ALS B.H. Reeves, Fayette

To: G.C. Sibley, St. Louis

Der sir,

I arrived in Franklin very early in the morning the day after I left you in Jefferson. I have not heard of nor communicated a sentence in relation to the information you communicated to me of Mr. S failure I presume I is not the fact. He is to forward to me at this place today the greater amt. of funds in his hands it will be in heavy funds, which view prevent me from forwarding it immediately to Messrs. Tracy & Wahrendorff which I regret exceedingly for the fright which I have already experienced will forever keep me from deserving to hold in my hands that which is not absolutely my own.

I will however transfer to Messrs. S. & W. ___ the greater part of the amt. yet on hands, but when I can meet with a safe opportunity to do so I cannot say. The first favorable opportunity is will be done.

With great respect & esteem yrs sincerely,

B.H. Reeves.
