VOL. FIVE, NO. 26

FEB. 17, 1987

EIGHT INDUCTED INTO ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA . . . Eight students recently were inducted into the Lindenwood chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta, the national scholastic honor society. They are Bonnie Carpenter of St. Charles, a junior majoring in math and mechanical engineering; Diane R. Dreyer of Wright City, a student pursuing a certificate in elementary education; JoAnn Herman of St. Paul, MO, a senior majoring in psychology; Bryce S. Lane of Harvester, MO, a sophomore majoring in art; Martha Launer of St. Charles, a junior majoring in business administration and computer science; Beverly Pentsil of Cairo, IL, a sophomore majoring in business administration; Vivek S.J.B. Rana of Nepal; and Scott D. Schneider of St. Charles, a junior majoring in business administration and computer science.

With a membership of more than 240,000 at 206 chapters throughout the country, Alpha Lambdal Delta has recognized superior academic performance amoung college and university students since its founding at the University of Illinois in 1924. The Lindenwood chapter is advised by Edith Graber, associate professor and chairperson of sociology.

INFORMATION FOR UPCOMING GRADUATES . . .

Now through March 16, the Bookstore is taking measurements for caps and gowns for baccalaureate and graduation in May. Measurements and orders will be taken daily, as well as until 7 p.m. on Mondays and Tuesdays to accommodate seniors. Graduation annoucements are available at the Bookstore, priced at $3 for a package of five.

SEMESTER DEADLINES APPROACHING

Another reminder that the last day to drop a day or evening class this semester and obtain a grade of "W" is this Friday. Friday also is the deadline for applying for graduation on May 16.

March 4 is the deadline for making up an incomplete grades from the fall semester. Incompletes not made up by this date will change to "F" grades unless an extension of time has been granted by the Educational Policies Committee.

WATERCOLOR WORKSHOPS SLATED

A series of workshops in watercolor for beginning painters will be presented March 18-April 29 at Lindenwood by Shirley Elley Nachtreib, a well-known local artist. Sponsored by the Art Dept., the workshops will take place from 6:30-9 p.m. each Wednesday in the FAB. The fee is $65 per person for the six sessions. For further details and registration procedures, contact Dean Eckert or John Wehmer at the Art Dept., Ext. #240.

SACKMAN FEATURED IN INTERVIEW . . .
"New Ways Sought To Finance Education" is the title of an article featuring an interview with Larry Sackman, director of financial aid, which appears in the current issue of AMERICAN CREDIT UNION, a national financial news tabloid for credit unions throughout the country. The illustrated article concerns ways to finance a college education, such as some of the alternative ones found at private institutions like Lindenwood.

INTERVIEWS FOR EDUCATION STUDENTS

A representative from St. Louis Public Schools will be on campus March 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to conduct job interviews for seniors. For further information and to sign up, call Debbie Coats in the CAP Center at Ext. #307.

FREE JAVA WITH A DANISH

Watch out Dunkin Donuts and 7-Eleven, the Bookstore has a better deal to get you started these February mornings. With the purchase of a danish or sweet roll for 35 cents, you get a free cup of coffee. Hurry, as this offer is good mornings only now through February 27. And, while you're at the Bookstore, check some of the great new gift wrap ensembles for that special person!

CONTEST OPEN TO STUDENT JOURNALISTS

ROLLING STONE Magazine announces its 1987 Journalism Competition which will honor student writers at college and university campuses. Students can compete in three categories - General Reporting, Essays & Criticism and Entertainment Reporting, with $1,000 cash prizes and Smith Corona electric typewriters to be award for top entries in each category. All entries must have been published in a university or student newspaper or magazine between April 1, 1986, and April 1, 1987. For further information and entry forms, contact the Public Relations Dept., #6 Roemer.

UMSL OPTOMETRY DAY MARCH 6 . . .

Is your future in sight? Look into the sixth Annual Optometry Day scheduled at the School of Optometry on the University of Missouri-St. Louis campus March 6. Information on educational requirements, careers and optometric information will be offered during the 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. event. Register by March 2 and receive a free lunch at UMSL. For details, registration and more information, call Professor John A. Bornmann at Ext. #235.

CPR FILM SCHEDULED FEBRUARY 25

"Heart Savers," a film on CPR, and a discussion and demonstration of this life-saving technique are scheduled from 6:30-9:30 p.m. February 25 in the lower level of Irwin Hall. Sponsored by the Health Center, the session is open to all faculty, staff and students; CPR certification, however, is limited to staff. Seating is limited, so if you plan to attend, call center Director Pat Young at Ext. #270.

INNER ANNOUNCED TODAY AT 1 P.M.
A Lindenwood sweatshirt awaits the winner of the Bookstore's Baby Picture WINNER ANNOUNCED TODAY Contest, and it will be awarded at 1 p.m. today. Stop by, and see which student, faculty or staff member correctly identified the most photos!

A 'NIGHT AT THE IMPROV' The LSG is sponsoring the "Night at the Improv" February 24, beginning at 8 p.m. at the Student Center. Admission is $1 for a night of fun and refreshments.

NAME THAT TUNE, ER, CARNIVAL.

Noon Saturday is the deadline for submitting names for the carnival to be held on campus, tentatively April 10-12. The "Name that Carnival Committee" through the Office of Programs & Residences is sponsoring a contest with the winner to be announced February 23 at noon in the cafeteria. Think of some clever names, and submit them by Saturday to Burma Wilkins, Campus Box #673.
