

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 16

ELECTION DAY, 1986

STUDENTS NAMED TO 'WHO'S WHO'

The names of 23 Lindenwood students will be listed in the 1987 edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES, an annual directory of some of the nation's outstanding students. Students were nominated for their academic achievement, service to the community, extracurricular involvement and potential for success.

Students include Salin Al-Battashi, Joe Arnold, Melissa Callis, Steve Crouch, Delana D. Hauser, Philip Hechler, Wilma Henrichsen, Bonnie Hoesli, Terri S. Kennison, Carole L. Knight, Christa Kracke, Patricia C. Leitsch, Robin M. McCune, Audrey A. Meyer, Linda L. Meyer, Kathleen O'Neal, Eric Reinsfelder, Carolyn J. Richards, Myra Rogers, Sandra A. Rossi, Lori K. Tucker, Glynelle L. Wells and Brenda F. Zurosky. They are among students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning throughout the United States and several foreign countries.

SAVE ON ZENITH COMPUTER EQUIPMENT

Lindenwood is an authorized order center for Zenith Data Systems (ZDS), and the college is offering substantial savings to students, faculty and staff on Zenith computers and equipment. Available are portable, desk top and personal computers as well as printers and software. Savings are about 10% above cost.

An example of a ZDS 158 Computer with color monitor is on display in the Computer Center. With a suggested retail price of nearly $2,800, this unit can be purchased for less than $1,600. Information and prices can be obtained at the Computer Center as well as the Bookstore, where orders are being taken. Purchases must be for personal use, and only one purchase per year is allowed.

TRIP TO SOUTHWEST PLANNED

"American Indian Education in the Southwest" is the title of a course that will travel to the southwestern United States, Jan. 2-19. Students will visit such places as the Heard Museum and its display of Indian art and cultural artifacts, to Navajo and Hopi Indian reservations, to the Havasupai Reservation in the Grand Canyon, to the Gila River Reservation, to the Papago Reservation near Tucson, to the San Carlos Reservation and to Arizona State University for lectures by well-known specialists on native American cultures.

According to Ray Scupin, associate professor and trip coordinator, the course is open to any student but it should appeal to those majoring in communications, social sciences and education. Cost of the course is about $500, including air fare and accommodations. For details and reservation procedures, contact Scupin at Ext. #248.

BITTNER FEATURED IN RECITAL

Groff Bittner, assistant professor of music, will present a piano recital November 16, beginning at 4 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. Open to all students, faculty and staff without charge, the recital is sponsored by the Lectures & Concerts Committee and the Lindenwood Student Government. His program will feature compositions by Scarlatti, Haydn, Schubert, Liszt and Chopin.

A member of the music faculty for 26 years, Bittner is a graduate of Indiana Central College and holds a master's degree in music from Indiana University. He has completed further study with Ozan Marsh, Patricia Benkman and Reah Sadowsky.

FULBRIGHT SEMINARS ABROAD PROGRAM

Information is available in the Dean of Faculty Office on the 1987 Fulbright Seminars Abroad Program, which will take place in Brazil, China, Egypt, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Korea, Liberia (and two other western African nations) and Pakistan. Deadline for applications is December 12. For further details and applications, stop by the dean's office.

RECEPTION WEDNESDAY IN COBBS

A reception for all undergraduate student majoring in business administration and fashion marketing is slated Wednesday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Cobbs Hall Lounge. The reception can provide an excellent opportunity for students and faculty to become better acquainted. Refreshments will be served. Circle your calendars, and make plans to attend!

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

BOARD CHAIRMAN ELECTED

Keith W. Hazelwood, a St. Charles attorney and partner in the firm Hazelwood, Barklage & Barklage, has been elected chairman of the college's board of overseers, replacing Larry G. Kelley. Hazelwood, who also will serve as a member of the board of directors, is a 1967 graduate of Dartmouth College and a 1970 graduate of Washington University School of Law. Active in the community, he is past president of the St. Charles Jaycees, a board member of the YMCA and St. Charles and St. Peters chambers of commerce, a member of the St. Peters Rotary Club and an attorney for the Missouri Federation of Young Republicans.

'A CHRISTMAS CAROL' FEATURED

Lindenwood will present an adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic, "A Christmas Carol," for its holiday performance beginning November 19 with 8 p.m. curtain times November 19-22 and December 4-6. Weekend matinees are scheduled at 2 p.m. November 22-23 and December 6-7. All will be in Jelkyl Theatre. Tickets are $5 and $6. For reservations, stop by the Box Office in Roemer Hall between noon and 5 p.m. daily. For further information, contact Matt Schliesman at the Performing Arts Dept., Ext. #218.

PR INTERNSHIP AVAILABLE

Aaron D. Cushman & Associates, a national public relations agency, is recruiting juniors, seniors and recent graduates for spring internships, which are paid, full-time positions. If you're interested, contact Donna Bennett in the CAP Center before November 17.

AAUW SEEKS CORPORATE REP

Lindenwood is a corporate member of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), and it is looking for a female member of the faculty or administration to serve as corporate representative. This person serves as the liaison between the college and the AAUW. Women interested in serving in this capacity should contact Dean Daniel Keck as soon as possible.

CHRISTMAS WALK SET DECEMBER 7

The well-known Bob Kramer's Marionettes will present free performances during the college's Annual Christmas Walk, slated December 7 from 4-7:30 p.m. on campus. Kramer's Marionettes, which will perform several shows in Young Auditorium, will be one of several entertainment attractions for the entire family at the fourth Annual Christmas Walk, holiday event that is becoming a tradition.

According to Lynne Landholt, chairperson of the event, tentative events on the festively-decorated campus include performances by St. Charles Emanuel Lutheran Church's Bell Ringers, storytelling events for children, performances by the Lindenwood Brass Quintet, a visit by Santa Claus, tours of campus facilities and decorated residence halls and refreshments. Following the event, the Performing Arts Dept. will present "A Christmas Carol" at 8 p.m. in Jelkyl.

GOT THE LATE-NIGHT MUNCHIES?

If so, head to the Snack Bar in Niccolls Hall. The Snack Bar is open Sunday through Thursday from 8-11 p.m., featuring soda, snacks and candy to ease those evening hunger pains.

CAP CENTER JOB OPENING

The CAP Center has an immediate opening for a full-time Coordinator of Job Placement. Responsibilities include working closely with faculty, staff, alumni and area employers; organizing career panels, presentations and recruitment events; and facilitating career preparatory workshops. The position also requires maintaining full and part-time job listings and coordinating student placement as well as arranging internships. A bachelor's degree is required, a master's in the social sciences preferred. If you're interested or know of someone who may be, contact Donna Bennett at the CAP Center, extension #307, no later than November 7.

FOR A TEN, GET A TOTE

You can support the Lindenwood Alumni Association by purchasing a tote bag for $10. The attractive bags contain the inscription, Lindenwood College, St. Charles, MO, and feature a drawing of the front gates. Proceeds from the bag sales will be earmarked for alumni association activities, such as renovating classrooms throughout the year and for sponsoring the baccalaureate reception for seniors next May. Tote bags are on sale at the Bookstore.

PART-TIME BANK POSITIONS

Mercantile Bank in St. Louis has several part-time clerical positions open for students. Five to six students are needed immediately to work flexible hours, 15-20 per week, at up to $5 per hour. For details, contact Donna Bennett in the CAP Center, Ext. #307.

VIDEO-TAPE INTERVIEWING

Evening College students, seniors and those in LCIE have the opportunity to practice interviewing in front of a camera today and tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Night Owl Nook of Butler Library. Here's a chance to see what you really look and sound like on video. You must register! To do so, call the CAP Center at Ext. #237. Questions? Call Donna Bennett at the CAP Center.
