

---

COMMUNIQUE

---

VOL. SIX, NO. 13

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

OCT. 20, 1987

COLLEGE TO HOST REGIONAL NEH WORKSHOP

Lindenwood will host a National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) workshop October 21-22 featuring Blanche Premo, Ph.D., deputy director of the NEH's Division of Research Programs. More than 70 representatives from 40 midwestern colleges and universities will take part in the two-day event, including those from many St. Louis area institutions, Northwestern University, Memphis State University, Manchester College in Indiana, the University of Nebraska at Omaha, the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana and Bradley University in Illinois.

Premo will make a general presentation on NEH programs on Thursday morning, October 22, and, after lunch, she will meet with small groups of Lindenwood faculty and staff members to discuss individual interests. Faculty and staff are invited to attend the luncheon and/or take part in the afternoon sessions. For further details and reservation procedures, contact Wilda Swift, Ext. #389.

LIVE KMOX BROADCAST FEATURES LINDENWOOD SPOTS

Turn your AM dial to 1120 and hear Grant Horton do a live broadcast from 9 a.m. this Friday aboard the mv. Spirit of St. Charles. The KMOX-AM Radio personality will be joined by singer and songwriter John Hartford ("Gentle on My Mind"), the Natchez River Revue, Jeanne Kittrell and John Becker of Jazz Incredibles and William Childress, Ozark columnist of the POST-DISPATCH who'll be getting married on the show. Included in the broadcast will be two 60-second commercials produced by Lindenwood for promotion of its adult programs. Lindenwood listeners can send postcards to Horton, in care of KMOX, for a random drawing for tickets to the riverboat program and a luncheon that will follow the three-hour event.

WEAR RED TOMORROW AND SHOW YOUR SUPPORT!

Tomorrow, the leaves won't be the only things changing color on the Lindenwood campus. Faculty, staff and students will be wearing red to show their support for the Baseball Cardinals. The Redbirds had a tough time in Minneapolis, but the team's home now with the greatest baseball fans in the world. So, wear your wildest reds Wednesday. You gotta love it!

PROFESSOR TO DISCUSS CHINA OCTOBER 29

"China 1987" is the subject of a slide presentation on October 29 by Edith E. Graber, associate professor of sociology and chairperson of the Sociology/Anthropology Dept. Scheduled from noon-1 p.m. in the Night Owl Nook of Butler Library, it is part of the English Department's Colloquium Series of informal sessions for students, faculty and staff. Graber will discuss transformations in China, compiled from her recent studies and visits. Refreshments will be served, so bring your lunch and join the colloquie.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR GEPHARDT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

Lindenwood students are needed as volunteers for the presidential campaign of Rep. Richard A. Gephardt (D-MO). A variety of tasks need volunteer support, including clerical jobs, telephone solicitation, office work and bus trips to upcoming caucuses in Iowa and New Hampshire to talk with voters. If you're interested, contact Katie Steele at Gephardt Headquarters in Kenrick Plaza in St. Louis, 961-1111, or contact Marilyn Morris at Ext. #222.

OCTOBER 30, NOVEMBER 10 OR NOVEMBER 28?

Today's the deadline for submissions on predictions on when the ginkgo tree leaves will fall on campus. And, if you're the winner, a $50 cash prize awaits you, courtesy of a personal gift from President Spainhower. Submit your guess as to what day the college's three ginkgo trees will shed their leaves, and you could be $50 richer. Last year, it happened on November 13, but it varies each fall. Ginkgo II Day will be celebrated the following day on campus, or if the leaves fall on Friday, on the following Monday. So, get ready for the ginkgomania this autumn, and submit your entries to Ginkgo Box 51 today!

DIRECTORY AVAILABLE TO EMPLOYEES

A newly-published faculty and staff directory has been disseminated to all Lindenwood employees. The directory, published as a joint project of the Public Relations Dept. and Printing Center, contains a current listing of faculty and staff members, office and department locations, telephone extensions and, where requested, home phone numbers and addresses as well as a listing of administrative and academic offices and departments. Extra copies for faculty and staff are available at the Switchboard Office.

PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Part-time employment opportunities are available for Lindenwood students at the National Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Blvd., in St. Louis County. Flexible hours and above-average wages are offered at the center's Military Personnel Records Office. For details, call the center at 263-7078 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. daily, or contact Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, Ext. #307.

CAP CENTER PLANS CAREER WORKSHOPS

The CAP Center offers a variety of workshops this fall to assist students with career planning and job search. To sign up, call Debbie Coats at Ext. #237. The October schedule includes:

Today from 6:30-7:30 p.m., "Career Exploration" for freshmen
Thursday from 6:30-9:30 p.m., "Job Search Techniques" for seniors
October 28 from 2-3 p.m., "Career Exploration" for freshmen
October 28 from 2:30-5:30 p.m., "Interviewing Skills," and from 6:30-8:30 p.m., "Career Exploration" for LCIE and Evening College students

AUTUMN ADMISSIONS ACTIVITIES

The Admissions Office staff has planned two visitations next month for perspective high school students. The first will be November 4-5 during a state teachers conference when students are out of class, and the other is slated on Saturday, November 21. The open houses will include campus tours, meetings with professors, sessions with counselors and financial aid officials and, for the overnight event, classroom and residence hall events.

INTERNATIONAL WEEK SET

In honor of United Nations Day, the International Student Organization (ISO) will present an international display October 25 through November 1 in Butler Library. The ISO also plans "United Nations Day" with a slide show featuring Indonesian and Japanese cultures on October 27 from noon to 1 p.m. in the Heritage Room of Ayres. International snacks will be provided, and everyone is invited to wear ethnic clothing to celebrate United Nations Day. For further details about the week of activities, contact Adji Djayandaru at 304 Parker Hall, Ext. #368.

SPRING TEAMS NEED PLAYERS, COACHES

Are you interested in playing or coaching baseball or softball next spring? If so, attend a meeting Thursday at 9 p.m. in Parker Lounge to organize teams and prepare rosters. If you're interested but can't attend this week's meeting, let Tim Turner (Box #570) or Denise Lefebvre (Box #301) know.

United Way

It brings out the best in all of us.™