On Oct. 24 at 2:30 p.m. in Dunseth, Harmon Hall, the DEI Task Force and Office of Student Life & Diversity, are hosting a Diversity Dialogue – Guns on College Campuses. Dr. Pernell Witherspoon, professor of criminal justice, will moderate the event. The panelists are Mr. John Bowman, Director of Public Safety & Security, Mr. Shawn Duloher, Head Coach of the Shotgun Team; and Becky Morgan from Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America.

SCRC New Staff

We are happy to welcome two new employees to the Student Counseling Resource Center.

Becky Taylor, LCSW, is the Director of Athlete Mental Health and she starts on Oct. 5. Prior to coming to Lindenwood University, Becky worked with adolescents, adults, children, and families in both inpatient and outpatient mental health settings. She also has provided mental health services in the high school setting, private practice setting, inpatient substance abuse treatment setting, inpatient psychiatric setting, and inpatient eating disorder settings. Becky has a MSW from St. Louis University, a B.A. in Psychology from Truman State University, and is currently pursuing her Ph.D. in Social Work at St. Louis University with a focus on suicide prevention research.

Jonathan Hunn, LPC, is the new director of the Student Counseling Resource Center and he starts Oct. 5. Jonathan has over thirteen years of experience providing counseling and crisis intervention to diverse populations including college students and veterans, nine years of experience teaching on the college level, over ten years of supervisory and administrative experience with military, state agencies, non-profit and for profit agencies, and managing cases and staff. He has a B.A. in sociology from Rockhurst University, M.A. in counseling psychology from Webster University, and is pursuing his Ed.D in Educational Leadership at Webster University.

First-Year Programs Wants to Hear Your Student Success Stories

In an effort to highlight the many successes of Lindenwood students, First-Year Programs invites faculty and staff to share information relating to student success at conferences, competitions, internships, etc. with our office.

First-Year Programs oversees the Lindenwood University Parents Facebook page and creates a monthly parents/supporter newsletter. Parents and families love hearing about the real experience students are gaining by presenting research at conferences, winning academic competitions, interning in their field of study, and more.

If you know of a student or student group who achieved real success at such an event, please email a picture of said student(s) with the students' major to Dacoda at DScarlett@lindenwood.edu. Please also include a small description of the success. For examples of comparable posts, check out the Lindenwood University Parents page on Facebook.
