

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

COMMUNIQUE

VOL. FIVE, NO. 37

MAY 5, 1987

DEAN OF ADMISSIONS RESIGNS

Dean of Admissions Miriam E. King-Watts has resigned to accept a position as Dean of Admissions & Financial Aid at Chatham College in Pittsburgh, effective July 1. In announcing her resignation, President James I. Spainhower said, "We are extremely grateful for Miriam's many years of commendable service to Lindenwood. Although we will miss her, we rejoice at this opportunity for her career and for her to return to her home state of Pennsylvania." Founded in 1869, Chatham is a private, four-year college for women, serving about 700.

King-Watts attended Lindenwood from 1962-64 and is a 1966 graduate of Pennsylvania State University where she majored in consumer services and business. She obtained a master's degree in adult studies at Lindenwood in 1982. She joined the college in 1975 as head resident of the Lindenwood College for Women. She was appointed assistant director of admissions and the LCIE in 1976 and, four years later, as director of LCIE admissions. She was appointed to her current position by Spainhower in February, 1984.

PRESIDENT CALLS ALL-COLLEGE MEETING

President James I. Spainhower has called a special meeting of all full-time faculty and staff for next Wednesday, May 13, beginning at 9 a.m. in Young Hall Auditorium. All full-time employees are expected to attend unless they have been excused by their senior supervisor.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR CHANNEL 9 AUCTION

Members of the Lindenwood community are asked to volunteer to aid Channel 9 and its Community Auction, May 14-17. People are needed to answer phones and tally pledges for two shifts on Thursday, May 14, from 6-9:30 p.m. or from 8:30 p.m. until midnight. Food and refreshments will be furnished.

For the fourth year, Lindenwood is donating tuition waivers for the auction, the annual fund-raising event for KETC-TV. Two $1,500 waivers, one for undergraduate studies and the other for graduate instruction, will be auctioned to the highest bidders on the final night of the four-day event. Beginning next week and continuing through the auction, Channel 9 will air a 60-second video produced by Peter V. Carlos of the LCIE faculty. Written by Kathy Grimm, an LCIE student and financial aid officer at Lindenwood, the film stars Michael G. Lind, an LCIE student, in a salute to 160 years of service. Participation in the auction was arranged by Public Relations Director Randy L. Wallick in cooperation with the Scholarship Committee, chaired by Larry Sackman, director of financial aid and scholarships.

Sign-up sheets for volunteers are located on campus, and they are available at the PR Office, #6 Roemer.

LUNCHEON MAY 14 FOR FACULTY, STAFF

Faculty and staff members of the Lindenwood 1000 Club are invited to a luncheon May 14 beginning at noon in the Legacy Room of Ayres. The session will discuss progress on the Faculty/Staff Campaign, the recent recognition breakfast and committee suggestions. "Your input and suggestions are an important part of this year's successes, and I hope to see you at this complimentary luncheon," said Darlene Jemison, chairperson of this year's faculty and staff fund-raising drive. Call Phyllis Morris at Ext. #338 this week if you can attend.

TAICH DELIVERS KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Arlene Taich, dean of the LCIE/Evening College and director of the Institute for Intergenerational Studies, was the recent keynote speaker at the Sigma Phi Omega banquet and installation ceremony held at SIU-Edwardsville. She addressed the topic, "Elder Pioneers - Gerontological Entrepreneurs." Sigma Phi Omega is the national academic and professional society in gerontology.

APPRAISERS TO VISIT CAMPUS MAY 3-15

Nearly 30 appraisers from throughout the country will be on campus now through May 15 for the International Valuation Sciences Institute (IVSI), which provides course instruction leading to undergraduate and graduate degrees in valuation science. Studies will be in valuation theory, methods of analysis and valuation, appraisal communication and courtroom testimony. Coming from as far away as

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

Alaska, California, Hawaii, New York and Texas, appraisers also will do focused studies in the various fields they represent. The newly-formed IVSI, the only program like it in the nation, serves higher education, research and publication in the field of valuation sciences. It is directed by Richard Rickert and supported by the American Society of Appraisers.

DENNEY TO RECEIVE ALUMNA AWARD . . .

Diane Denney, assistant professor of education and director of the Reading Clinic, will receive the Distinguished Alumna Award from Harris-Stowe State College at its commencement May 14 in St. Louis. A graduate of Harris-Stowe, she holds an M.A. degree from UMSL and is completing her doctorate at Webster.

MATERIALS NEEDED FOR COLLEGE ARCHIVES . . .

Archivist Mary E. Ambler is asking faculty and staff who are cleaning out desks and file cabinets to send materials to the College Archives at Butler Library before discarding materials. The Archives will sort and keep what it wants for college records.

MARCH OF DIMES NEEDS VOLUNTEERS . . .

Students interested in doing volunteer work for the March of Dimes for its upcoming fund-raising drive are asked to contact the PR Office for information. Volunteers are needed during evening hours, Monday through Thursday, May 11 through June 11 to do telephone solicitation at the March of Dimes office near West Port Plaza. For details, contact Randy L. Wallick at Ext. #383.

POLETTE FEATURED IN PREMIERE ISSUE . . .

An article by Nancy Polette, assistant professor of education, is featured in the spring issue of AGATE, a new semi-annual journal of the Alberta Teachers' Association. "Stretching Minds with Picture Books" is the title of the four-page article for educators of the gifted in Canada and the United States.

LAST CHANCE FOR SUPER SINGLES . . .

Wednesday is the deadline for the Super Singles - new single rooms in Niccolls Hall for juniors and seniors. For information, semester rates and applications, see Marilyn Morris or call her at Ext. #222 before tomorrow!

BOXER SHORTS HAVE ARRIVED . . .

They're exclusive Lindenwood College boxer shorts, and they're available for $8 a pair from Marilyn Morris in Niccolls Hall, Ext. #222.

Calendar of Events

5/4-8	FINAL EXAMS
5/5	NOONDAY GROUP LUNCHEON/OMNI HOTEL	11:30 A.M.	UNION STATION
5/6-8	TEXTBOOK BUY-BACK AT BOOKSTORE		NICCOLLS
5/6	DEADLINE FOR SUPER SINGLES IN NICCOLS NEXT SEMESTER
5/13	ALL-FACULTY, STAFF ASSEMBLY	9 A.M.	YOUNG AUD.
5/14	FACULTY/STAFF LUNCHEON	NOON	AYRES LEGACY
5/15	BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING	3 P.M.	MAB PARLOR
	BACCALAUREATE/REV. RUDOLPH BEARD	7:30 P.M.	PRESBY. CHURCH
5/16	SPRING COMMENCEMENT/KENNETH THOMPSON	10 A.M.	CAMPUS
	ALUMNI MERIT AWARDS PRESENTATION	10 A.M.	CAMPUS
5/17	LINDENWOOD TUITION WAIVERS ON CHANNEL 9	6:30-11 P.M.

FACULTY/STAFF QUESTIONNAIRE

As a means of strengthening communications between Lindenwood faculty and staff, we're asking that you take a minute or two to complete this questionnaire. Information received will be used to spotlight faculty and staff members in upcoming issues of "Communique." Tell us some interesting things about yourself—unusual hobbies, personal interests, career pursuits, etc.—that you'd like to share with fellow employees. The more we know about each other, the more effectively we can communicate.

Name _____

Address _____

Spouse's Name _____ Occupation _____

Children's Names/Ages: _____

Employed at Lindenwood How Long: _____ Position _____

Interesting News about Yourself: _____