World Kindness Day

Lindenwood University will celebrate World Kindness Day on Tuesday, November 13, 2018! Various departments around campus will host events that bring kindness and hope to our campus communities. As this day will be system-wide, our themes will be "Lions are Kind to Lions" and "Lynx are Kind to Lynx".

We will also have five minutes of no cell-phones in order to promote face-to-face conversation and kindness on Tuesday from 12:20-12:25 p.m. Please help share the word to share kindness on November 13 and every other day!

LINDENWOOD
REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

Healthy Men and Women Needed for Research Study

The Exercise and Performance Nutrition Laboratory (EPNL) is completing a research study investigating the impact of a dietary supplement on the health and function of your digestive system. Participants should be healthy and between 18 – 50 years of age. Study participation requires four visits to the EPNL (Fieldhouse 126) to complete questionnaires and to turn in biological samples required for the study. Participants will receive $100 for completing the study. Contact Chad Kerksick at ckersick@lindenwood.edu for more information.

Healthy Male Participants Needed for Research Study

Healthy male participants between 18–50 years of age are needed to complete a research study in the Exercise and Performance Nutrition Laboratory to study the absorption pattern of different amino acids. For more information, contact Richie Stecker at rstecker@lindenwood.edu.
