

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE COMMUNIQUE

VOL. SIX, NO. 4

AUG. 4, 1987

KCLC BOARD OF CONTROL FORMED

President Jim Spainhower has created the KCLC Board of Control, a six-member group that has direct control of the college's community radio station. The board eventually will control all operations, personnel, budget, programming and utilization of KCLC for academic, community service, development, fund-raising and public relations aspects of the station. Formation of the board is designed to improve efficiency and effectiveness of the station, to make it more financially self-sufficient and to improve Lindenwood marketing.

Chairman of the newly-formed board is James G. Maurer, manager of community relations for Southwestern Bell Telephone. Other board members include Vice-President of Academic Affairs Dan Keck, Vice-President for Finance Ken Musbach, President Spainhower, Director of Development Jim Thompson and Public Relations Director Randy L. Wallick. Others may be added in the future.

COLLEGE PHONE NUMBER CHANGED

With the availability of a new telephone extension for the St. Charles area, Lindenwood has changed its number to 949-2000, effective immediately. The new number is a more marketable one that will be more easily recognized and remembered. The old number, 946-6912, automatically will be forwarded to the new one during the next 12 months. College offices and departments should begin upgrading their materials to reflect the new telephone number so that the old 946 extension can be phased out shortly.

DIRECTOR OF EVENING & CORPORATE ADMISSIONS

Marsha Parker of St. Charles, former head of personnel and volunteer services for the St. Charles City-County Library, has been named Director of Evening & Corporate Admissions. A 1971 graduate of Lindenwood, she received an M.F.A. in theatre this spring, and is well-known in the community for her theatrical performances at Lindenwood.

Prior to her 1978 appointment with the library, she served as deputy juvenile officer for the 11th Judicial Circuit in St. Charles, as director of volunteers for the St. Louis State School and Hospital, and for a year as a teacher at Duchesne High School. In addition, she has assisted the Admissions Office at Lindenwood as a graduate assistant in recruiting.

RANDY L. WALLICK, Editor

JAMES I. SPAINHOWER, President

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring semesters and biweekly during the summer. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Office and Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 9:00 a.m. Monday prior to Tuesday's publication; copy should be sent to the Public Relations Office.

NEW COURSE CATALOG EXPECTED IN SEPTEMBER

A revised timetable for the new course catalog indicates 1987-89 editions should be available on campus the week of September 28. The new catalog is being typeset and laid out by the college's Printing Center; it will be printed and bound by Jefferson Printing Co. of St. Louis.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY TO BE UPDATED

An updated faculty and staff telephone directory is planned, and it should be available in September. An employee form and information on the new directory were distributed recently in all paycheck envelopes. All employees are asked to complete the form and return them to Adranna Stapleton in the Personnel Office.

SIBLEY DESCENDENT VISITS LINDENWOOD

Robert Easton, the great-great grandson of Mary Sibley's father, Rufus, visited the Lindenwood campus for the first time recently. The 57-year-old Easton has amassed more than 40 years in show business as a Hollywood character actor and a renowned dialect expert. He has made more than 600 appearances on radio and more than 800 on television in addition to starring in 62 major motion pictures. In recent years Easton has coached Hollywood and European stars, including Gregory Peck, Sir Laurence Olivier, Charlton Heston, Jane Fonda, Ann-Margaret, Al Pacino, Sissy Spacek and Robert De Niro, to name a few.

During his visit, Easton toured the campus, visited the Sibley Hall Museum, had lunch with President Spainhower, scanned records in the College Archives, spent several hours with Public Relations Director Randy L. Wallick and visited his relatives' graves at Founders Cemetery on campus. Mary Sibley was Easton's great-great grandaunt.

From an interview that will be published in the fall issue of the LINDEN WORD, Easton said, "This is a beautiful campus, something you don't find in California. But, what is more impressive is the friendliness of this campus and of those I have met at Lindenwood. You have a unique, warm and beautiful college," he continued, "something my ancestors would have been proud of."

DITCH THE PIPE AND PASS OUT THE CIGARS!

Andrew Logsdon Balog is the name given to the first child of C. Edward Balog, chairman and professor of history, and his wife, Catherine Logsdon. Born at 10:53 a.m. July 22 at St. Joseph Health Center, the boy weighed 9 lbs., 15 ozs., and was 21 inches long at birth. Balog reports both mother and Andrew are fine, and that they both are home.

INTERNATIONAL TEACHERS VISIT CAMPUS

Yesterday, Allen Schwab, dean of the Undergraduate College, and the Admissions Office hosted a group of 35 international teachers from Belgium, France, Germany, Mexico, Nicaragua, Nigeria and Yugoslavia. The group is touring the United States, and it made the historic Lindenwood campus a stop on its way to St. Louis. Teachers were given a tour of the historic City of St. Charles and were treated to lunch during their Lindenwood visit.