

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 17

NOV. 11, 1986

PRESIDENT FEATURED AT COLLOQUIUM

"Religion and Politics" is the title of a presentation and discussion by President Jim Spainhower Thursday when the English Dept. presents its colloquie from noon to 1 p.m. in the English Lounge of Butler Hall. The author of the book, PEOPLE, PEWS AND POLITICS, Spainhower is an ordained minister of the Christian Church. Best known as a political leader in Missouri prior to becoming Lindenwood president in 1983, he served eight years as a member of the Missouri House of Representatives and eight as state treasurer. Informal get-togethers on subjects of wide interest, the colloquie are held throughout the year, open to all.

PARTNERSHIP DRIVE BEGINS

Lindenwood has launched the Partnership Drive, a campaign to raise $90,000 in cash and contributions from area businesses between now and mid-December. The drive is directed by Gary N. Shaw, vice-president of E.F. Hutton & Co. of St. Charles and a member of the board of overseers. Shaw will direct nine team team captains who will contact local businesses and individuals, seeking support for the college. The $90,000, part of $120,000 that is sought from the local community this fiscal year, will be used for scholarships, for general operating expenses and capital renovation. The entire local campaign, the Community Support Division, is directed by William G. Lewis, legislative public relations chairman of Continental Telephone in Wentzville and a member of the board of overseers.

HEALTH CENTER DIRECTOR NAMED

Patricia A. Young, a staff nurse and counselor on the intensive and intermediate psychiatric units at St. Joseph's Health Center, has been named Director of the Health Center. A 1963 graduate of St. John's School of Nursing in St. Louis, she has completed health workshops and sessions at the University of Missouri, St. Louis University, Emory University and the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to joining St. Joseph's Health Center in 1969, she was a staff nurse at Ryburn Memorial Hospital in Ottawa, IL. Young replaces Jane Henthorn who recently resigned the position.

ART LECTURE NOVEMBER 14TH

Fire Cruxent, an artist who along with her husband, Jorge, will display their works on campus, will present a lecture at 9 a.m. November 14 in 202 FAB. Open to all students, faculty and staff, it will compare the works of Theodore Gericault and George Caleb Bingham.

"Imagery in Color" is the title of the exhibit that will be in the Hendren Gallery November 15 through December 12. Featuring compositions in gouache, an opaque watercolor medium, the exhibit includes line drawings, wall hangings and collages. Prior to moving to Tennessee last year, the Cruxents lived in Spain. A native of Venezuela, Jorge Cruxent studied at the San Jorge School of Art in Spain, while his wife received her education at Wellesley College and the Boston Museum of the Fine Arts. Both artists have exhibited extensively in Spain and at the National Watercolor Exhibition at the Museum of Art in Springfield, MO.

CONCESSION STAND NEEDS WORKERS

Workers are needed for the concession stand at the stadium this weekend when the St. Charles Junior Football League sponsors several games November 14-16. Interested campus groups can earn a 20% profit from concession stand sales. If you're interested, contact Marilyn Morris at Ext. #222 in Niccolls Hall.

PEER COUNSELORS ANNOUNCE HOURS

An essential part of the advisory and counseling service at Lindenwood, peer counselors are students who have completed an intense training program and who play a vital role in identifying other students at risk, general college life concerns and needed resources and referrals. Peer counselors this year are Kim Jones, who's available Mondays from 7-9 p.m. at the CAP Center; Christy Diven, who's available on Mondays from 7-10 p.m. at 219 Parker (ext. #367 on call) and Tuesdays from 7-9 at the CAP Center; Sophia Wehmer, who's available 2-5 p.m. on Tuesday at the CAP Center and 2-5 p.m. Wednesdays at 115 Irwin (ext. #293 on call); Randy Mitchell, who's available Tuesdays from 7-10 p.m. at 207

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

Cobbs Hall and Wednesdays from 7-9 p.m. and Fridays from 2-5 p.m. at the CAP Center; and Beth Eaton, who's available on Thursdays from 6-9 p.m. at the CAP Center and from noon to 3 p.m. at 303 Irwin (947-1948 on call). Available hours are on a "drop-in" basis; appointments should be made if you want to see a different peer counselor or one at a different time from those listed.

KCLC AIRS UNTIL THE BITTER END . . .

An example of KCLC-FM's commitment to community service was exemplified last week during the station's coverage of the election. KCLC students and staff members were some of the last to leave the board of election headquarters, and the station remained on the air until 3 a.m. when all votes were tabulated. KCLC provided listeners with one of the most complete election coverages with up-to-the minute vote tabulations, political analysis and live reports from the board of elections.

OFFICE MANAGER HIRED . . .

Marcia D. Larsen of St. Charles has joined Lindenwood as office manager in Niccolls, replacing Joann Massmann. Holding an associate degree from St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley, she is a graduate of the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a major in English and a minor in secondary education. Previously, she has been employed as a clerk-typist at UMSL, as a teacher aide and librarian for University City Schools and as a food service supervisor at Christian Hospital Northwest and Maryville College.

LOST ENCYCLOPEDIA SOUGHT . . .

The CAP Center has lost a copy of the ENCLYLOPEDIA OF CAREERS, the sixth edition, volume three, from its Resource Room. Whatever assistance can be given in locating the book would be appreciated.

SENIOR PHOTO SESSIONS EXTENDED . . .

The deadline for seniors to have their photos taken has been extended for two more weeks, meaning you have until next Saturday for yearbook photos. There is no charge for shots, but you must call Gallery Photography in St. Charles and make an appointment with Mark, 946-6629.

'THANKS' FROM MOM-TO-BE . . .

Joann Massmann, former office manager in Niccolls Hall, sends a sincere thanks to all faculty, staff and students who took part in her recent farewell activities. "The calls and visits for best wishes were very much appreciated," she adds.

FINAL JOB SEARCH WORKSHOP . . .

This semester's last Job Search Workshop will be Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall. Registration is required. To do so, call Marcia Larsen at Ext. #237

TACO BELL INTERVIEWS . . .

Taco Bell Corp. will conduct on-campus interviews Friday for seniors who are interested in management trainee postions with the firm. For registration procedures and further information, contact Marcia Larsen at the CAP Center.

CAMPUS PLANNING SESSION . . .

The Valuation Sciences Committee of the American Society of Appraisers (ASA) met on campus recently to plan Lindenwood's appraisal degree programs. Plans were made for developing the programs under a valuation institute, which also will promote research and publication, and for the establishment of academic resources and fund raising, according to Richard Rickert and Patricia Soucy of the Valuation Sciences faculty who coordinated the two-day meeting. ASA members from New York City, Philadelphia, Miami, Houston, Denver and Chicago took part.
