

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 22

JAN. 20, 1987

BOARD MEMBER TO ADDRESS ALUMNI . . .

"The Selling of St. Louis" will be explored January 29 when John M. Stephens, vice-president of marketing for the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association (RCGA) addresses the Lindenwood St. Louis Metropolitan Noon-Day Alumni Club. His presentation follows a 11:30 a.m. luncheon at the Missouri Athletic Club in downtown St. Louis.

A member of the Lindenwood College Board of Overseers, Stephens also serves as executive director of the State of St. Louis, Inc., a $1.2 million national advertising and public relations campaign by the RCGA to attract more jobs and businesses to the metro area. A Lindenwood alumnus who majored in business and communication arts, Stephens also serves as a board member of the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis and as a member of the VP Fair Foundation's Public Relations Committee.

Tickets, priced at $10 each or $8 each for Lindenwood 1000 Club members, can be obtained by contacting Esther Fenning in the Alumni Office, extension #317, before Friday.

'CHAPTER TWO' AUDITIONS SCHEDULED . . .

The Performing Arts Dept. announces auditions today and tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in Room 213 of the FAB for its upcoming production, Neil Simon's contemporary comedy, "Chapter Two." Auditions will consist of reading selected scenes from Simon's poignant autobiographical play. Those who wish to audition are requested to prepare a three-minute comedic monologue. The play will be presented February 18-21 and 26-28 at Jelkyl Theatre

COMMUNICATIONS INSTRUCTOR HIRED . . .

Marcia Guckes, former news producer for KTVI-TV since 1983, has been appointed as an instructor in the Communications Dept. and Executive News Director of KCLC Radio. A 1973 graduate of Missouri Valley College, she holds an M.A. degree in journalism from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Guckes is a former instructor at St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley who has held positions as Public Affairs Director for KWAX-FM Radio in Eugene, OR, and Education Projects Coordinator for the Missouri Dept. of Conservation. She also has been a reporter for the NEWS DEMOCRAT in Belleville, IL, the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, the DAILY JOURNAL in New Ulm, MN, and the Suburban News Bureau in St. Louis.

A recipient of a 1984 Emmy Award, she also will serve as director of the college's video facility in Young Hall and as faculty advisor to the student publication, the LINDEN WORLD.

COLLEGE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED . . .

Life Services, Inc., a United Way agency, seeks volunteers to staff its 24-hour crisis phone lines. Interested persons must be 18 years of age or older and be able to work 12 hours per month. Training will take place this month. If you're interested or want more details, call Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, Ext. #307.

MASS HELD EACH SUNDAY EVENING . . .

Father John H. Schneider, associate pastor at St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church in Lemay, has been appointed chaplain of the Newman Center on campus. Pastor Schneider will be on campus each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the CAP Center. He also will conduct Mass for all Catholic students, faculty and staff each Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel.

CAREER COORDINATOR NAMED . . .

Debra L. Coats, a former admissions counselor, has been named Career Coordinator at the CAP Center. Coats, who replaces Donna M. Bennett and some of her responsibilities, is responsible for student internships and career counseling.

A staff member since 1985, she is a 1981 graduate of Indiana Central University and holds an M.A. in sociology from Ball State University. Prior to joining Lindenwood, she served as a consultant, assistant account executive and office manager at Hill & Knowlton, Inc.

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

PAINTING, DRAWING EXHIBIT OPENS . . .

Paintings and drawings by John O'Bannon, art instructor in the Fort Zumwalt School District, are on display now through February 10 at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the FAB. The works, largely portraits, figure studies and domestic interior scenes, reveal O'Bannon's realistic mode of perception.

O'Bannon studied at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts prior to receiving an undergraduate degree from St. Louis University and an M.F.A. from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville. Works by the artist have been selected for inclusion at recent exhibits of the St. Louis Artists' Guild and others.

Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and from 1-5 p.m. on weekends.

INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE NOW . . .

There are several exciting internship opportunities available this semester for Lindenwood students. To qualify, you must be at least a junior with a minimum 3.0 GPA. Interested? Then contact Debbie Coats in the CAP Center, Ext. #307, for full details.

One available this semester is a photography position in the Development Office. The internship consists of taking, developing and printing photos for development and fund-raising use. Interested? Give Coats a call.

COEDS IN NATIONAL COMPETITION . . .

Two Lindenwood coeds, Jennifer Grabowski and Wilma Henrichsen, both of St. Charles, are among nearly 1,000 women competing in GLAMOUR magazine's 1987 Top Ten College Women Contest, a national event to select 10 outstanding coeds at colleges and universities throughout the country. Grabowski is a sophomore majoring in corporate and industrial communications while Henrichsen, a senior, is majoring in mass communications.

A panel of magazine editors will select the winning coeds this spring on the basis of scholastic achievement and involvement in extra-curricular activities. The 10 winners will be featured in the August issue of GLAMOUR, receive media exposure and win an expenses-paid trip to New York City to meet with professionals in their individual fields of interest or career pursuits.

SUMMER HOUSE SITTER AVAILABLE . . .

Faculty members who'll be out of town this summer during July and August might want to look into a house-sitting proposal by a St. Charles family currently residing in England. Dr. R.M. and Janine Sandfort are interested in looking after a residence in St. Charles for up to a month this summer. If you'll interested and want further information, write to them in care of Monsanto, 800 N. Lindbergh Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63141.

LOOKING FOR EMPLOYMENT? . . .

In order to match more effectively job seekers with appropriate employment opportunities, the CAP Center has established a new procedure for students looking for work. Students interested in either full or part-time employment need to stop by the CAP Center and fill out a new "Job Card," which lists areas of interest, availability, experience, etc. Available jobs will be matched with these new cards.

JANUARY BOOKSTORE SALE . . .

For the remainder of the month, the newly-relocated Bookstore is offering a 50% discount on all Lindenwood jackets and sweaters. All costume jewelry is being offered at a 25% savings.

And, while you're checking these savings, visit the Bookstore's new "Valentine Boutique," offering Valentine gifts, stuffed animals and candy, including the Ribbons & Bows heart-shaped boxes of chocolate. The bookstore is on the main floor of Niccolls next to the CAP Center.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE EXTENDED . . .

The deadline for registration for the March 6 "Gateway to Careers" Job Fair has been extended until this Friday. If you haven't registered, or if you want more details, contact Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, Ext. #307.

SPRING SEMESTER HOURS FOR CAP CENTER

Newly-announced hours for the CAP Center in Niccolls Hall are from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday.

COUNCIL REFURBISHES 209 ROEMER . . .

It was an uncommon sight as members of the President's Council donned old clothes, rolled up their sleeves and handled paint scrapers, sandpaper, putty knives, cleaning tools and paint brushes to refurbish 209 Roemer last weekend. The result is a classroom that is clean with newly-stained woodwork and desks and freshly-plastered and painted walls and ceiling. In addition to doing the work, council members each donated $20 for supplies and materials, including new venetian blinds.

Restoration of the classroom stems from a similar project this summer in which area alumni, led by Erick Stuhler, an attorney and 1978 alumnus, refurbished 223 Roemer.
