by Tennessee Williams

Presented by the St. Charles Theatre Guild.

January 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, & 30

Room 101 in the Lindenwood Fine Arts Building

Jelkyl Theatre Mainstage Productions

The Elephant Man

by Bernard Pomerance

February 25, 26, & 27 March 4, 5, & 6

This true story of John Merrick, better known as The Elephant Man, is a fascinating investigation into the nature of beauty, both external and spiritual. While Merrick's body is hideously and repulsively deformed, he is sensitive and intelligent. This is a moving play about a remarkable, resilient human being.

DANCE ALIVE: A Dance Concert

A Mainstage Debut

April 15, 16, 17, 22, 23, & 24

Modern dance, jazz dance, powerful emotions, and good music mark the Mainstage debut of the Lindenwood College Dancers. The production features original choreography and performances by talented Lindenwood students and dance program faculty members Dr. Alice Bloch and Kate Cleary.
