

---

COMMUNIQUE

---

LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

VOL. SIX, NO. 17

NOV. 17, 1987

FACULTY PROMOTION DEADLINES UPCOMING

Nominations and applications for promotion are due in the Dean of Faculty's Office no later than December 1. All materials necessary for the consideration of the faculty member for promotion are due in the Dean of Faculty's Office by Jan. 31, 1988.

SPAINHOWERS TO HOST LINDENWOOD ALUMNI

President Spainhower and his wife, Joanne, will host the St. Charles and St. Louis Lindenwood Alumni clubs at a dinner December 1 at their residence. Guest speaker following the 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner will be Daniel Alkofer, chairman of the Performing Arts Dept. A short business meeting and entertainment by performing arts students will round out the evening. The event is open to all Lindenwood alumni in St. Charles and St. Louis. For further information and reservation procedures, contact Esther Fenning at Ext. #317.

COMPUTER EQUIPMENT DONATION FOR MATH, SCIENCE

John Dooley, assistant professor of computer science, reports the enhancement of the Math & Computer Science Department's academic computer center with the acquisition of a PDP-11/34 computer, a 9-track tape drive and a removable pack disk drive. The equipment recently was acquired recently as part of a donation to the college by William Tao & Associates of St. Louis. The new equipment will be used as a laboratory computer for 400-level computer science courses.

1988 WOMEN'S NETWORK CONFERENCE SET

The National Network of Graduate Business School Women will host its 10th annual National Network Conference, February 26-28 at Washington University and the Holiday Inn in Clayton. The three-day event will explore career opportunities to strengthen the group's network of professional contacts. It also will feature sessions led by accomplished businesswomen and nationally-reknown speakers. Lindenwood students who want further information on the conference can call 726-4212 for a packet of information.

TELEPHONE SOLICITORS SOUGHT

Lindenwood students interested in earning extra cash for the holidays should contact the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation at 993-6670. The local charity needs enthusiastic telephone solicitors now through Christmas. The pay is from $4 to $6 per hour, and the job has flexible hours mornings, nights or weekends. Telephone contacts can be made from students' homes. Interested? Then, call Rennie Hopping at the March of Dimes for details.

COLLEGE CAREER NIGHT SLATED

Washington University will sponsor a College Career Night tomorrow from 5:15-6:30 p.m. in Room 30 of January Hall. A panel of speakers will present "Careers in International Affairs." Lindenwood students interested in attending this free event should call 889-6777 for registration.

BROADWAY BOUND? THEN HEAD TO PARKER HALL

Now's the time for all would-be musicians, actors, singers, dancers, comedians or anyone else you can think of to take part in the Parker Star Search. It's your big chance, and the big event takes place tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Ayres Cafeteria. To participate, you must fill out a slip of paper with your name, phone, campus box number and your act, and submit it by 6 p.m. Wednesday. Entries can be submitted to Campus Box 83 or 92, or they can be delivered to 217 Parker Hall. Join the fun, and drop by Parker tomorrow night. Break a leg!

ASSISTANT NAMED FOR DOWNTOWN CENTER

Karen J. Johnson of O'Fallon, IL, has been appointed as a student assistant at Lindenwood's new Downtown Center, 230 Mansion House. A senior pursuing a B.S. in business administration, she will be the liaison for students and staff, and will be available at the center Monday through Thursday from 3:30-6 p.m. Johnson (no relation to Karen Johnson in the LCIE Office), is a registered nurse who graduate from Jewish Hospital of Nursing in 1964.

DANCE LECTURE, DEMONSTRATION TONIGHT

The Performing Arts Dept. will present "Glimpses: and Informal View of Dance at Lindenwood" at 7:30 p.m. today in the Parker Hall's second-floor Lounge. The lecture and demonstration will be performed by dance students with live accompaniment by musician/composer Alan Shilling. The free event is sponsored by the department and the Intermissionaries.

PROFESSOR PUBLISHES PAPER

"Experiences in Starting and Running a Small College Computer Center" is the title of a paper published recently by John Dooley, assistant professor of computer science, in the JOURNAL OF COMPUTING IN SMALL COLLEGES. The article appeared in the journal's September issue.

ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING DECEMBER 8

A representative from Mary Kay Cosmetics will be on campus December 8 to interview students for positions as sales consultants. The company offers many fringe benefits and advancement opportunities. To sign up, contact Debbie Coats at the CAP Center, Ext. #307.

THANKSGIVING CONCERT NOVEMBER 22

The Music Dept. will present a Thanksgiving concert November 22 in Sibley Hall Chapel to help raise funds for the renovation of the chapel, the college's main recital hall. Under the direction of Kristana Weiler, instructor of music, the one-hour program will include a variety of compositions, ranging from traditional to contemporary styles. Performers include Natalie F. Borders, a junior from St. Charles, on piano; Richard Goodman, a freshman from O'Fallon, on guitar; Mike K. Middleton, a senior from O'Fallon, and Terri Schwartz, a junior from St. Louis, both on voice; and the Lindenwood Choral Ensemble. The concert begins at 7:30 p.m. Voluntary donations for the renovation project will be accepted after the performance.

PERSONNEL CHANGES IN BUSINESS OFFICE

Recent personnel changes in the Business Office involve the appointment of Denise Boschert to the position of staff accountant and Bonnie ("B.J.") Britte to the position of accounts payable clerk. Boschert replaces Karen Voznak who will be leaving Lindenwood to pursue a teaching career, and the accounts payable is being filled by Britte. Please route appropriate mail to Boschert as staff accountant and to Britte as accounts payable clerk.

NO 'COMMUNIQUE' NEXT WEEK

Because of next week's Thanksgiving holiday, "Communique" will not be published November 24. Publication of the newsletter will resume December 1 and continue December 8 and 15. Editorial deadlines remain the same during the Thanksgiving and Christmas breaks - by 5 p.m. Friday for the following Tuesday's newsletter.

ART FACULTY REPRESENTED IN GUILD EXHIBIT

Five members of the art faculty are represented in "Faculty '87," an invitational exhibition now through December 10 at the St. Louis Artists' Guild in Webster Groves. Faculty members are Dean Eckert, chairman and professor of art; Mark A. Fisher and Nancy Follis, adjunct instructors; Hans Levi, associate professor of art; and John H. Wehmer, professor of art. The five are among more than 80 artists/instructors selected for single exhibits in varied media. The one-month exhibit is represented by 16 colleges and universities throughout the metro area.

In an unrelated showing, Eckert is one of 82 artists selected from among nearly 600 to exhibit at the "1987 Biennial," an all-media show taking place November 22 through January 3 at the Sioux City (IA) Art Center. His acrylic is among works of art from an eight-state area represented at the exhibit.

In another show, Levi is exhibiting 40 color and black-and-white images in a one-person show in November at the Art Center in Astabula, OH.

A HOLIDAY GIFT FROM JOSTEN'S & THE BOOKSTORE

Happy holidays from Josten's and your Bookstore. A Josten's representative will be at the Bookstore next Monday, November 23, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. to take orders and explain Josten's selection of class rings. And, as a holiday gift, you can receive a free 35mm camera with a retail value of about $59 with every college ring. Stop by Monday!

JOB SEARCH TECHNIQUES WORKSHOP

Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon the CAP Center will conduct the "Advanced Job Hunter's Workshop." Topics to be discussed include networking, interviewing skills, resume writing and advancement within one's current work setting. Make plans to attend this important workshop at the CAP Center.

SOROPTIMIST OFFERS AWARDS FOR COEDS

Soroptimist International of St. Louis is offering honorary and monetary awards "to promote upward mobility in mature women, assisting them in their efforts toward training and entry or reentry into the labor market." Preference will be given to heads of households, those completing an undergraduate program or women entering vocational or technical training. Applications must be submitted by December 15, and winners will be announced in January; winners also will become eligible for additional regional awards by Soroptimist International of the Americas, Inc. For further information and application forms, stop by the Financial Aid & Scholarship Office in Butler Hall.

EDUCATION WRITERS INSTITUTE FORMED

In cooperation with more than 60 publishers of education materials, the Education Dept. has established the Education Writers Institute (EWI) to train educators to write for publication and profit. EWI faculty members are published authors or editors in the education field who will work with students by mail to develop their ideas in a variety of publishable formats. These can include professional articles, textbooks and workbooks, cassette tape scripts, transparency masters, filmstrips and computer programs.

According to Nancy Polette, assistant professor and EWI director, "When a student's work reaches publishable quality, cooperating publishers have agreed to give the work consideration. In addition, they keep EWI faculty informed of their publishing needs," she added. Further details on the newly-formed EWI are available from Polette at Ext. #359.

---

"Communique" is published each Tuesday during the fall, winter and spring terms and biweekly during the summer session. Produced as a joint effort of the Public Relations Dept. and the Printing Center, it is disseminated to all faculty, staff and students. Deadline for submission of editorial copy is 5 p.m. Friday for inclusion in Tuesday's newsletter; copy must be written and contain a contact person for further information. "Communique" reserves the right to edit copy due to space limitations.

---

160
Years Young!