

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

COMMUNIQUE

VOLUME FIVE, NUMBER 34

APRIL 14, 1987

SYMPATHIES CONVEYED TO BAUE FAMILY . . .

Members of the Lindenwood community join together in conveying condolences to the family of David C. Baue, a member of the board of overseers who died April 11 at the age of 53. A board member since 1985 and a loyal friend of the college for a number of years, Mr. Baue was the president of Baue Funeral Homes and St. Charles Memorial Gardens. Services will be at 3 p.m. today at Immanuel Lutheran Church in St. Charles with interment in St. Charles Memorial Gardens. Mr. Baue is survived by his widow, Jill; two sons, David P. and Mark G., a part-time Lindenwood student, both of St. Charles; a daughter, Lisa Devaney of St. Charles; a brother, Dr. Arthur E. Baue of St. Louis; a sister, Caroline Eaton of Fairfax Station, VA; and one grandson.

ATHLETIC BANQUET SCHEDULED MAY 2

Former St. Louis Steamers player Ty Keough and KPLR-TV Sports Announcer Bob Ramsey will take part in Lindenwood's Athletic Banquet, set May 2 beginning at 4:30 p.m. in Ayres Dining Hall. Tickets are priced at $10 per student and $15 per adult, with a portion contributed to the athletic program. Make plans to join this gala event which will pay tribute to Lindenwood athletes, including the national fourth-place women's soccer team. For tickets, contact Lynne Landholt in the Development Office, extension #338.

SUMMER JOBS AVAILABLE . . .

The U.S. Postal Service has provided the CAP Center with applications for the 1987 Summer College Student Program. Biology students are needed for temporary, part-time work with the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport. And, Rax Restaurants need crew members to work full or part time, day or evening shifts. Interested in any of these? Then, call Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, extension #307.

HONORS DAY SET APRIL 26 . . .

All members of the college community are invited to join area residents and parents of Lindenwood students for the Annual Honors Day, scheduled April 26 at 7:30 p.m. in Jelkyl Theatre. The program will recognize outstanding student achievement during the 1986-87 academic year, so make plans to attend!

VAN RAFFLE MEETING THURSDAY . . .

A meeting for everyone involved in the Van Fund Raffle is scheduled Thursday at 9 p.m. in the Tea Hole. Van Fund Raffle captains should check in with Barry Freese by today to report on ticket sales activities of their teams.

The goal of the raffle is to support Lindenwood athletics and student activities by generating donations for the purchase of a large van. First prize in the raffle is three days and two nights at the Lodge of the Four Seasons in the Lake of the Ozarks. Second prize is a weekend for two at the Holiday Inn in St. Peters. Third prize is lunch for two at Boccaccio's Gourmet Restaurant in St. Charles. Tickets are $1 each or a book of six for $5. To purchase them, contact your favorite LSG member or athlete, or give Barry Freese a call at #272 or Paul Boschert at #312.

CREATIVE HAPPENING WEDNESDAY . . .

The Griffin Literary Society is hosting its semi-annual Creative Happening Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Butler Library. This informal event gives students a chance to share their creative works with other interested students. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

LENTEN LUNCHEON SERIES WEDNESDAY . . .

The Rev. Robert Tabscot of Des Peres Presbyterian Church and an active and outspoken participant of various interfaith organizations, is this week's speaker for the Lenten Luncheon Series. He'll be discussing current developments in the Jewish-Christian dialogue tomorrow from noon to 12:45 p.m. in Sibley Hall Chapel. Faculty, staff and students are invited to bring their lunches and take part in an informal session of fellowship this Lent.

MESSAGE FROM DEAN OF COLLEGE LIFE . . .

"The rapid approach of exams is a formed reminder that we are beginning a time of special academic and personal stress. If what helps to distinguish us as a relatively small, close-knit learning community is our sense of caring and concern for those around of, it follows that the weeks ahead may help to define how well we do so.

"As the term ends, if you sense that a friend, colleague or member of your classes or organizations is having an especially difficult time and might like a third-person invitation to talk, I hope you won't hesitate to contact me at Ext. #230. I or a member of my staff will follow up on your suggestion, keeping what referral information you provide in confidence and/or anonymous, if that's your preference." - Allen Schwab.

ALL-COLLEGE READING SELECTIONS CHOSEN . . .

The All-College Reading List Committee has selected its choices for the 1987-88 academic year - THE ORIGIN OF THE SPECIES by Charles Darwin, FAHRENHEIT 451 by Ray Bradbury, IN A DIFFERENT VOICE: PSYCHOLOGICAL THEORY AND WOMEN'S DEVELOPMENT by Carol Gilligan and DANCING ON MY GRAVE by Gelsey Kirkland. The committee plans to sponsor events throughout the upcoming year that will focus on the ideas presented in these books. Suggestions for appropriate events can be sent to Jean Taylor at Ext. #329. Copies of these books will be available at Butler Library next fall. The committee also urges faculty members to give consideration to these titles when planning next year's courses.

PSYCHOLOGY STUDENTS CAPTURE SECOND PLACE . . .

Psychology majors Jane Richards and Kim Fears-Henley have won second prize in the annual Undergraduate Research Competition sponsored by the Missouri Psychological Association (MPA). Competing with students from colleges and universities throughout the state, Richards and Henley were awarded the prize for a research project they conducted in their research methods course at Lindenwood. The award consists $50 and a certificate of recognition, which both will receive at the MPA spring convention April 25. Lindenwood students have won prizes in this contest six out of the 12 times that it has been held, reports James D. Evans, chairman of the Psychology Dept.

COLLEGE LETTERHEAD ENTERED IN COMPETITION . . .

Stationery printed by the Printing Center has been entered in a national competition that could bring recognition to Lindenwood. The Jim Walter Paper Co. of St. Louis, a supplier of the paper used to print the stationery, entered a sample letterhead and envelope in a national contest sponsored by the paper mill. Used by the college's board of directors, the stationery was designed by Phyllis Morris of the Development Office and Paula G. Murray of Printing Center. It was printed by Pressman Mike Schkerke on a new line of paper supplied by Walter.

'FASHIONS '87' SLATED APRIL 25 . . .

The Fashion Marketing Dept. and the St. Louis Alumni Club are sponsoring "Fashions '87," a luncheon and fashion show April 25 beginning at 11:30 a.m. at La France Catering in Frontenac. Featuring fashions by Famous-Barr and J.C. Penney, the show will be narrated by Lynn Moore of the Fashion Marketing Dept. Models will include students, faculty, alumni and emeriti of Lindenwood. Tickets, priced at $15 each, include lunch and the show; they are available before April 17 from Esther Fenning in the Alumni Office, #317.

'BUSINESS AFTER HOURS' APRIL 28 . . .

The Lindenwood Board of Overseers and the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring "Business After Hours" April 28 from 5-7 p.m. in the MAB. Open to all chamber members and their guests, as well as faculty and staff, the session is an informal one designed to discuss community services and establish new friendships among members and the college. There's no charge, but reservations must be confirmed by Friday; to do so, or for further details, contact the Development Office, extension #338.

EASTER EGG HUNT TODAY . . .

The Lindenwood 1000 Club and the Bookstore are sponsoring an Easter egg hunt today. Eggs have been hidden on campus, so keep your eyes open as you walk to and from class. Eggs can be redeemed at the Bookstore for prizes. One green egg is the grand prize, so find it!

SPRING FLING WEEKEND UPCOMING . . .

The LSG is sponsoring Spring Fling Weekend April 24-27, so mark your calendars for a fun-filled time. Scheduled events include a Fun Run and a street dance April 24; an outdoor lunch with a DJ, the Crazy Olympics and a street dance on April 25; and the infamous Faculty/Staff vs. Student Softball Game and mud volleyball April 26. Unpack your summer cutoffs and get ready for Spring Fling!

NO MASS ON APRIL 19 . . .

There will be no Mass on Easter Sunday in Sibley Hall Chapel. Father John Schneider will resume Sunday evening Masses on April 26, and they will continue until the end of the spring semester. Mass is conducted each Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel.

GOT THE EVENING MUNCHIES?

If hungar pains strike, the Tea Hole's the answer. The Snack Bar in the Tea Hole is open from 5:30-11:30 p.m. Sunday through Thursday. A variety of popcorn, sandwiches, shakes, bagels, candy, soda, chips and pizza is available.

HATS OFF TO WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM . . .

Congratulations to Coach Deborah Kehm and the Lady Lions, who obtained a second-place finish in the women's collegiate indoor tournament. Coeds played six games at the Dellwood Indoor Club, remaining undefeated for the first five games with four wins and a tie. Their only loss came in the championship game, with a 3-2 defeat by the University of Cincinnati. Hats off to the entire team for its high level of competition with NCAA teams!

FACULTY/STAFF QUESTIONNAIRE

As a means of strengthening communications between Lindenwood faculty and staff, we're asking that you take a minute or two to complete this questionnaire. Information received will be used to spotlight faculty and staff members in upcoming issues of "Communi-que." Tell us some interesting things about yourself—unusual hobbies, personal interests, career pursuits, etc.—that you'd like to share with fellow employees. The more we know about each other, the more effectively we can communicate.

GRACE NICHOLS WINS MAYORAL RACE . . .

Take your hats back off and tip them to Grace Nichols, wife of associate math professor John Nichols, who won last week's mayoral contest in St. Charles. An attorney and former city council member, Nichols will be sworn in April 21 as the city's first woman mayor.

TEXTBOOK SALE AT BOOKSTORE . . .

The Bookstore offers a 25% savings on selected textbooks during its Yellow Tag Sale. Textbooks cover numerous subjects, and they make great library references. Stop by and check out the savings.

The book buy-back will be from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. May 6-7 and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. May 8. A Follette representative will be available to purchase used textbooks.

PORNOGRAPHY REPORT TO BE DISCUSSED . . .

The Lindenwood Women's Board will present Jean Fields discussing the "Report of the Attorney General's Commission on Pornography" April 22 at 12:30 p.m. in the MAB's Goodall Parlor. Everyone is invited, so bring a brown-bag lunch and listen to an excellent presentation on this controversial report. A copy of the commission report is on reserve in Butler Library.

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.
