UPCOMING EVENTS

April 18-20 and 25-27

TINTYPES

Conceived by Mary Kyte
with Mel Marvin and Gary Pearle

From ice cream socials to the Spanish-American War to immigrants on Ellis Island and ragtime music halls, Tintypes celebrates historic changes in America. This musical drama presents a nostalgic nod to slower-paced, less complicated times in America, with a grand salute to the spirit and music of those bustling years before WWI.

DOWNSTAGE THEATRE

BLOODY POETRY by Howard Brenton..

Lord Byron...Percy Shelley... Those Romantic rebels! A mature play for mature audiences about outrageous people.

April 5,6,12,13, 8:00 pm Downstage Studio Theatre
(Fine Arts Building, Room 101)
