

Communique

VOL. 6, NO. 7

SEPT. 8, 1987

COCA-COLA CLASSIC SET SEPTEMBER 25-26

The Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of St. Louis, Inc., has teamed with Lindenwood soccer to present the Lindenwood Coca-Cola Classic September 25-26 at the stadium. The two-day tourney will feature the Lindenwood men's and women's teams competing against teams from Missouri Baptist College, Missouri Valley College and Tarkio College. A first-place trophy for both men and women and MVP awards will be provided by Coke.

Friday's schedule will feature men's teams of Lindenwood and Missouri Baptist in a 3 p.m. contest, followed by the women's teams of Missouri Valley and Missouri Baptist in a 5 p.m. game. Men's teams of Tarkio and Missouri Valley compete at 7 p.m., followed by Lindenwood and Tarkio women's teams at 9 p.m. Saturday's schedule will feature a consolation game at 11 a.m., followed by the men's teams of Missouri Baptist and Missouri Valley at 1 p.m., the championship game at 3 p.m. and a men's match between Lindenwood and Tarkio at 5 p.m. Admission is free to all Lindenwood students with an I.D.; for others, it's $1 for students and $2 for adults.

'COMMUNIQUE' RESUMES WEEKLY FREQUENCY

This issue of "Communique" marks the sixth year of weekly frequency during the academic year. Produced as a joint effort of the college's Public Relations Dept. and Printing Center, the newsletter is distributed each Tuesday to more than 750 students, faculty and staff on campus.

The deadline for submission of editorial copy is 5 p.m. Friday for inclusion in the following Tuesday's newsletter. Due to the volume of weekly copy and space limitations, submissions should be submitted as early as possible. Copy should be written as briefly and thoroughly as possible and include a contact person for further information; it should be sent to the PR Dept., 6 Roemer Hall or Campus Box #652.

YEARBOOK STAFF MEMBERS SOUGHT

Students interested in working on the 1987-88 yearbook staff are invited to attend a session September 9 at 4 p.m. at the staff office, located in the basement of Irwin. If you're interested in helping but can't make the meeting, leave a note in Susan Sagarra's campus box, #562. "We must have a dedicated staff to have a yearbook this year," she said.

SPAINHOWERS CONVEY APPRECIATION

President and Mrs. James I. Spainhower extend their deep appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy by the Lindenwood community on the recent death of Mrs. Spainhower's mother, Mrs. Helen Steanson, who died September 2 in Oklahoma City, OK.

MISSOURI FIBER ARTISTS EXHIBIT AT FAB

A juried exhibit of works in various fiber media by Missouri artists will be on display September 13-30 at the Harry D. Hendren Gallery in the Fine Arts Bldg. The exhibit, as well as an opening reception September 13 from 2-4 p.m., are open to faculty staff and students. The exhibit of 24 works is part of a four-city tour by the Missouri Fiber Artists, funded in part by the Missouri Arts Council. It features examples of basketry, wearables, paper making and several forms of weaving using various fiber media.

DANCE SQUAD TRYOUTS SET SEPTEMBER 16

Coeds are needed for the Lindenwood Dance Squad, a group that performs during halftime at the men's and women's soccer and basketball games. Tryouts for this year's squad will be held next Wednesday, September 16, at 6:30 p.m. in Butler Gym. For further information on the Dance Squad or next week's tryouts, contact Susan Sagarra at Campus Box 562 or 227-9911.

ALUMNI REUNION WEEKEND OCTOBER 16-18

Students, faculty and staff are invited to take part in the annual Alumni Reunion Weekend, slated October 16-18 on campus in conjunction with Parent's Weekend. As part of the college's 160th anniversary celebration, events include an alumni and student art show, a square dance at the Tea Hole sponsored by parents, a reception hosted by President Spainhower and his wife, Joanne, a Performing Arts Dept. presentation of "Foxfire," and a panel discussion, "The Place of Liberal Arts in the Age of Information" featuring alumni, students and faculty members John Dooley, Jean Fields and Jim Wilson.

Special classes being honored this fall are those ending in the numerals "2" and "7." For further details on Alumni Reunion Weekend, contact Esther Fenning at Ext. #317; for information on Parent's Weekend, call Allen Schwab at #230.

BOARD TO HOST 'WELCOME BACK PICNIC'

The Lindenwood Board of Overseers will host its second annual "Welcome Back Picnic" for students, faculty and staff on September 21 from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. The cafeteria will be closed during this time, and free lunch and refreshments will be served in the campus Quadrangle outside Ayres. Tracy Mathis, a member of the Student Support Committee, is chairing this event for the overseers, and reports the board looks forward to a large attendance as it has a chance to mix casually with the Lindenwood family. Further details on the picnic can be received from Lynne Landholt in the Development Office, extension #337.

PROFESSOR ADDRESSES APPRAISERS

Richard Rickert, director of the International Valuation Sciences Institute (IVSI), addressed today's meeting of the St. Louis Chapter of the National Association of Independent Fee Appraisers, one of the largest organizations that offers education and certification in appraisal, primarily real estate. Rickert told the group about Lindenwood's new IVSI and about its contribution to upgrade appraisal standards as proposed by pending federal regulation.

STUDENT INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE

The CAP Center in Niccolls Hall has a variety of internship opportunities available for juniors and seniors. To find out about the exciting opportunities available, contact Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, ext. #307.

WORKSHOP SET FOR COLLEGE-BOUND ADULTS

Lindenwood will present a special workshop for adults interested in beginning or returning to college on September 11 from 9:30-11:30 a.m. or September 15 from 7-9 p.m. in the MAB's Goodall Parlor. Entitled "Changes, Choices and Challenges," the workshop will explore reasons for lifestyle changes, the decision-making process, facts about adult education, and resources and support services. The workshop will be presented by members of the Admissions and Career Planning offices. To register, call extension #237.

AAUP PLANS 'TGIF' SESSION

All faculty members are invited to a "TGIF" gathering next Friday, September 18, sponsored by the Lindenwood Chapter of the American Association of University Professors. The informal session is from 3:30-5:30 p.m. in the Goodall Parlor of the MAB. Join the AAUP as it celebrates the start of the new academic year. Bring a snack, and the AAUP will provide refreshments.

JOB AVAILABLE IN EARTH CITY

An Earth City firm is looking for a person to work in its Purchasing Dept., assisting an executive vice-president. The firm prefers a degree, but it will accept a senior who can work part-time now and full-time after graduation. The job offers an opportunity for advancement. For details, contact Debbie Coats in the CAP Center, extension #307.