

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 11

OCT. 7, 1986

'DAMES AT SEA' OPENS WEDNESDAY . . .

"Dames at Sea" is a fun-filled musical journey back to the age of Hollywood flash, sparkle and romance when boy meets girl and the world lived happily ever after. It opens Wednesday in Jelkyl Theatre with performances at 8 p.m. October 8-11 and 16-17. Students may receive complimentary tickets by showing their IDs at the Box Office in Roemer Hall, which is open from noon to 5 p.m. daily. Faculty and staff tickets also are available at discounts rates.

STUDENT CONFERENCE PLANNED . . .

The Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., is invited Lindenwood students to attend a conference in Kansas City December 28 through January 1. With a theme of "No Longer Strangers," the event will include presentations by nationally-recognized speakers, small group discussions, recreation activities and informal fellowship. College Chaplain George Wilcox is on design team for the conference, and he'd like to provide interested students with more information about this event. Contact him in Niccolls Hall or at Ext. #231 for details.

ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWS . . .

Representatives of Hardees and Taco Bell will be on campus November 13-14 to interview seniors for management training positions. If you're interested, you can attend workshops on "Job Search Techniques" on October 23 and November 3 and an interviewing session on October 29. Call Donna Bennett in the CAP Center, Ext. #307, for more details, including registration information.

LCIE, EVENING COLLEGE WORKSHOPS . . .

The CAP Center is sponsoring workshops on "Job Search Techniques" for LCIE and Evening College students October 23 and November 3 from 6:30-10 p.m. and November 15 from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Niccolls Hall. The session will cover interviewing, resume writing and networking. If you're interested in attending, contact Joann Massmann at Ext. #237.

FACULTY INVITED TO AAUP PRESENTATION . . .

The Lindenwood Chapter of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) will present Linda Salamon, dean of arts and sciences at Washington University, October 22 at 2 p.m. in the Cardinal Room of Ayres Cafeteria. Salamon was a member of the national committee of the American Association of Colleges which recently examined the current state of undergraduate education in the nation. Its report, "Integrity in the College Curriculum - a Report to the Academic Community," was mentioned by Vice-President Dan Keck at the recent Faculty Retreat. This report, which is timely in light of the current examination of the Lindenwood curriculum, is on reserve at Butler Library. All faculty members and administrators are invited to attend the AAUP presentation.

DISCOUNT TICKETS AVAILABLE . . .

Discount season tickets are available for faculty and staff members for the Mainstage Theatre. Employees can purchase tickets at a 25% discount - $15 for $20 season tickets or $12.75 for $17 season tickets. This year's season leads off with the frothy and fun musical, "Dames at Sea," October 8-11 and 16-17, followed by "A Christmas Carol," Neil Simon's "Chapter Two" and the uproarious comedy "She Stoops to Conquer." Season tickets and further information are available at the Box Office in Roemer from noon to 5 p.m. daily.

PSA COMPETITION FOR STUDENTS . . .

The National Academy of Arts & Sciences (NATAS) has announced its first TV Public Service Announcement Competition for students. Winners will receive a $100 honorarium as well as the opportunity to oversee production of their 30-second PSAs. Peter Carlos of the LCIE faculty is overseeing the competition, which is open to all area college students. PSAs, which can be produced for the American Heart Association and/or the Williams Syndrome Association, must be received by October 20. Representatives from area television and advertising along with association officials will judge entries, with the NATAS notifying winners. For complete details on this competition, contact Carlos at the LCIE Office.

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS . . .

Tom Cella of Francis Howell School District's Athletic Dept. reports an internship will be available next semester for a student athletic trainer. Students must be juniors and must have a 3.0 GPA for consideration. If you're interested, contact Donna Bennett in the CAP Center.

Bennett also reports the Bridgeton Soccer Club has six internship positions available this semester and next spring for qualified candidates. They are available in management, marketing and sales, and photography. For details, contact her at Ext. #307.

COLORADO SKI TRIP . . .

The third annual ski trip to Steamboat Springs, CO, is scheduled January 3-10 for student, faculty and staff, and a few seats still are available. The cost is $330, which includes lodging, transportation, lift tickets, equipment rental and more. For details, contact Glenn Kornado at 946-5046.

CATHEDRAL TOUR SCHEDULED . . .

Lindenwood's Religious Life Council invites students, faculty and staff to participate in tours of three prominent places of worship in St. Louis on October 19 between 1-6 p.m. The tour will include St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox, St. Francis Xavier and First Presbyterian churches. The tour will originate and conclude at the St. Charles Presbyterian Church near campus. Transportation is provided for this free tour, which is limited to 30. Registration deadline is October 15. To register, do so in the College Life Office. For further details, contact the Rev. George Wilcox at Ext. #231.

'CHRISTMAS CAROL' AUDITIONS . . .

The Performing Arts Dept. will conduct auditions for "A Christmas Carol" from 7-9 p.m. October 13-14 in the FAB. This year's production, scheduled November 19-23 and December 4-7, features a new script by John Grassilli of the Theatre Project Company of St. Louis, a visiting professor at Lindenwood this fall. The play calls for five females and five males, including a teenage boy. For more information on auditions, contact the Performing Arts Dept. at Ext. #218.
