By PRESIDENT GAGE

THE principal custodians of liberal education in this country have been the six or seven hundred separate four-year liberal arts colleges. These have usually been church-related institutions. In addition there are the liberal arts colleges of universities.

The college, as we know it, is an American institution. No other country has anything comparable to it. It has expressed the genius of our people. It was an integral part of the venture that wrote the Declaration of Independence and drafted the Constitution.

A plenary right, a right in which there is no defect of an individual's power to exercise the right, is the right to form and express an opinion. It is a constitutional right. In the exercise of that right this nation has prospered. "We the people" have grown great and strong by unreserved commitment to the principle of talking things over in public.

It is as necessary now as it ever was that our people shall have opportunity not only to learn to work with their hands in their trades but also to study in the schools in order to fit themselves as citizens to rule in the assemblies of the people.

On the solid foundation of popular education we have built in America an elaborate superstructure of higher education. At this level we meet the typically American four-year liberal arts college. It is the home of freedom—freedom at the highest level—the level of intellectual and spiritual excellence.

On leaders who are liberally educated at the level of higher education our people must depend. Popular intelligence exercises one of its highest functions in the choice of representatives. Without popular intelligence the art of discipleship will be poorly exercised. Fortunately we have gifted leaders competing for popular favor on the basis of promise to render the highest, best, and most enduring service.

For more than 150 years liberal arts colleges have increased in number, power, and resources. The "winning of the West" cannot be understood without understanding the culture and motives of men who moved west from the Atlantic seaboard and planted colleges wherever they settled. Have these colleges "come to the end of a perfect day?" In the grand and awful catastrophe of war will they endure amid the "wreck of matter and the crash of worlds?" I answer by asking other questions. Will the "upsurging of the undistinguished multitude" be suppressed? Will "we the people" survive? Will several thousand years of striving toward freedom be thwarted? The answer is obvious. It is No.

Tomorrow we shall deal with human nature as before. The man of tomorrow will be quite like the man of yesterday. There is nothing to indicate that he will not need the benefits of liberal education. Neither is there anything to indicate that he will not get what he needs. The college will not die. It will become better than ever before. With better techniques and procedures it will articulate its work with life processes. It will have more students because increasing wealth and leisure will give more people the joys and efficiencies of a cultivated mind and spirit. America will, therefore, be a better America. Our people, God-fearing as self-governing people must be, will learn more and more about loving God with their minds as in Holy Writ we are enjoined to do and as colleges teach youth to do. The Republic will not perish; liberal education will not perish; the "fountain of perpetual youth" on the campus will not run dry. This I believe because I do not believe that yearning and striving for freedom will diminish. "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

Red Cross Chapter to Be Organized on the Campus

Lindenwood Family Buys $33,000 in Bonds in Fourth War Loan Drive—Per Capita Average of $50 Is Highest of Any College of Comparable Size in Missouri

LINDENWOOD'S contribution to the war effort this semester will include the organization of a Lindenwood chapter of the American Red Cross. The campus chapter will be organized this month and every student and faculty member will be invited to join.

Lindenwood is proud to announce that the faculty and students subscribed more than $33,000 in war bonds during the Fourth War Loan drive. This represents a per capita average of $50 and is more per person than was subscribed by any college of comparable size in Missouri.

Guy C. Motley, secretary of the college and assistant to the president, served as chairman of the drive in St. Charles County. A number of Lindenwood students aided in the drive by soliciting bond sales in St. Charles homes. It is estimated the students obtained pledges for more than $15,000 worth of bonds.

Roll Call of Class of 1922 Reveals Many Varied Activities

By KATHRYN HANKINS, Alumnae Secretary

TWENTY-TWO years ago the members of the Class of 1922 were looking forward to graduation. This Spring as the roll call is taken, they are busy caring for their families, doing war work and aiding in many of the volunteer tasks of the home front. The following alumnae responded to the Alumnae Office's request for news about themselves:

Mierin Litman, 4530 Charlotte Avz., Kansas City, Mo.: "Since leaving Lindenwood, I have moved to Kansas City and have been doing medical work at a clinic here. I also have charge of a library at one of our hospitals. I do my bit for the war effort by helping in the bleeding room at the Red Cross Blood Donor Center, and that is the way I keep busy during these war times."

Rilye Nelson, (Mrs. Walter Durward Semple) 129 East 46th St., Kansas City, Mo.: "I am a working mother, a department supervisor at Portal Life and Casualty Insurance Co. I have a 13-year-old daughter who is a student at Bartow's School for Girls."

Melvin Bowman (Mrs. M. L. Limbaugh), 124 West Kathleen St., Sikeston, Mo.: "For three years after I left Lindenwood, I taught English in the school here at Sikeston—then I married, and since then my time has been taken up as a homemaker. Of course, I do the usual things of a small town matron—church work, club work, play bridge, and now since the war, spend one day in the Red Cross Surgical Dressing Room each week as instructor."

Elizabeth Bungenstock (Mrs. W. B. Erwin), Brookfield, Mo.: "My husband is in the insurance business here. We have no children, so I am just a plain housewife. I wish I could give you a more glowing account of my achievements, but will have to stick to the plain truth. When we were first married we lived in Denver, then came to Brookfield which was Walter's home town."

Grace Chandler (Mrs. Carl D. Colwick), Ozona, Texas: "I am afraid my history is that of the happy man who has none! I live on a sheep and cattle ranch eight miles from Ozona on the highway between San Angelo and Ozona. It is a fine place to live and we like it. I keep house and do club and church work and have done volunteer teaching at our Latin American Community Center. I have a Sunday School class. I have been president of Ozona Woman's Club the past two years and am secretary at present. I have served on the State and District Boards of the Federations of Women's Clubs, and am a district nutrition chairman now. I am chairman of our town's War Service Board whose chief project is a Service Club for our auxiliary Bombing Field."

Louise Parkin (Mrs. Jack Thomas Lynn), 5230 Sherwood Rd., Little Rock, Ark.: "The report of myself will be very brief and not the least bit unusual. I am very much a homemaker, having two children—Jack, 14, and Virginia, 9. After 10 years of living in St. Louis we finally came home to roost."

Elizabeth Cowan (Mrs. Charles Carey), 1024 Eastwood Rd., Glencoe, Ill.: "How many replies must come back 'homemaker with two children!' That is mine. My daughter, Betty is 16; my son, Charles, is 11. We have lived here on the outskirts of Chicago for seven years, and like the north shore as much as we like Davenport, Iowa, where we lived 14 years. My husband and I both graduated from the University of Wisconsin in the Class of 1924. My interests have been, and continue to be even in these times, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Infant Welfare."

Blanche Traynor (Mrs. Fred Parthemore), 7619 Morton St., Dallas, Texas: "Briefly I have been in the business world since I came to Dallas in the spring of 1939. My sister and I had a fling at a business of our own which we operated for two and a half years. We sold our business in the fall of '41. Since shortly after Pearl Harbor, I have been doing secretarial work at North American Aviation. I am planning on resuming the role of housewife as soon as the war is over. We have no children."

Marguerite Rosenfield (Mrs. Julius Jacobs), 25 Bellevue Ave., Springfield, Mass.: "I am now living in Springfield, and doing secretarial work. I do not have any children. I appreciate getting the Bulletin."

Mildred Dial (Mrs. Walter B. Know, Jr.), 618 N. J. St., Muskogee, Okla.: "I have enjoyed the published news about the different classes. Of course, I haven't known all these class members personally, but I have been interested in their lives and the use they have made of their training. Lindenwood has cause to be proud of her 'girls' as well as the 'girls' have cause to be proud of her. I'm afraid when I was young, I

Fifty-nine Stars Now in Lindenwood's Service Flag

EACH month sees new stars added to the Lindenwood Alumnae Service Flag. Lindenwood is proud of its alumnae who are serving at home and overseas in all branches of the armed services and in the Red Cross. To make the war record complete, the Bulletin asks that news of graduates and former students now in service be sent to the editor.

Word was received this month that another Lindenwood alumna is serving overseas. She is Captain Lucille Spalding, of St. Louis, a member of the Class of 1922, Miss Spalding is serving in the Army Nurse Corps and is Chief Nurse of the Twenty-first General Hospital, now stationed "somewhere in Italy."

Stars have been added this month for two alumnae who are serving in the United States Marine Corps Women's Reserve. One is Pfc Edith E. Eldredge, of Ottawa, Ill., a member of the Class of '32. Miss Eldredge is stationed at Camp Elliott, San Diego, Calif., and has applied as a candidate for the Officers Candidate School. She writes:

"Marine Corps life is OK. Of course it has its ups and downs like everything else. But I enjoy it and the work I am doing. Right now I am in the library at Camp Elliott. They put me here because of my previous experience at Lindenwood."

The other member of the Marine Corps Women's Reserve is Pfc Virginia E. Lupfer, of Larned, Kan., a member of the Class of '38. Miss Lupfer enlisted on July 30 and after receiving her "boot" training was assigned to the photo reproduction department at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va. She writes:

"This is, indeed, a wonderful place, one of the older Marine bases. I was in the first group of women Marines to move into the new barracks built especially for us. I love the work. There are around 400 girls here and more coming all the time. We are all very proud of being Marines and of doing as much as we can to help end this war."

Alumna Gives Collection of Pictures of Class of 1886

Lindenwood College has received from Mrs. Charles Cooper of 1064 Harrison St., Monterey, Calif., a collection of thirty photographs of Lindenwood students of 1884, 1885 and 1886. The pictures taken when the students were in college, have been placed on exhibit in Roemer Auditorium.

Lindenwood is deeply grateful for the gift from Mrs. Cooper, who was Anna Clyde Newlon, Class of 1886.

Information Needed for Alumnae Service Flag

In addition to the alumnae service flag, published each month in the Bulletin, Lindenwood now has an alumnae service flag hanging in the main corridor of Roemer Hall.

The college is anxious to have a star for every alumna and former student now in service in the WACS, WAVES, SPARS, Marine Corps Women's Reserve, the Red Cross, the military nursing corps and all other branches of military service.

There is a star in the flag now for every alumna we know about. To be sure your name is included, will you please send your name, official title and branch of the service to Miss Kathryn Hankins, Alumnae Secretary, Lindenwood College?

sometimes forgot to thank the teachers, the house-mothers, Mr. Motley, Dr. Roemer, and many others who gave so untiringly of their time and effort for my pleasure, comfort, and training. However, as time glides by, I am truly grateful, sincerely proud, and deeply appreciative of the training I received in Lindenwood and of all those who contributed a part. I am a homemaker and a teacher when the call comes for teachers. Last year I offered my services and taught biology in Senior High. Now I am teaching clothing in one of the Junior High Schools. I am Superintendent of the Christian Science Sunday School. I have done several years of Girl Scout work being the leader of a troop and president of the Girl Scout Leaders' Club. We have one son, Windell Dial Knox, who is 14 years old and in the ninth grade."

Elizabeth Helen Sawyer (Mrs. J. Walter Meier), 114 W. 65th Terrace, Kansas City, Mo.: "I am a homemaker with all the outside activities which go with it when one has two boys who are active in all outside activities as well as school. One is 12 years old and the other 14 and one-half."

Margaret Owen, Maryville, Mo.: "I shall be very much interested in the news bulletin of the class of 1922. I think it is a grand idea. I am now an Assistant Librarian at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College at Maryville."

Agnes Walker, Embudo, N. Mex.: "For the past almost three years I have been at the Presbyterian hospital which is under the Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church of the United States. I am a nurse here."

Thelma Rich (Mrs. Stanley McLean Townsend), 20 Parkland Pl., Glendale, Mo.: "My husband is a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army Coast Artillery; we have a 13 year old daughter, and I have a war time job as chief clerk in a St. Louis City Selective Service Board."

Anna Jane Shelton (Mrs. Taylor Lee Douthit), 6062 Bullard Dr., Oakland, Calif.: "It seems as if I am a very busy homemaker these strenuous days. We have a daughter, Jane Shelton Douthit, who is 7. She keeps us busy and happy! I am active in the P.T.A. and Red Cross, and I put plenty of California fruit into jars last summer!"

Mary Louise Ozment (Mrs. Robert L. Metcalf), 210 W. Walnut St., Harrisburg, Ill.: "After leaving Lindenwood, I was graduated from James Millikin University and taught English for a period of five years. The following two years were spent in California where I did graduate work and travelled in Mexico. In 1933 I took a course in Social Service Administration from the University of Chicago and shortly after began my career as a case worker and case work supervisor. I continued this work until my marriage. I am remaining active in club and community work, and am present a member of the National Philanthropic organization."

Mary Lucille Redden (Mrs. Sigwald Udstad), 5422 Hawthorne Pl., N. W., Washington, D. C.: "We have been in Washington about two years and expect to be here only for the duration as my husband is on the War Production Board. We have two children of whom we are quite proud. Mary Lee, 16, and Sig, 13. They are at the age when their schemes and plans are of absorbing interest to the whole family, and I'm kept busy trying to keep up with them. I would so much enjoy hearing of any girls who might have been in school when I was and who live in this area."

Eva Marie Fleming (Mrs. James Donahue), 512 Brighton Pl., East St. Louis, Ill.: "Greetings to the Class of 1922. As time and the war go on I try to be a homemaker, a doctor's wife, do Red Cross work, and rear three children—two boys nearly 13 and 14, and a daughter who will be 5 in July."

Irene Cecelia Miller (Mrs. Howard H. Fitch), Platte City, Mo.: "I have a 9 year old son, James H. Fitch. For the present emergency, my husband is a Captain in the Air Corps of the United States, stationed at Yale University, New Haven, Conn. I have been here with him. I shall look forward to the Bulletin telling of my class mates of '22."

Roll Call of Class of 1922

Audrey St. Jean, 4221 Flora Pl., St. Louis: "Well, all I can say is for many years I was a home girl, now I have entered the business world. I am employed in a large department store doing saleswork. I like it very much. I wish I had more time to help in the war effort. I am a member of a group who serve tea at the Y.W.C.A. for service men and women on Sunday evening."

Catherine Brennan (Mrs. Warner H. Lewis), 1422 County Ave., Texarkana, Ark.: "Like most housekeepers now, I am very busy doing most of my own work, then with some church work and an afternoon a week at the Red Cross Canteen, my time is taken up completely. We have one daughter, Mary Catherine, who attended Lindenwood year before last. She is doing office work in a War Housing Project here now."

Helen Jones (Mrs. J. J. Nicely), 2710 Hubbard St., Hannibal, Mo.: "I have been married for 17 years. My husband and I have been living in Hannibal during the past eight years. Mr. Nicely is agent for Phillips Petroleum Co. We have no children. Since April, 1943, I have been Home Service Secretary of the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross. Our office is located in the Court House at Hannibal. Lindenwood is well represented in this office, for my assistant is Mrs. Gene Kaser, formerly Evelyn Heiser, of the Class of '36. I have enjoyed attending the reunions at Lindenwood and will anxiously await the letters of the girls of the Class of 1922. I keep in touch with former Lindenwood girls for seldom a year goes by that I do not spend time with my former roommate, Virginia Dell, of St. Louis and we usually see several of the St. Louis girls who attended Lindenwood when I did."

Louise Child (Mrs. Oliver Parry Jones), Forsyth, Mo.: "After my marriage in 1925, I continued to teach social science and journalism in the Richmond, Mo., High School for 14 years. Deciding that we needed a change, my husband and I resigned from the high school faculty and came to Forsyth, where we bought a farm, a store, and a home, and settled down to enjoy the beauty of the Missouri Ozarks. Lack of help and the necessity for counting stamps has caused us to postpone that enjoyment until after the war."

Georgia Carol Bear (Mrs. R. T. Cook), McCook, Neb.: "I am a housewife and a busy one. Keeping my railroad husband on the job and still keep up my music, my time seems to be taken up. I sometimes do part time government work and enjoy it."

Helen Mulliken (Mrs. Harry W. Rose), 224 S. Tanner St., Rantoul, Ill.: "We have three children; our daughter Peggy is 17 years old, and the twin sons are Jack and Jim, 12 years old. I assist my husband in the wholesale distribution of newspapers and magazines in Rantoul and on Chanute Field."

Julia Horner (Mrs. Charles M. Greenway, Jr.), is deceased.

Can anyone give the address of Nelle Elizabeth Iler (Mrs. Walter J. Spriggs)?
