) during a special luncheon at Marriott's Pavilion Hotel. The Congressional Gold Medal Award, along with the Congressional Medal of Honor for military service or valor in the armed services, are the only citations given by Congress to outstanding Americans, such as Czapla. The Bridgeton senior is the daughter of Jan Czapla, assistant professor and head librarian.

DRUG SYMPOSIUM OCTOBER 11 . . .

KTVI-TV and KYKY-FM are hosting a free symposium on the issues of teenage substance abuse October 11 from 7-9 p.m. at Washington University's Edison Theatre. The symposium is a follow-up to the "Parents Against Drug Abuse" program which both have sponsored the past month, and which Lindenwood contributed to. The discussion format will feature former teenage substance abusers and their families along with experts in fields of drug and alcohol rehabilitation. The symposium is for students, parents, teachers and the public. To register, call Steve Smith at Y-98 Radio, 725-9814 during the day.

BUSINESS SEMINAR SET . . .

The "Future of American Business" is the title of an address to be given October 16 by Anthony Harrigan, an author, journalist and lecturer who is president of the U.S. Business & Industrial Council in Washington, DC. Sponsored by the Babcock Center for the Study of Modern Business, the free event begins at 7 p.m. in Young Auditorium.

IMPORTANT DATES ARE UPCOMING . . .

Students should remember that October 2 is the last day to withdraw with a "W" from day or evening classes this semester, while October 3 is the last day to withdraw with a "W" from trimester classes (LCIE and Saturday Campus). October 9 is the deadline for making up incomplete grades from Spring, May or Summer terms; any incomplete not made up by this date will be changed to an "F." And, for those who plan to graduate in December, October 17 is the deadline for application - anyone who expects to graduate at the end of the fall term must complete an Application for Degree form, which is available in the Registrar's and Evening College offices.

EMPLOYEE DISCOUNT TICKETS . . .

Season tickets for the Mainstage Theatre are available to faculty and staff members at a 25% savings. They can be purchased at the Box Office for $15 for $20 season tickets or $12.75 for $15 ones. This year's season leads off with the frothy and fun musical "Dames at Sea," October 8-11 and 16-17, followed by Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," Neil Simon's "Chapter Two" and the uproarious period comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer." Informational brochures on all Mainstage productions are available at the Box Office, which is open from noon to 5 p.m. daily.

SUBMISSIONS SOUGHT FOR GRIFFIN SOCIETY . . .

Students who want to submit material for publication later this fall by the Griffin Society should send it to Campus Box #692 before November 19. Literary and creative works, such as photos, drawings, essays and poetry, are needed.

The Griffin Society is open to all students who are interested in literature and creative expression. The society meets each Monday at 5 p.m. in Ayres Cafeteria. If you're interested in joining or if you want to find out more about submitting materials, stop by, or contact Celia Angel at Box #22.

MODERN LANGUAGE CLUB MEETING . . .

All foreign students and members of the Modern Language Club are invited to the organization's first general meeting October 2 at 5 p.m. in the Cardinal Room of Ayres Cafeteria, reports club Advisor Tony Perrone, chairman of the Modern Languages Dept.

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

DOWNSTAGE PRODUCTION SET . . .

The Downstage Studio Theatre's production of "Chekhov and Friends" will be presented October 23-25 at 8 p.m. in the FAB. ### AUTUMN HAYRIDE, BARBEQUE OCTOBER 8 . . .

Faculty and staff members are invited to an Autumn Hayride and Barbeque being hosted by the Lindenwood 1000 on October 8 between 5-8 p.m. Hayrides will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the parking lot behind the stadium, while an old-fashioned barbeque will be served from 5-7 p.m. Festivities will include a bonfire and marshmallow roast. At 8 p.m. the men's soccer team competes against Maryville College. Make plans to attend. For further information and reservations, call extension #338 or #217 before October 5.

UNITED WAY REMINDER . . .

If you haven't made a tax-deductible contribution to the United Way Campaign, please take a few minutes to do so. Lindenwood is trying to raise $2,500 from all faculty and staff members as its part in the United Way's efforts to obtain $33 million in contributions. The campaign, which runs through October 15, is under the direction of Lynne Landholt of the Development Office. For further information on payroll deductions and contributions, contact her at Ext. #337.

'HABITS OF THE HEART' DISCUSSION . . .
