KCLC CELEBRATES 19TH ANNIVERSARY WITH POWER

Lindenwood students, faculty and staff are invited to the open house and working dedication of KCLC Radio, Monday from 5-8 p.m. in the Goodall Parlor of the MAB. The station will be celebrating its 19th anniversary and recent power increase from 1,500 to 25,000 watts. Kathy Leonard, general assignment reporter for KSDK-TV and a 1972 Lindenwood alumna, will be the guest speaker.

The November 2 ceremony kicks off a week-long celebration to commemorate the station's anniversary and power increase. Congratulatory messages from local and state community and political leaders will be broadcast throughout the week as part of the station's celebration and Lindenwood's 160th anniversary.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME LUNCHEON SET FRIDAY

Get ready for stares and scares this Friday during the lunch period in Ayres Cafeteria. There will be a Faculty & Staff Halloween Costume Luncheon beginning at 11:30 a.m. with judging at 12:15 p.m. Lunch will be free for all faculty and staff members who don a disguise. Lindenwood students will choose the ugliest, funniest and best costumes with small prizes to be awarded in each category. Be creative and join the fun on October 30th!

DRAMATIC COMEDY TO OPEN DOWNSTAGE THEATRE

Lindenwood's Downstage Theatre makes its debut November 12-14 with "And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little," a contemporary play written by Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Paul Zindel. Staged at 8 p.m. in Room 101 of the FAB, the play is a comedy/drama involving three very unusual sisters and their unique attempts to handle the pressures of a seemingly tranquil world gone sour.

The production will be directed by Connie Fine, a second-year graduate student from Belleflower, MO. Portraying the three sisters are Susan Crain, a sophomore from St. Louis, as Anna; Laura McClendan, a graduate student from Nashville, TN, as Catherine; and Joni Shoemaker, a senior from Monett, MO, as Ceil. Other cast members include Brian Bubbenzer, a freshman from Madison, WI; Jodi A. Lombardo, a junior from St. Charles; Tracey Zerwig, a junior from Ste. Genevieve, MO; and Paul Lampe, a freshman from Washington, MO.

PRESBYTERIAN TUITION EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Lindenwood College, along with 51 other institutions affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), participates in a tuition exchange program. Information about the exchange program is available for review in the Dean of Faculty's Office, 102 Roemer.

STUDENTS INVITED TO BOARD SESSION

The Lindenwood Board of Overseers invites students to attend its next general session, Monday at 8:30 a.m. in the Heritage Room of Ayres Cafeteria. Composed of community and business leaders, the 30-member board provides programmatic oversight for the college.

SENIOR CLASS PICTURES SLATED NOVEMBER 13

Senior class pictures will be taken on campus November 13 and 18 from 9 a.m. until noon and from 12:30-4 p.m. each day. Seniors must schedule an appointment for pictures to be taken. Appointments will be scheduled every 15 minutes during the designated times. To schedule an appointment, contact Susan Sagarra at Campus Box #562 or, during the evening, call 227-9911.

ROUTE PACKING SLIPS TO PURCHASING

The Business Office asks that faculty and staff help alleviate a problem by forwarding slips and bills of lading to Carol Whitman in the Purchasing Dept., 27 Roemer. All receipts or packing slips for any purchase of goods or services or repair of equipment on behalf of the college must be forwarded so Accounts Payable can process payment to vendors. If no packing slip is included at the time of receipt, employees must complete a "Receiving Document" form, available at the Purchasing Dept.

NEW ITEMS AT BUTLER LIBRARY

New books at Butler Library include APES OF THE WORLD by Russell Tuttle, MY FATHER AND I by Camelia Sodat, CHAPLIN, HIS LIFE AND ART by David Robinson and THE RECKONING by David Halberstom. A new periodical, ACADEMIC COMPUTING, also is on file.

T-SHIRT SALE AT BOOKSTORE

The Bookstore is almost giving you the shirt off its back with a t-shirt sale going on now. Check the yellow and red tags on the specially-marked t-shirt rack for savings of 25 to 40 percent! Also, for you party animals, check out the Spuds MacKenzie sweatshirts that just arrived.
