CIRCLE K REFURBISHES 213 ROEMER . . . Room 213 in Roemer Hall looks brighter thanks to the recent efforts of Lindenwood's Circle K Club. Following the tradition started by the Lindenwood St. Charles Alumni Club and pursued by the President's Council, another class-room has received a facelift. About a dozen members of the campus-community service organization worked over the weekend to plaster and paint the room with materials furnished by Circle K. According to Kent Kolker of Circle K, this marks the first time a student organization has ever undertaken this type of activity. Other groups or ogranizations who would like to refurbish classrooms are urged to contact the Development Office.
