

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. SIX, NO. 1

JUNE 23, 1987

KIWANIS CLUB ESTABLISHES $100,000 TRUST . . .

The St. Charles (Noon Day) Kiwanis Club has created a $100,000 permanent scholarship endowment trust for students from Lindenwood and area high schools. Considered to be one of the largest scholarship trusts created by a single service club in the Midwest, the trust will provide a minimum of nine scholarships each year. The highest award is the Renaissance Medal of Honor, which is presented jointly by the college and the Kiwanis Club and provides a full-tuition scholarship for a Lindenwood student.

Instrumental in arranging the gift for Lindenwood were Kiwanis Club members Rudy Beck, chairman of the scholarship committee; Frank C. Young, immediate past president of the club; current President Paul D. Orf; and Jim Thompson, a Kiwanian and director of development.

QUARTER SYSTEM BEGINS IN FALL . . .

As a means of providing more flexibility and services to adult students, the LCIE will change its calendar from the trimester to the quarter system this fall. The change consolidates the Evening College and LCIE, and it provides four terms a year for all adult offerings, including the graduate program in business administration both on and off campus.

"This change will serve to put the Evening College on parallel courses and will allow adult students greater flexibility in planning their programs of study," said Arlene Taich, dean of the Evening/LCIE Division.

With the switch to the quarter system for LCIE, the new term begins October 2 for all adult programs. Day courses for traditional students begin September 2.

BOARD APPROVES $8.83 MILLION BUDGET . . .

The Lindenwood board has approved a fiscal 1987-88 budget of $8.83 million, a 4.7% increase from this year's budget. Effective July 1, the new budget calls for anticipated revenue of $6.14 million from tuition, $1.3 million from gifts and other sources and $1.37 million from auxiliary operations. Tuition for the 1987-88 academic year increases 9.2%, from $5,200 to $5,680 for full-time day students. Room and board this fall will be $3,190.

"Although it has been necessary to make a modest increase in tuition, the college remains below the national average for its tuition and room-and-board charges," said President Jim Spainhower. "We have checked with area colleges and find that we are about the same as other institutions of our size," he said.

If operational costs remain as budgeted, the 1987-88 fiscal year will show a surplus of $111,085, and would represent the sixth straight year the college has ended operations with a balanced budget.

Of importance to Lindenwood employees is a 5% salary increase for all full-time faculty and staff plus equity adjustments in some positions, effective July 1.

$20,000 GIFT FROM GREEN FOUNDATION . . .

Lindenwood has received a $20,000 gift from the Allen P. and Josephine B. Green Foundation of Mexico, MO, that will be used for scholarship assistance. The gift raises the Green Foundation's contribution to $80,000 and marks the fourth year it has supported Lindenwood. The philanthropic foundation honors the memory of the Greens, grandparents of former Gov. Christopher S. Bond who operated a brick refractory business near Mexico. The $20,000 will be combined with more than $700,000 that is slated to be awarded in direct support this year for scholarship assistance.

PROFESSOR'S PAINTINGS EXHIBITED . . .

A painting by Dean Eckert, professor and chairman of the Art Dept., recently was shown in a regional juried exhibition in Kansas City, MO. The acrylic painting, "Velazquez at Segovia," was included in the Mid-Four Exhibit at the Nelson Gallery. The competitive exhibit was open to artists from Missouri and adjacent states of Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska; from more than 1,550 entries, Eckert's and 60 others were selected.

Another painting by Eckert, "Segovia: Casa de los Picos," is being shown now through July 19 in the Realism Today Exhibit at the Evansville Museum of Arts & Science. Indiana artists and those residing within 200 miles of Evansville were eligible to submit entries for this juried exhibition. During the exhibit, the painting was purchased for the corporate collection of Bristol-Myers Hillside, NJ.

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

'THANKS' FROM MAINTENANCE CREW . . .

A special thank-you is conveyed from Tub Diefenthaler, Mark Reed and others on the Maintenance Dept. staff for faculty, staff and student help during the recent Clean-Up Day last month. "It sure was appreciated, and it could not have been successful without everyone's help," they said.

A REMINDER FROM THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL . . .

With the arrival of summer, the President's Council reminds all employees of two college policies regarding appropriate dress and visitation by children.

Although summer dictates a more casual and comfortable form of dress, staff and faculty should wear clothing that represents the professional nature of the institution. Shorts, for example, are a prohibited form of dress even during summer months.

Regarding children, employees are forbidden to have their children in offices or classrooms for any length of time, except in the rarest of circumstances and only with the advance approval of their immediate supervisor. Children and family members certainly are welcome on campus, and employees are urged to have them visit Lindenwood during appropriate occasions.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY 'COMMUNIQUE' . . .

This issue of "Communique" begins the sixth year of a publication started in June, 1982, designed to be the official internal communicative link of the college. Although the newsletter has changed format and size over the years, its editorial objective has remained the same - to keep the Lindenwood community informed.

Produced as a joint effort of the Public Relations Department and the Printing Center, "Communique" is disseminated each Tuesday to faculty, staff and students on a weekly basis during the fall, winter and spring and biweekly during the summer. Annually, more than 75,000 pages of copy are written and printed for the college readership. Editorial submissions and comments or criticisms are welcome, and they can be directed to the Public Relations Dept., #6 Roemer. Deadline for editorial submissions is by 9 a.m. Monday before Tuesday publication. Publication dates for the summer are July 14 and 28; August 11 and 25; the newsletter will be published September 8, when weekly frequency resumes.

SATURDAY RIVER CRUISE SLATED . . .

Faculty, staff and students can join the LCIE when it sponsors a Colloquium July 18 for a cruise on the Missouri River. Boarding will take place at 8:30 a.m. at Frontier Park, and the cruise 90-minute cruise should depart around 9 a.m. Professor Jean Fields and Skip Moellman, an LCIE student and tour guide, will point out Missouri River attractions. Tickets, available in the LCIE Office, are priced at $3 for children 12 and younger; $4 for faculty, staff and students; and $5 for other adults. Tickets are limited, and they must be secured by July 6.
