Sir,

In my last interview with you (on the 19th of July last) you did __ the far promise me a comess. As early as you could do it, in relation to the Acts. __ of the Mexn. Road comsnr. which I left in your hands for further investigation, in which comsnr. you said you would point out with precision whatever __ might be found in the Act. & suggest the necessary remedies etc. etc.

I have wait till now, with some anxiety, for your promised letter, but as I have not recd. It am disposed to conclude that it must have miscarried: and as time is growing short between this & the opening of Congress, I feel it my duty to give you this information without further delay: and to request your attention to the subject __ some after the rect. Of this, as you conveniently can.

Messrs. Reeves & Mather live considerable distances from me, so that it will take some time for me to communicate with them (shud. It be necessary, after the rect. Of your letter. And I may then be again belated.

With very great respect

I have the honor to be

Sir, yr. mo obt. Svt.
