Current Comment

By PRESIDENT GAGE

AT THE end of this fiscal year following commencement I shall retire from the presidency of Lindenwood. This position I have held since March, 1941. The intervening years have been most satisfactory, both professionally and personally. For several years prior to my coming to Lindenwood I had known my predecessor, Dr. John L. Roemer, and his administrative assistants. My picture of Lindenwood was, therefore, rather well defined before moving to the campus.

What I found here corresponds quite exactly to what I had expected. In no way have I been disappointed. My hopes have been fulfilled. Also I have added a new affection to my treasury of experience. It is one thing to know and have confidence in a college. It is quite another thing to become part of an institution and to love it. Therefore, because I have added the spirit of Lindenwood to my personal possessions, I am a much richer man than I was when I came.

In June I shall end forty-four years of service in four colleges as follows: Three years as teacher, eight years as dean, thirty-three years as president. It is not my intention to serve elsewhere as teacher, dean, or president. I shall retire. The Board of Directors of Lindenwood understands my plan for retirement and support me in it.

Mrs. Gage and I have a debt of gratitude to Lindenwood, to the directors, faculty, students and alumnae. It is a debt which we shall in future years endeavor to repay.

When the Persians were marching up Athens, Themistocles withdrew his army from the city. The people said he was a deserter. He said, "I am not leaving Athens. I am leaving its streets and buildings. I am taking Athens with me in my heart." So Mrs. Gage and I, when we leave the campus, shall take Lindenwood with us in our hearts.

I do not know who my successor may be. Looking forward to his inauguration I have two fundamental hopes. First, I hope that Lindenwood may prosper. Second, I hope that it may prosper under his administration.

THE 119th annual commencement of Lindenwood College will be held on Monday, June 3, climaxing a weekend of special programs on the campus. The commencement address will be delivered by the Reverend Dr. James W. Clarke, who has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in St. Louis since September 15, 1944.

Dr. Clarke, who is a native of Scotland, is a graduate of McGill University. The United College in Winnipeg, Canada, conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1940 and in June, 1941 presented to him the Orchid Award for service to the community. In August, 1941 he became professor of homiletics in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Chicago, where he served until he was called to the Second Presbyterian Church in St. Louis.

During the first world war, Dr. Clarke served overseas for four years and was awarded the Military Cross at the Battle of Amiens. He has been a member of the National Christian Mission team and has been a guest preacher for Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick at Riverside, N. Y. and at the Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago.

The baccalaureate sermon will be preached on Sunday, June 2, by Dr. Charles F. Wishart, president emeritus of the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio. Dr. Harry Morehouse Gage, president of Lindenwood, is a graduate of Wooster College.

The topic of Dr. Wishart's sermon will be "Shadows and Reality," with the text from I. Cor. 13:12: "For now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face."

There are 90 candidates for degrees and certificates in this year's graduating class. Of this total, 50 are Seniors.

A feature of Commencement Week will be the Alumnae Day on Saturday, June 1. A cordial invitation is extended graduates and former students of the college to return to the campus on that day. The annual alumnae dinner will be held at 6 p. m. in Ayres Hall and will be followed by the annual meeting of the Lindenwood Alumnae Association and election of officers. At the dinner the members of this year's graduating class will be inducted into the association by its president, Mrs. A. Jackson Clay, of St. Charles (Enid Patterson, Class of '13).

Other officers of the association are Mrs. H. K. Stumberg (Cordelia Buck, Class of '40) vice-president;

Mrs. Kermit Westerfeld (Alice Belding, Class of '39) secretary, and Mrs. Orville Denning (Mildred Clark, Class of '37) treasurer. All are residents of St. Charles.

In order that arrangements may be made in advance all alumnae who plan to attend the dinner are requested to notify Miss Kathryn Hankins, Alumnae Secretary, in advance.

The Commencement Week program will climax a month of special activities on the campus. The annual luncheon given by the college to the members of the Senior Class will be held on May 25 at the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis. On May 17 the commencement play, "The Barretts" will be presented by Alpha Psi Omega.

One of the highlights of May will be the annual May Fete to be held this year on May 18. The theme of the fete will be an English country fair. The maypole dance will be presented by the members of the Freshman Class to the music of Wallinford's "Country Gardens."

Miss Betty Renee Stoery, a Senior, of Estherville, Iowa, will reign over the fete as Lindenwood's twenty-eighth May Queen. The Maid of Honor, selected by the Junior Class, is Miss Mary Swilley, of El Dorado, Arkansas. Senior attendants to the Queen will be Miss

Second Installment of Roll Call Of Class of 1929

By KATHRYN HANKINS, Alumnae Secretary

THIS month we present the second installment of the roll call for the Class of 1929. We plan to complete the class roll in the June issue. The following members of the class report on their activities this month:

Margaret Gibson Fagg (Mrs. Dwight Struthers), 2072 Lochmoor Blvd., Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich.: "I have been active in church work, Red Cross and P. E. O. One rather interesting hobby has been transcribing books into Braille for the blind. I have two sons, David who is 14, and Jon, 8. These, with my husband, have made mine a busy, happy and I hope a useful life. The two years I spent at Lindenwood are filled with pleasant memories and surely one of the brightest is of Kate L. Gregg, bless her! Incidentally, perhaps we could have a roll call for faculty members. It would be interesting to hear from those who have left and those who are still there to give us that one familiar touch with an ever-changing college."

Myrtle Pauline Scherer (Mrs. W. C. Voght), 7332 Country Club Dr., Normandy, Mo.: "I am a homemaker and work with the Normandy Presbyterian Church Guild and the Normandy School Mothers' Club. Our daughter, Marilyn, is 13. After graduating from Lindenwood, I took graduate work at the University of Illinois and taught English in the Coffeen and Raymond High Schools for seven years, married and have since lived in St. Louis."

Hortense E. Wolfert (Mrs. Clyde Ingersoll), Box 113, Neah Bay, Wash.: "At present I am teaching music, history and English in the Neah Bay High School. Neah Bay is a small town on the Makah Indian Reservation. It is an interesting old town, which was founded in 1790. It is located on Cape Flattery, the most northwestern spot of the U. S. A. Most of our students are Indians. Some time ago I was invited to an Indian party. It was one of the most interesting functions I have ever attended. Each family has its own songs and dances, which have been handed down for generations. No one outside the family is permitted to do these dances or sing the songs. One of the main features of the party was a grand march, led by the braves, singing and beating on tom-toms. At the end of the line of march, they took up a collection, all donations being turned over to one of the boys, who had just returned from overseas duty. The collection was just the tribe's way of showing their appreciation to the returned veteran. They are planning to give a party for each one of the 45 boys who have entered the service."

Josephine Russel Stewart (Mrs. E. H. Hall), 525 S. Westlawn Ave., Decatur, Ill.: "I can hardly realize seventeen years have passed, for I have many happy memories of Lindenwood. They have been happy and busy years, however, for I was married in November, 1929, and we have two children—Edvin, Jr., 14, and Barbara Jean, 10. With the exception of two years when I was manager of my husband's teachers' replacement agency, my time has been filled with the duties of homemaker. Activities outside the home include P. T. A., church, and Red Cross work. My hobbies are golf, in season, and antiques—any season! For the past three years, my husband's business has required our moving between here and Crawfordsville, Ind., every six months. Now that the war is over, we hope to become permanently established in Crawfordsville, where my husband is manager of the Hoosier Crown Corporation."

Jennie Ruth Gamble (Mrs. Merrill Wright), 825 E. Main St., Olney, Ill.: "After leaving Lindenwood I taught in local high schools for ten years. During that time I attended summer schools at the Southern Illinois Normal, Carbondale, Ill., and the University of Colorado. In May, 1939, I was married in Sibley Parlors to Merrill H. Wright. It was a great pleasure to me that Dr. Roemer could officiate. That summer we moved to Olney, where my husband has served as manager of the U. S. Employment Office except for a period of twenty months service in the U. S. Army. We returned to Olney the first of October and until recently were among that throng of veterans hunting a place to live but feel very fortunate now in finding a very nice little home. With new cars soon again, I hope the time may not be too far distant when we can again visit Lindenwood."

Clara Bowles (Mrs. Andrew D. Pellow), 621 N. W. Thirtieth St., Oklahoma City, Okla.: "Of course I've sung during most of these years, running the gamut of show business, entering contests, doing radio work, recitals and even a little opera. Nothing very important like getting into the 'Met' or going to Hollywood, but having lots of experiences and lots of fun. Now in the year of 1946 I'm head of the Music Dept. of a department store here in Oklahoma

Home Economic Students Present 'Lindenwood Fashions'

Forty-five Students Model Modes for Young Women Designed and Made on the Campus at Fashion Show on April 24 Under Direction of Madame Helene Lyolene

UNDER the direction of Mme. Helene Lyolene, internationally famous stylist, and Miss Donalee Wehrle, students of the Home Economics Department presented their own style show, "Lindenwood Fashions" in the auditorium of Roemer Hall on April 24. St. Louis fashion writers and members of the St. Louis Fashion Group were invited as guests of the college. A reception for the guests was held in the Library Club Room after the show.

Included in the new modes modeled by the students were robes, beachwear, cottons, suit and coat ensembles and afternoon and evening dresses. All garments exhibited were designed and made by the students who modeled them.

Mme. Lyolene spends two months on the campus each year, lecturing to the classes in clothing and in consulting with students on individual style problems. The students are taught her technique of draping designs in muslin and then cutting and fitting their own patterns, transferring them to the fabrics. Commercial patterns are never used. All of the designs exhibited in the show were original and were executed to fit the personality of the student.

The clothing classes at Lindenwood have three objectives:

1. To prepare students for the commercial field as designers or buyers.
2. To prepare students to teach home economics.
3. To provide sound techniques for use at home in later life.

Lindenwood Students Assist St. Charles Nursery School

Lindenwood students are conducting a unique experiment in community service this semester. A nursery school has been started at Powell Terrace, a new subdivision in St. Charles, and members of several college classes are assisting the director of the school by giving mental tests, helping with speech, telling stories, supervising play periods and serving meals. Classes working at the nursery include Women in Community Life, Social Research, Story Telling, Psychological Seminar, Physical Education and Home Economics. The school will be held for eight weeks as a test. If successful, it will be resumed next fall.

Miss Latherow, who has been a member of the Popularity Courts of both 1945 and 1946, is president of the Home Economics Club, secretary-treasurer of the Residence Council and a member of the Athletic Association, the Press Club and the Linden Leaves staff.

City, a job I love because it means I'm still using my musical education, working with people and making friends of my customers. I've been soloist at the First Methodist Church since coming to Oklahoma City six years ago. Incidentally, I have two daughters, who are becoming such young ladies I'm tempted to call them sisters. Fair bait for some enterprising Lindenwood representative in a few years."

Artha Lorraine Bloebaum (Mrs. Robert I. Gilley), R. R. 2, St. Charles: "After finishing my two-year course at Lindenwood, I continued to live in St. Charles until June, 1931 when I moved with my folks to Austin, Texas. There in November of that year I was married, and returned immediately to St. Charles, my husband's home. He worked for the Wabash Railroad in downtown St. Louis and is still with them, now as advertising agent. Four years ago we bought our present home, a small 6½-acre farm on the South River Road just outside of St. Charles. We are high up overlooking the Missouri River, and have a wonderful view. At present we have only chickens but have had pigs, a cow, fruit trees, and a garden to keep us busy. Last year we started strawberries and are looking forward to having them to sell this spring. We have two children, Nancy, 6, who started to school last fall, and Robert, Jr., 2. Both love the farm and enjoy helping with everything."

Ruth Fuller (Mrs. John Cross), 5643 Aubudon Rd., Bethuda, Md.: "As for myself, I married John S. Cross of South Carolina in 1932 and have been busy making a home and raising a family of two boys. In 1935 we moved to Washington, D. C. In 1940 we built our home out in Bradley Hills, Md., a suburb of Washington, D. C., and have lived here ever since. My husband went on active duty as a lieutenant commander with the Navy in March, 1942 and is still in the service. He was in both the Atlantic and the Pacific theatres, is a captain now and expects to return to a civilian status within the next few months. Now that the war is over, I hope that I may have the opportunity of returning to Lindenwood one of these days to renew acquaintances in person."

Margaretha Clark, 502 West Blvd., Mexico, Mo.: "I am teaching Junior English at the Mexico High School. The work is interesting and I thoroughly enjoy my pupils. Besides the regular class work, I am sponsor of the school paper and of the Junior class. During the thirty-three months my brother was in service, I operated the farm. The Roll Calls are always most interesting. I am eagerly looking forward to see what the other graduates of the Class of '29 are doing. Lindenwood holds fond memories for me."

Ernestine Wilson (Mrs. William O. Wagnon), 704 Chestnut St., Camden, Ark.: "My life since leaving Lindenwood has been exciting and interesting to me, but I fear it would be considered very small-townish and uninteresting to everyone else. I taught school here in Camden before and after I married. My two very fine sons are the reason I'm not teaching now. I spend my times as all mothers and homemakers do—church work, clubs (especially P. T. A. work) and I get a keen enjoyment out of it all. I do hope you get a big response from our class. I have lost contact with so many of the girls that meant a very great deal to me."

Marjorie E. Smith (Mrs. C. E. Black), Siloam Springs, Ark.: "After graduation at Lindenwood I taught English and history in my hometown high school, also had voice, expression and tap dancing pupils for two years. Next I did stenographic work in a law office. I married a hometown boy. We have one son, 11, Larry Gene, who is a Cub Scout and quite musical. My husband, for the past seven years (excepting two years Army Air Corps pilot)

Lindenwood Alumna Writes of War Experiences With Red Cross

MISS Marjorie Vanderlippe, of 4921 Cass St., Omaha, Neb., a member of the Class of '42, served for two years with the American Red Cross in India. The following letter, written after her return to this country, tells of some of her experiences:

"For two years I was with the American Red Cross in India. Naturally the Bulletin could not catch up with me as I moved from place to place, and I missed reading the news about my friends. My work was very interesting and a million dollars could not buy the wonderful experiences I had working with the troops and meeting and knowing the people of India.

"I was first stationed in Assam on an A.T.C. base for flying personnel of the Hump. Then I took a leave in the Himalayas and then moved on to Agra, where I saw the famous Taj Mahal. I was then sent to Delhi where I worked in a city club. I had a chance to fly to Kashmir and of course that is the 'Garden of Eden' spot.

"My next assignment took me to a huge reception center where we served thousands of troops in from China on their way home. From October to January I was stationed in Calcutta serving in an Officers' Information Bureau. The Red Cross did a marvelous job overseas for the boys."

has been city mail carrier. I was employed at the Selective Service Local Draft Board office during the war, but outside of that interim, my days have been full of the usual round of activities for housewives in small towns; church and missionary society work, Red Cross, P. T. A., Den Mother for Cub Scouts, teacher of Sunday School class, and my husband being an enthusiastic sportsman, have raised my share of bird dogs, etc. We are planning to build a new home when building materials are again available. Would love to see and hear from any of the girls. I just wish I had a daughter to send to L. C."

Irene Hansen (Mrs. Marvin C. Jordan), 3108 Virginia Lane, R. F. D. 3, Kansas City, Kan.: "After receiving my degree at Kansas University I taught public school music seven years. The following fall I was married in Washington, D. C., where we lived for four years, moving to Cleveland, Ohio in 1942. A year ago we came to Kansas City where we expect to remain permanently. With the exception of two war years in Cleveland, when I worked in an office, I have been a full-time homemaker since my marriage, and find it most interesting."

Elizabeth Tracy (Mrs. Dalton W. Schreiber), 7700 Forsythe, Clayton, Mo.: "I have three boys, Tracy, 14, Richard, 10, and Michael, 11. Not much chance of carrying on the tradition of Lindenwood with three sons in the family. However, they are fine boys and we are proud of them. Besides my home duties, I am assisting in the French department at Washington University this year. It is delightful work and I just love it. Kindest regards to all my old friends at Lindenwood."
