

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 19

DEC. 2, 1986

VICE-PRESIDENT OF FINANCE NAMED . . .

Upon the unanimous recommendation of the Search Committee, President James I. Spainhower has appointed Kenneth Musbach as Vice-President of Finance, effective immediately. Controller at Lindenwood for nearly five years, Musbach was one of 40 candidates screened by the committee, which consisted of Vice-President of Academic Affairs Daniel Keck, Vice-President of Administration Jerry Rufkahr and Henry J. Elmendorf, chairman of the board of director's Finance Committee.

A graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia with a degree in business administration, Musbach served as business manager at Eden Theological Seminary prior to joining Lindenwood in January, 1982. Previously, he was president of Musbach Chevrolet, Inc., in Olney, IL, and market research analyst and assistant to the district manager of Standard Oil Co. in St. Louis.

"The financial stability of Lindenwood College is my primary concern," Musbach said, "and I feel I can make a significant contribution towards that goal as Vice-President of Finance."

HATS OFF TO THE LADY LIONS - The Lindenwood community salutes Coach Deborah Kehm and the women's soccer team which recorded its most successful season in college history. Competing in National Association Intercollegiate Athletics finals, the Lady Lions secured a fourth-place finish in national competition with an impressive 20-2-1 season (officially 8-14-1).

'SHARE THE SPIRIT' WITH KCLC-FM . . .

Extensive news coverage of recent area flooding by KCLC-FM has prompted the station to sponsor a toy drive for flood victims. The "Share the Spirit of Christmas Toy Drive" continues through December 23 in conjunction with local community agencies. Collection barrels are located in Roemer and the MAB, and toys worth $5 or more in new or good condition are sought. Toys will be distributed on Christmas Eve.

The idea for the toy drive came from Linda Meyer, a senior majoring in broadcast communications who is news coordinator at KCLC-FM. "KCLC wants to become involved in St. Charles, and we want to see those families who lost it all during the floods to have a brighter Christmas than they might have had otherwise," she said. "The children will be the ones who will suffer the most. They have to be the ones to hear why Santa brought so much less this year when they deserve so much more. Put an extra child on your Christmas list, and join us in sharing the spirit."

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

DECORATING WINNERS ANNOUNCED . . .

Winners in the holiday Door and Residence Hall Decorating Contest are Carol Whitman and her first-place "Season's Greetings" message adorning her office at 25 Roemer. Second-place goes to the Business Office for its snowman creation at 117 Roemer. The Security Office on the ground floor of Roemer secured a third-place win with its "Santa's Workshop" creation. The five-member committee that judged contest yesterday selected Irwin as the winner in the residence hall competition.

The committee voiced "no comment" to reported rumors that at least one member had received a bribe to influence the committee's selections. An eyewitness reported seeing one member (who shall remain nameless but who reportedly was wearing a suit and tie and glasses and who had aura of presidential authority about him) stuff currency into his pocket near the PR Office. Another source close to the committee (who also shall remain nameless, but who works for the so-called presidential authority mentioned previously and who is expecting her first child next March) reported the $1 bribe was divided equally among five committee members. She also reported the bribe was not influenced by the briber as the latter did not win. Although efforts to substantiate this potential Lindengate have proven unsuccessful through censorship, "Communique" has exercised journalistic excellence by protecting its sources, revealing no information which could lead in any way to their possible identification.

WALK WITH US THIS SUNDAY . . .

Get into the holiday spirit by taking part in this year's Annual Christmas Walk from 4-7:30 p.m. Sunday on campus. Bring your family and friends. See Bob Kramer's Marionettes, the Lindenwood Brass Quintet, Emanuel Lutheran Church's Bell Ringers, the festively-decorated campus and the Lindenwood College Women's Ensemble. Listen to story telling. Take part in the Candlelight Festival of Lessons and Carols at the College Chapel. Visit Santa Claus. And, enjoy holiday refreshments. Afterwards, enjoy the Performing Arts Department's production of "A Christmas Carol" at 8 p.m. in Jelkyl.

COMPUTER PROGRAM EXPANSION . . .

John Dooley, assistant professor of computer science, reports the enhancement of the Math & Computer Science Department's academic computer with the installation of a 300-line per minute printer and eight additional communication ports. The equipment recently was acquired as part of a donation to Lindenwood from the Equity Real Estate Management Co. in St. Louis. The additions will allow the entire computer science program to move from the college's VAX computer in Roemer Hall to the PDP-11 system in Young Hall, beginning with the spring semester, Dooley said.

WOMEN'S BOARD MEETS THURSDAY . . .

The Lindenwood Women's Board will meet Thursday at 12:30 p.m. in Young Lounge to discuss articles and books which focus on current issues. There will be four brief presentations along with discussion sessions to talk about your feelings on topics concerning women and men too. Bring your lunch and join the group.

PASS OUT THE CIGARS . . .

Simon Edward is the name given to the newborn son of Solon Chervitz, associate professor and professional librarian, and his wife, Jaina Best. Born November 19 at St. Mary's Health Center, the baby was 21 1/2 inches long and weighed 9 lbs., 4 ozs., at birth. Simon Edward is the University City couple's third child.

NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER TO SPEAK . . .

Ray Hartmann, publisher of the RIVERFRONT TIMES, will address a "Basic Reporting" class today at 2 p.m. in 311 Roemer Hall. The presentation, which will include a question-and-answer period, is open to all communications majors as well as other interested students

PARKVIEW GARDENS DONATES POINSETTIAS . . .

The beautiful holiday poinsettias that are on display at Sibley Hall, the FAB and Butler Library are courtesy of Parkview Gardens, 1925 Randolph. Parkview extends an invitation to the Lindenwood community to see a variety of holiday flowers and gifts and to take part in the Christmas Walk-Thru at its greenhouse, located opposite Blanchette Park in St. Charles, daily from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. or on December 7 from noon to 3 p.m.

AVOID STRESS DURING HOLIDAYS . . .

Faculty, staff and students are invited to a session Wednesday designed to provide information on how to avoid stress during the holidays. Sponsored by Health Center, it will be at 11:30 a.m. in the Cardinal Room of Ayres. "Take steps to reduce holiday stress, and give yourself an edge on stress before it becomes distress," said Pat Young, newly-appointed director of the Campus Health Center.

CHRISTMAS DANCE FRIDAY AT SIBLEY . . .

The Annual Lindenwood Christmas Dance is slated Friday from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. in Sibley Hall. Sponsored by the LSG, the dance will feature refreshments and hors d'oeuvres in addition to live music. Tickets, priced at $2 per person or $3 per couple, are available at the door.
