Lindenwood University Library Services: Business Research Resources Workshop

BUSINESS RESEARCH RESOURCES

Featuring Trevor Rees from St. Charles Public Library

Tuesday, October 23 12pm-1pm
Dunseth Auditorium

Please bring your lunch and enjoy!

St. Charles City-County Public Library District's Trevor Rees will be in Dunseth Auditorium TODAY from noon - 1 p.m. to highlight key business databases the public library has that you should use for your research! The public library has amazing research databases that can help with market, industry, and company research, as well as international business resources. Learn amazing tips and tricks that can help you tackle research in the Business world! At the end, Trevor will have public library cards people can sign up for if interested to gain access to these amazing resources! All you need to bring to sign up is your Lindenwood ID. Being that this is during the lunch hour, please feel free to bring your lunch and enjoy!

For more information, you can contact Megan Phifer-Davis at mphifer-davis@lindenwood.edu.

Registration for EPP Classes

The English Preparedness Program (EPP) supports international students academically, culturally, and linguistically. We want to serve our international advisees by ensuring that those students currently enrolled in EPP courses are enrolled for SP SEM19 in the correct set of EPP courses. We hope that all academic advisors for international students will take a moment to view the attached document for important information regarding EPP courses and their structure. If you, or your students, have any questions regarding the EPP, please contact Elizabeth Killingbeck Pratte, EPP Coordinator, by phone (636-627-2519) or email (ekillingbeck@lindenwood.edu). Thank you for your continued support of our international population!

Nominations Needed for the Collegiate Leadership Competition

Nominate a deserving student leader for the 2019 Collegiate Leadership Team! The Collegiate Leadership Competition team is comprised of student leaders who will meet weekly throughout the Spring semester to practice and develop their leadership skills through challenging and engaging activities. They will then travel at the end of March to compete in the Collegiate Leadership Competition in Kansas City against other universities from across the region. Our 2018 teams brought home awards for Overall Champions and Team Results Champions last year! Please send nominations to Rachael Heuermann at rheuermann@lindenwood.edu.
