

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 30

ST. PATRICK'S DAY, 1987

JASMINE TO APPEAR FRIDAY ON CAMPUS . . .

The well-known St. Louis female trio, Jasmine, will appear in concert Friday at 8 p.m. at Jelkyl Theatre. Presented by the RIVERFRONT TIMES and KCLC-FM, the evening will feature a classic fusion of jazz and pop music by Michelle Isam, Lydia Ruffin and Carol Schmidt, who have just released their new album, "Wild Strings." The concert is underwritten by the LSG and the Lectures & Concerts Committee. Tickets, priced at $6 each, are available at the Box Office in Roemer Hall, at Paradise Records in St. Charles and at West End Wax and Euclid Records in the Central West End. Don't miss an exciting evening featuring one of the area's most popular and talented groups.

SATIRE AT DOWNSTAGE OPENS MARCH 26 . . .

The Downstage Theatre's final production this semester, Christopher Durang's "Baby with the Bathwater," will be performed March 26-28 at 8 p.m. in 101 FAB. Recommended for mature audiences, the play is a sharp satire that lampoons many subjects, like parenting, psychology and popular modern fiction. Cast members include D. Keith Muessigmann, Laura Muckerman, Jimmy Felder, Lisa Albert, Jenny Morrison, Susan Crain, Candace Kilpatrick, Tess Metcalf and Bryan Reeder. No reservations are required; a $1 donation is requested at the door.

PHONE-A-THON OFF TO GREAT START . . .

Only two weeks under way, the Annual Alumni Phone-a-Thon has raised nearly $10,000 in pledges. The fourth annual event began February 23 with a staff of seven paid volunteers - Jannett Crook, Joell Crook, Carol Figus, Frances Summers, Lisa Tokas, Scott Wilcox and Donna Ziegemeier. The core of the this group helped to raise $119,000 of the $278,000 contributed by alumni last year. Lindenwood, with a 45% level of alumni support, has the highest percentage in the state and one of the highest in the country. The second phase of the phone-a-thon begins April 6 with alumni, faculty and staff who'll be calling alumni each evening. For the third year, this year's event is supervised by Chris Campbell, marking operations coordinator for Alumni/Development.

ART EXHIBIT OPENS SUNDAY AT FAB . . .

Paintings and drawings by Jean Perrone, a Lindenwood alumna and art instructor at the Francis Howell School District, will be exhibited March 22 through April 3 at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the FAB. A reception to honor the artist is slated from 2-4 p.m. Sunday; the reception and the exhibit are open to all without charge. The exhibit, comprised mostly of watercolor paintings and drawings in pastels and pencils, is presented as part of her graduate project for an M.A. degree. Exhibit hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays and 1-5 p.m. on weekends.

FACULTY/STAFF BREAKFAST THURSDAY . . .

Thursday is the date for the Faculty/Staff Recognition Breakfast, from 7:30-9 a.m. in the Cardinal and Legacy rooms of Ayres. Join your fellow workers as the college pays tribute to many of its outstanding employees.

And, if you haven't returned your pledge for the Faculty/Staff Fund-Raising Campaign, please do so by March 30th. Thus far in this year's campaign, 100% participation has been achieved by the Bookstore, Cafeteria, Computer Center, Public Relations and Registrar's Office, while the Physical Plant has a 98% participation, followed by a 95% level of support from the Housekeeping staff. Hat's off to these departments as we try to bolster 100% support from all offices and departments!

LENTEN LUNCHEON SERIES WEDNESDAY . . .

This week's Lenten Luncheon Series features Father Francis Cleary who will speak about the biblical call to peacemaking, beginning tomorrow at noon in Sibley Hall Chapel. Bring a sack lunch or a tray from the cafeteria and join this informative fellowship discussion.

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

RESIDENCE HALL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Northeast Missouri State University in Kirksville has vacancies in its Residential Life Dept. during the 1987-88 academic year. Openings are for directors of master's degree, graduate and graduate assistant residence halls. Compensation consists of room and board, monthly salary and fringe benefits plus tuition assistance. For further details, call Marilyn Morris, a Northeast alumna, at Ext. #222.

BUSINESS SCHOLARSHIPS FOR COEDS

The West County Chapter of the American Business Women's Assoc. is accepting applications for scholarships for the 1987-88 academic year. Candidates must be business women or women seeking a business or professional career; they also should have financial need and be in good scholastic standing. Applications, which must be received by March 31, are available at the Office of Scholarships & Financial Aid.

BALOG, ZUMBRUNNEN FEATURED IN COLLOQUIE

Professors Ed Balog of the History Dept. and Wanita Zumbrunnen of the English Dept. will explore "The Concept of Justice in Russian History and Literature" next Tuesday, March 24, when the English Dept. hosts its Colloquie Series. Balog presently is teaching a course in Russian history, while Zumbrunnen just completed her doctoral dissertation on the concepts of justice in American and Russian history. The Colloquie, a series of informal sessions for students, faculty and staff, will be from noon to 1:15 p.m. in the English Lounge of Butler Hall. Bring a brown bag, and join the group!

WOMEN'S BOARD TO EXPLORE CREATIVITY

The Lindenwood Women's Board is sponsoring a program, "SILENCES - Women and Creativity," March 25 at 12:30 p.m. in 202 FAB, featuring Nancy Follis and Donna Soos, adjunct instructors currently teaching the humanities course, "Women in the Arts." The program is inspired by Tillie Olsen's book, SILENCES, which explores the difficulties that the working class and women, in particular, have in expressing creativity. Follis and Soos will explore Olsen's thesis that creative people need a great deal of independence and leisure to do their finest work. Bring a brown-bag lunch and join the Women's Board for a lively program.

WANT TO STUDY IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL?

Applications are being accepted for a semester of study this fall at the American University in Washington, DC. Lindenwood is one of 200 institutions participating in the program, which offers studies in American politics, economic policy, foreign policy, journalism and justice. A limited number of partial tuition scholarships are available. Further information on this unique program can be found on the bulletin board near 206 Roemer, or by contacting factory advisors Dean Eckert at Ext. #240 or Edith Graber at Ext. #248.

ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWS UPCOMING

A representative from the True Mfg. Co. of O'Fallon will be on campus Friday to recruit for summer jobs in production and assembly work. On April 15, a representative from ITT Consumer Financial Services Corp. will interview for management trainee positions; all majors will be accepted, but a business background is preferred. For information on either of these interview sessions, contact Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, ext. #307.

BRING SOME QUARTERS AND PLAY

Gene Goldstein reports the new student center, the Tea Hole, has installed four new video pinball games for your pleasure. Bring a few quarters, and test your luck!

SIBLEY MEDALLION DINNER APRIL 3

Keith W. Hazelwood, chairman of the Lindenwood College Board of Overseers, will host this year's Sibley Medallion of Honor Dinner, April 3, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Latzer Great Hall of the MAB. The second annual event will honor an outstanding member of the community who has aided Lindenwood in recent years. Tickets, priced at $15 each, still are available, and they can be reserved by March 27. Do do so, call Lynne Landholt in the Development Office, Ext. #337.
