St. Charles

St. Louis 28 May 1828

Dear Sir

Agreeably to your favour of 23 Inst we have you enclosed One hundred Dollars, which amount we place to the debit of your account.

We wish for your own sake that Congress may have taken time to settle the accounts of the Commissioners, but as the subject does not involve the great question of "who shall be President" the united wisdom of that enlightened body, may suffer that matter to rest until "the election is over."

We have sent to Mr Simmons the articles received per Illinois, and they shall now have a trial at auction.

Your frd & obdt Servant,
Tracy & Wahrendorff
